

VALENTINES FOR 1931 SHOW SENTIMENT IS RETURNING

Four Types Displayed This Year

BY JULIA BLANSHARD

NEA Service Writer

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Sentimentality is sneaking back into this blase old world again, aided and abetted by multitudinous new valentines arrayed to help little old Dan Cupid Feb. 14.

While there are some good old-fashioned ones that drip the delicious "sweet-nothings" that old-fashioned girls love to hear and old-fashioned boys love to say, there are even more that have a bantering note, that get across the sentiment idea in a neat, off-hand manner.

Flowers, candy, fruit, books, and all the luxurious things girls like to get for valentines are still in order. But you really should tuck away a valentine among the wrappings, just because St. Valentine's day, after all, is dedicated to sentiment and if you can't enter the spirit of it the least little bit, why try?

Valentines Are Few Kinds

By and large there are four new types of valentines. Since fans are in vogue again, there is a tremendous number of lace, lovelier fan valentines, some of them using real lace about the edge, with the floral design in pastel colors done in water color, on parchment.

In this same class of decorative, old-fashioned valentines comes the quaint lace masterpieces, reproductions of those of the gay nineties, with several layers of lace paper standing out in front of the picture itself.

Most of these have old-fashioned verses, though some of the new fan ones do betray a nonchalance that is modern.

In this same class, rather expensive and old-fashioned, comes a new type that has a practical aspect.

Lovely Prints Shown

These are lovely prints, some authentic prints intended for framing when Valentine's day is over, others reproductions of Currier and Ives and old English sporting prints and colored Godey's Ladies Book prints.

Also it is considered quite a neat thing to do to have a lady's silhouette done unbeknownst to her and have it sent on Valentine's day as a gift! Other silhouettes are equally stylish, however.

Second in the new types of cards come the modern ones, which are definitely amusing. These are wise-cracking, some in dialect, all typical of this age.

The third large group this year come to pet misses, especially the cat valentines. Not cat, the type that one vixen would send another, but valentines that follow the great vogue for cats as pets.

Animal Note Prominent

Some are cat-shaped, some have cats on them, with real fur for bodies and tails, and others make all kinds of puns on "fur." There are many, other pet Valentines, Scotties, parrots, fish, alligators, horses and so on.

Last, but not least, come the caricatures of the old-fashioned Valentines. They have such humorous shy figures and such tiny poses. These are apt to be printed in gay colors with verses inside and out.

They come nearest being the old-time cards that used to hurt folks so in another decade. But these show that there is soft-heartedness abroad today. For they soften the blow so, they are really just amusing and not cutting.

LUNCHEON TO BE GIVEN BY W. C. T. U.

The Central W. C. T. U. will meet in the parlors of the Fletcher American National bank at 2 Friday. Arrangements will be made for a George Washington luncheon to be held Friday, Feb. 20, at the Food Craft shop.

Miss Adele S. Stork, parliamentarian, will give a lesson in parliamentary law, and Mrs. E. R. Lewis will lead devotions. Mrs. J. J. Davis will read a paper on Abraham Lincoln. The president, Mrs. W. W. Reedy, will preside.

TORCH MEMBERS TO ENTERTAIN GUESTS

Members of Torch, sophomore women's honorary organization at Butler University, will hold its February spread and program at 5 today at the Kappa Gamma house, 821 Hampton drive.

Miss Virginia Goodwin, president, will be assisted by the following committee: Misses Maxine Hill, Hope Wilcutts, Geraldine Kuntz, Zeta McFadden, Evelyn Bentley and Thelma Flack.
