ODD FELLOWS SOON TO BUILD NEW HOSPITAL

No Definite Date Is Set for Beginning of Work at Greensburg.

Odd Fellows of Indiana probably will start work on a new hospital at the order's Orphan and Old Folks' home at Greensburg soon, it is reported.

No definite data for construction has been set, but $25,000 already has been contributed by members for the work, according to George W. Bornwasser, Indianapolis, grand secretary.

The new hospital or an addition to the old is necessary to relieve crowded conditions, authorities say. Out of the 198 old folks now being cared for at the home, 78 are in the hospital.

This is one of the big items in maintenance at the home, for it costs $445 for each person in the hospital as compared with $241.75 per capita on other inmates, a report of C. E. Travis, superintendent, discloses.

During the past year, Travis reports, 265 persons were cared for at the home. This number included thirty-nine boys and twenty-eight girls.

Contributions of subordinate lodges to the home work ran high for the year, he reported to the home board. The Christmas donation was the largest in recent years.

Twice as much fruit, bedding, clothing, and other presents for children were received compared to last year. Three Rebekah lodges, Faith No. 206, of Columbus; Pleasant No. 35, of Angola, and Moriah No. 109, of Kokomo, furnished each child with a Christmas present.
