Buffet, table and chairs in the wanted walnut finish. This is but one of the many unusual values to be found in our dining room department. A visit through our sales floors will surprise and please you. Styled in Queen Anne.

Mrs. Streitenberger, living at 509 North Illinois Street, is the fortunate lady who visited the "Cut-Price" furniture store during the formal opening and secured the mohair living room suite that was given away. Thousands of people visited the "Cut-Price" furniture store on opening day and were greatly surprised and pleased to find such high-grade furniture at such unusually low prices. During the removal sale the Ideal Furniture Co. cut prices to dispose of sample furniture and increased their business to such a great volume that the owners decided to operate the new store on the same plan—a great volume of business and sell at the smallest possible margin of profit. Better furniture for less money at the "Cut-Price" furniture store.
