

CAPONE HOME, GIVES ORDERS FOR ELECTION

70,000 Watchers Are Assigned to Chicago Polls for Tuesday Balloting.

By United Press
CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—The reported arrival of Scarface Al Capone, "to take care of his interests," and assignment of almost 70,000 watchers to guard the polls were two of many sensational developments as one of the most bitterly fought primary campaigns in Chicago history came today to a noisy ending.

Some of the other last minute sensations of the race between Mayor William Hale Thompson, Judge John H. Lyle, Alderman Arthur F. Albert, and two other candidates, for the Republican nomination to become world's fair mayor were:

Violence, predicted by both Lyle and Thompson, began with an unsuccessful attempt to assassinate Theodore Clifford, an aldermanic candidate.

A group of World war veterans announced they would file impeachment proceedings against Judge Lyle.

Capone Issues Orders

Thompson announced that, win or lose, he would "spare no effort" to aid the veterans.

Judge Lyle, famed as the foe of gangsters, dramatically dismissed policemen sent to guard him and ordered them instead to "go hunt Capone—he's reported in town again."

Democrats with practically no contest in their party, prepared to give Senator-elect James Hamilton Lewis a welcome home from Arizona that would be more uncaring than any of the Republican demonstration which have kept the town in turmoil for days.

Capone, whom Lyle has accused in all his addresses of contributing to Thompson's campaign fund, was reported to have arrived from Florida and to be issuing orders to his lieutenants for their conduct Tuesday.

Seek to Impose Lyle

Reports were he is taking no chances by coming to Chicago, but is hiding in his favorite stronghold, Cicero, or some other neighboring town.

Announcement that an attempt would be made in the state legislature to impose Lyle was made by Newell McCartney, judge advocate of the Seventh district of Illinois of the American Legion.

"We are going to proceed against Lyle, not because he is a candidate for mayor, but because of his ill treatment of war veterans arraigned before him on various and petty offenses," McCartney stated.

BROOKLYN'S MATADOR'S LIFE SAVED BY CAPE

Gored by Bull, Franklin Returns to Make Second Killing.

By United Press
LAREDO, Tex., Feb. 23.—Sidney Franklin, Brooklyn matador, today credited his red cape with saving his life in a Nuevo Laredo (Mex.) bullfight Sunday, during which he was gored below the knee and narrowly escaped death.

Ignoring the wound, he returned to the arena to kill another bull. "The bull could have killed me when I slipped and his horn caught my leg, but my cape lying on me and a little to one side distracted his attention and I was able to get to my feet," Franklin said.

Machine Saves Babies

Seeking to lower the infant death rate, a Chicago hospital has installed a tiny respirator to be used on babies suffering from pulmonary illness and to fan the spark of life in infants born in a very weakened condition by gently forcing breath into the lungs.

Nurse Helen Barker and Dr. Nathan Grohn are shown with the respirator and tiny patient. Already the machine is credited with saving the lives of five babies.

50 Years Ago In Legislature

By United Press

A proposal of bonus payments to soldiers who served during the Civil war was laid before the house of representatives in the 1881 legislative session in a bill which was passed by an overwhelming majority.

It provided that the state pay $16,000 to members of the Indiana Legion for their services in the War of Rebellion.

A move of somewhat the same nature was made in the 1931 legislature, during its first week, when members of the house passed a resolution asking congress to speed up payment of bonus certificates of men who served during the World war.

REBELS SEIZE FORT IN PERU, BATTLE NEARS

Loyal Troops Converge on Arequipa in Effort to End Revolt.

By United Press

LIMA, Peru, Feb. 23.—Loyal troops were converging on Arequipa in southern Peru today. Their offensive is against the rebels who over the week-end seized the garrison in an effort to overthrow the revolutionary government headed by Lieutenant-Colonel Luis M. Sanchez Cerro.

The government issued an official communique asserting that all other garrisons throughout Peru remained loyal, and that forces from loyal garrisons at Juliaca, Cuzco and Puno, in southeastern Peru, already were marching toward Arequipa. A battle was believed imminent, with authorities confident the uprising would be quelled quickly.

The garrison at Arequipa was seized following the revolt last August, which overthrew the regime headed by former President Augusto B. Leguia, now a prisoner.

Cooking Expert

Mme. Melanie Reichelt

Demonstration of how her famous Viennese pastries are made will be given by Mme. Melanie Reichelt of Vienna during her visit at L. S. Ayres & Co. this week.

Madame Reichelt will serve tea at 3 Thursday, Friday and Saturday in the Ayres auditorium, where she will prepare two different pastries before the audience each day.

One of her most famous concoctions is a cake without flour, topped with whipped cream and strewn with chopped nuts.

Madame Reichelt, who gained a reputation for pastries at her inn at Baden, in the Vienna woods, is making a tour of twelve cities.

SHOALS VETO HELD CERTAIN BY SEN. NORRIS

Legislation on Issue Is Unlikely While Hoover Is President, He Says.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Legislation for government operation of the Muscle Shoals hydro-electric power plant and lease of the fertilizer plant to private interests today was on the threshold of approval by the senate.

The house passed the measure Friday. But advocates of the bill concede it will not become a law.

Senator George Norris (Rep., Neb.), for ten years years sponsor of such legislation, expects President Hoover to veto the bill, perhaps by permitting it to die without his signature.

The same procedure could be followed with respect to the veterans' loan bill, which reached the White House just a day too late to avoid being placed in the "pocket veto" category.

Even if the President returned a veto message on the Muscle Shoals bill, there would be scant chance of making it become law.

Norris says there are not sufficient votes in either senate or house to override a veto.

Neither does Norris believe a bill of this type could be passed over a veto in the next congress.

"Veto of this bill will mean," Norris said, "that we will have no Muscle Shoals legislation so long as Mr. Hoover is in the White House."
