

TALKING IT OVER

BY JOE WILLIAMS

NEW YORK, March 13.—My contacts men down at the training camps inform me that at all the spring infeld sensations now springing in the south perhaps the most interesting is Jim Levey, the Jewish boy who is to play short for the Browns. It develops that the St. Louis club bought Levey out of the marine corps, and that he was discovered by Jim Breckenridge, the big Dartmouth pitcher who was with the Athletics in 1930.

Breckenridge had buried against Levey in a game between Dartmouth and the Quantico Marines and passed the tip on to James McEvoy, vice-president of the Browns and a fellow Oklahoman. McEvoy finally landed Levey and now, after preliminary tutelage and experience with Tulsa and Wichita Falls, this direct descendant of King Solomon is ready for the show. Levey hails from Pittsburgh.

Our West Penn News correspondent adds that while Lu Blue is a holdout he really needn't bother about reporting, as his job is to a man with the most important club in the country. McEvoy, one of Shanty Hogan's Somervilles (Mass.) neighbors, who was with Levey at Wichita Falls last year.

In recent years there has been one quaint rule without which no spring training season could be regarded as official. Each March the Cleveland club has benched Doc Jamison, that fleet and erudite citizen of Patterson, N. J., who is listed among the Indians' best fielders.

In March and April, April 1 is supposed to be through, but by May his busy doing most of the fly chasing while some supposed successor still is wondering what it is all about down at New Orleans.

My New Orleans informant, at the camp of the Indians, says that Roger Peckinpaugh has been released and has given Doc a job to a young man with the most appointments. The young man, who is 24, is and, I am sure, a native Clevelander, who spent the 1930 summer at salubrious Terre Haute.

Of course, I am all for Yank, especially as he is one of the shrewd Houghs' Yankies. But I can't help wondering when Jamison has got back in the team to tell Earl Averill, who is to have a new to, and how far back to run for a fly ball.

I ALSO am told that there still is a good chance that Willie Kamm will be traded by the White Sox to Cleveland. It seems likely that this deal will be closed as soon as Honey-moon Morgan, a recent benefit who is touring Mexico with his wife, $1,000 and a $1,000 car, makes up his mind to accept a paltry $15,000 from the Indians.

At the close of the 1930 season the Chicago club could not let Joey Sewell have with the Yankee; Burnett, the third baseman, and Fonseca, all for Kamm. Certain officials of the White Sox were well disposed toward the proposition. In fact, I understand that Donie Bush wanted to sign the papers right off, as he was ready to do, in order to rid himself of the lethargic Kamm who undoubtedly is finished in so far as any team managed by Bush is concerned.

But Charley Compton stalled for the deal, "paid $100,000 for Kamm and I am going to get the equivalent for him," the Old Fox said. "I am not going to let an old man like Fonseca go." Kamm's brother flashed a "baseball" White Sox sign and proved that Fonseca was exactly twelve days older than Kamm.

"Well, that may be, but he looks twelve years older to me," growled the owner of the Sox, as he stalked out of the conference. But it looks as if the deal is not again now.

FROM Tampa I get disturbing news about Harry Hellmann, the Cincinnati outfielder. They say that Harry may be nearing the close of his illustrious career. He is at his home in Detroit undergoing treatment for a painful arthritis of the right wrist, and Dan Howley has given up hope of having Handsome Harry for the first month of the pennant drive, anyway.

As a result, Sidney Well, owner of the Reds, is hurrying from Florida to see the doctor and the physiotherapist. Well is reported to be about to do business with the Cardinals or the Braves.

Boston may decide to let Eichhorn go, while Worthen is playing a minor role with the Indians. Baker, after all, was the Cards and of course, Baker, get all the Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

THREE TRIBE HURLERS NAMED TO FACE ROBINS

Barnhart, Smith and Holshouser Selected

New Indian Moundsmen, All Right-Handers, Given Sunday Assignment: Fitzgerald Shows Well in Center Field: Montague, Narlesky Shine.

BY EDDIE ASH
Times Sports Editor

SARASOTA, Fla., March 13.—Looking forward to the opening exhibition game at Clearwater Sunday against the Brooklyn Robins, Manager Corrigan of the Indians announced today that his pitchers for the initial assignment would be Herman Holshouser, Leslie Barnhart and George Smith, all new members of the Tribe mound staff and all right handers.

He permitted the three to rest Thursday for the first time during spring training and explained they were being groomed to face the big leaguers.

Holshouser, Barnhart and Smith operated daily in batting practice up to the mark and the vacation suited them to a queen's taste. However, they were asked to warm up and run around the field before going to the clubhouse to say goodbye for the afternoon. They were slated to appear in the box again today and receive another recess Saturday to put them on edge for the task of struggling against the major leaguers on the Sabbath.

Big Four Is Defeated by Coast Five

By United Press

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 13.—Four of the forty-nine teams entered in the national A. A. U. basketball tournament remained undefeated today and were matched in semi-final games.

The four survivors were the Los Angeles A. C., Henrys of Wichita, Kan.; Young Men's Institute of San Francisco and the Kansas City A. C.

Young Men's Institute team entered the semi-finals by defeating the Big Four A. A. team of Cincinnati, with many Indianapolis stars in the lineup. Thursday night, 28 to 21. The coast team was ahead, 21 to 9, at one point of the game.

News From Big League Spring Camps

THURSDAY'S EXHIBITION SCORES
St. Louis (N), 12; Boston (N), 6; Brooklyn (N), 10; Philadelphia (N), 6; Boston (A), 4; Spring Hill Col., 1.By United Press
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., March 13.—Tom Jenkins, Milwaukee rookie, promises to fill the St. Louis Browns' right field vacancy. Jenkins was the star of Thursday's practice game, belting out a triple and a single to drive in three runs, giving the reserves a 6-to-5 victory. In addition, he made several sensational catches.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 13.—Improved defensive ability by Eddie Jolley has been the cause of the White Sox outfit additional strength. Jolley has convinced Manager Donie Bush that he is learning to handle the post satisfactorily.

The Indians will resume their exhibition series Saturday and Sunday with New Orleans. Wes Ferrell is scheduled to pitch the opener.

LOS ANGELES, March 13.—Chicago Cubs will meet the Los Angeles Pacific Coast League team in the first of six exhibition games. Warneke and the Sox were expected to do most of the playing, while the Indians will wrap up their training on Catalina Island with a spirited bat drill.

SACRAMENTO, Calif., March 13.—Manager Bucky Harris and one division of his Detroit Tigers were in San Francisco today to open a thirty-six-game exhibition schedule with the Seals. Waite Hoyt will start today's game.

BRADENTON, Fla., March 13.—With Frankie Frisch in camp and expected to sign his contract today, Chick Hafey is the only remaining St. Louis Cardinals' holdout. Frisch arrived Thursday night and said he expected to have no trouble making terms with President Broadron. The Cards returned to camp Thursday night after a 12 to 6 victory over Boston and will engage in fungo field ground balls and is certain to retain the right fielder.

TAMPA, Fla., March 13.—Improved weather and the return of Joe Stripp who has been ill since he reported brought the Indians' exhibition series to a close as the Reds tuned in for Saturday's game. Stripp, a former Yankee, was the longest drill of the year Thursday and planned another extended session today.

LOS ANGELES, March 13.—With Frankie Frisch in camp and expected to sign his contract today, Chick Hafey is the only remaining St. Louis Cardinals' holdout. Frisch arrived Thursday night and said he expected to have no trouble making terms with President Broadron. The Cards returned to camp Thursday night after a 12 to 6 victory over Boston and will engage in fungo work for the balance of the week.

SAINT LOUIS, Mo., March 13.—As a result, Sidney Well, owner of the Reds, is hurrying from Florida to see the doctor and the physiotherapist. Well is reported to be about to do business with the Cardinals or the Braves.

Boston may decide to let Eichhorn go, while Worthen is playing a minor role with the Indians. Baker, after all, was the Cards and of course, Baker, get all the Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

A wire was received by the Legion Wednesday from My Sullivan of St. Paul, who challenged the winner of the Legion scrap a week from Tuesday, when Del Fontaine meets the winner of this Tuesday night's match. The St. Paul middleweight clash was immediately given the date, so that it begins to resemble a middleweight tourney being run at the Armory for a while.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.

Supporting Scraps for Middleweight Feature Given

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman feature promises to be just as fast and furious as was the slugging we two weeks ago, when Tramble fought Del Fontaine, according to Legion unit officials.

The Ray Tramble-Jo Feldman, Chicago, middleweight, Four Rounds—Roy Kid Baker, Anderson; Donald Faser, Clinton; middleweight, St. Louis—Tizer Thompson, Evansville; vs. Royal Cox, Indianapolis featherweight, Frank Gierke, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Roy Fruden, Indianapolis; featherweight Frank Beck, Indianapolis; Four Rounds—Mike Dale, Evansville; Tom Beck, Indianapolis; junior featherweight Four Rounds—Pee-wee Clark, Fountain Inn; Jimmie Fox, Indianapolis; flyweights.