New Counts Involving a Girl Not Yet Named Are Hinted.

By United Press
LOS ANGELES, March 13.—Investigation of vice charges which already have involved Alexander Pantages and other wealthy men, shifted today from San Diego to Los Angeles with district attorneys of both cities hinting that new counts involving a girl not yet named, would be filed.

Harry Baugh, deputy district attorney of San Diego county, was working on the new development. Burton Pitts, district attorney of Los Angeles, said all his information had been placed at the disposal of Baugh.

New Developments Likely
Pantages, multi-millionaire theater magnate, John P. Mills, Los Angeles and San Diego oil and real estate man, and Jesse Shreve, wealthy San Diego business man, already have been arrested on charges involving two minor girls. Although new developments appeared likely, the whereabouts of Mrs. Olive Clark Day, former actress, charged with having arranged meetings between girls and wealthy men, remained a mystery. "Mrs. Day disappeared last Friday after she was released from the Los Angeles jail on $15,000 bail on a charge involving 16-year-old Clarence Tauber and Mills.

William Jobelmann, Pantages' former press agent who was charged with being an associate of Mrs. Day, showed no inclination to obtain bail and remained in jail awaiting his preliminary hearing.

Pantages Under Bond
It was said that Blayney Matthews, investigator for Pitts, was in possession of evidence linking an unnamed girl with two trips to San Diego with Jobelmann and Mrs. Day. On each occasion, it was said, she met a prominent and wealthy man.

Pantages, showing the effects of an illness he suffered last June before he was released on $100,000 bail pending his appeal on a conviction of one to fifty years in prison in the Eunice Pringle attack case, was said not to be involved in the new development.

Pantages posted $15,000 bail Wednesday when he was arraigned on a charge involving Alice Blake, 16, whom it was said he met at a party in a San Diego hotel.

Pioneer days in Indiana are recalled by Mrs. S. J. Hidy, 98, of Alexandria, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. J. Nagle, 820 North La Salle street. She moved to Wabash county with her family ninety-six years ago.

Indians, the journey from Ohio to this state at the age of 2 in a covered wagon and days when deer, bear and wolves were plentiful in Hoosierdom are among her memories. Her husband died eighteen years ago.

'JIM HAM' SEES FOUR IN RACE

Fusion Candidate May Run For Presidency.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, March 13.—Senator James Hamilton Lewis (Dem., Ill.), who has taken over his suite in the senate office building, thinks there may be four presidential candidates in 1932.

The veteran campaigner who defeated Mark Hanna's daughter last November turned oracle on his arrival from Illinois. He predicted that in addition to the regular Democratic and Republican candidates, there might be a fusion candidate supported mainly by dissatisfied Republicans, and a Prohibition party candidate.

He expressed the view, however, that prohibition will not be the chief issue in the campaign—that the Democrats will subordinate it to economic problems, and that the Republicans will "straddle." President Hoover, he said, will be renominated, but he declined to pick the Democratic candidate.

The Welcome Sign

There was a day, in the not so very remote past, when retail stores all had a sign over the door reading . . . "WELCOME."

Time was, too, when you entered a home you found that same cheerful sign in a conspicuous spot.

The human heart is just as susceptible to sentiment today as it ever was, but the rush and tumble type of existence today has made folks careless about giving outward expression to their sentiments.

We constantly, incessantly preach to our employees to make you feel that the welcome sign is still over our door. To have you know that we desire and appreciate your patronage is quite as important to us, as the fact of having it.
