

WOMEN'S WORK BIG PROBLEM IN JOBLESS CRISIS

Million Unemployed in Nation, Estimate of U. S. Officials.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Unemployed women workers, numbering possibly 1,000,000, are being given serious consideration and attention in the present attempt of the government to provide work for every one.

Women, through their organizations and individually, are leading in the effort to provide work. The President's emergency employment committee today made public a report on attempts of women's organizations to use education as a corrective for future depressions and periods of unemployment—to educate the workers so they can turn to something else when factories close.

Flexibility Great Need
Flexibility of workers particularly is needed among working women, but in more than a score of such efforts now under way men and women are being trained in pioneer ventures in vocational education.

Working women—statistically housewives—are not classified as workers—made up 370,324 of the 2,429,662 out of work and looking for a job last April 1.

If unemployment among women increased as much as it was estimated by Commerce Secretary Lamont to have increased among all workers, the total of jobless women workers increased about two and one-half times since then.

New Jobs Are Taught
The committee's resume of vocational training reported cases where factory women, thrown out of work, had to be taught housework so they could take jobs as domestics. Women in Erie, Pa., are conducting a course in training for such workers. Public schools have adapted their facilities for unemployed in many cities.

An Oklahoma city night school for adults reported a total enrollment of 3,600 adults, equally divided between men and women, and ranging from 18 to 60 years, most of whom are said to be attending because of unemployment.

Similar reports of expanded educational enrollments came from many cities.

CITY WOMAN NOT TO SEEK FORTUNE SHARE

Mrs. Cora Clark Decides Against Wendel Will Suit.

Legal action by Mrs. Cora Clark, 8601 Clifton street, to claim a share of the $100,000,000 Wendel estate in New York is not contemplated, according to a statement made by her sister today.

Mrs. Clark believes that her great-grandfather was a brother of Miss Ella V. Von E. Wendel's father, and that a nephew, Frank Wendel of New York, is her first cousin. She believes that separation of the Wendel family, some members going east, others west, resulted in many distant relatives.

A cousin, Mrs. Emma Cook, living in Taylorville, John Wendel of Columbus, Ind.; Alexander Wendel of Jeffersonville, and George Wendel of Hope, are taking legal steps toward proving claims of relationship.

Unless claims of relatives can be maintained, the proceeds of the sale of the Wendel real estate holdings will be scattered among charitable institutions.

PUT AN EASTER HAT ON THE LITTLE LADY

There's a Prize for You, if You're Clever With Brush or Pen.

What's this? A hatless girl—with Easter so near? Well, it's up to you to give her one. And all that's required is a little ingenuity with pen, pencil, or paint brush. You don't even have to know a toque from a tricorne or a cloche from a capeline, and you can go on thinking all sailors are seamen!

Just brush up on the new millinery styles a bit—the ads in this newspaper will help you—then draw or paint a becoming hat on the head of the girl in the accompanying picture. Send the completed picture and a description of the hat in not more than fifty words to The Times Easter Hat Contest Editor.

Maybe you will win one of the prizes of three Easter hats which The Times is offering for the best entries received. Neatness and attention to style detail will count.

Another picture of a hatless girl will appear in this newspaper Friday. You may draw hats in both pictures or only one, but your entries must be in The Times office by next Tuesday at midnight.

The prizes are three hats, the three winners to pick them from the big Easter millinery stock of Morrison's, 26-28 West Washington street, where all the latest 1931 models are on display.

G. O. P. NAMES TAMMANY AS ITS BIG ISSUE

Democratic Victory Would Put Gotham Machine in Capitol, Is Claim.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The Republican national committee intends to fight the 1932 presidential campaign on the issue that a Democratic victory would mean Tammany control of the White House.

Remembering the success which attended their emphasis upon Tammany and related issues in the 1928 election, the Republican high command has decided that discussion of the current municipal travail in New York is the best antidote for anticipated Democratic utilization of the depression, unemployment, the unsatisfactory farm situation, and prohibition unrest as campaign ammunition.

By making Tammany an issue the Republican believe they can capitalize prohibition sentiment in the west and south without alienating anti-prohibitionists in the populous east.

This belief is based on the theory that Tammany is synonymous with the liquor traffic in the minds of prohibitionists while many anti-prohibitionists object to other features of the New York machine.

The Republican national committee built up the Tammany issue with a statement put out under the name of Senator Wesley I. Jones (Rep., Wash.), ostensibly in reply to the accusation of Chairman Jonett Shouse of the Democratic executive committee that the Republicans hope to divert attention from administration failures by emphasizing the New York city scandals.

Shouse went no further than to propose that the problem of purifying Tammany should be left to the people of New York.

DOCTORS END COLD
QUICK, NOVEL WAY

Many Here Find Hospital Method
Ends Colds In a Few Hours—
Is Convenient For Home Use

Urging the danger of neglecting a cold during pneumonia weather, hospital physicians are recommending home use of a pleasant hospital method. And numbers of Indianapolis people find that it gives almost instant relief—then quickly drives the cold out of one's system.

Miss Mildred Kearne, for example, had neglected a cold until congestion started spreading rapidly. Fearing pneumonia then she called her doctor, who advised double strength doses of Ayer's Pectoral, a concentrated mixture of wild cherry, turpentine and other ingredients which have relieved even the most extreme hospital cases.

With the first pleasant swallow she felt its comforting, healing warmth—from her nose passages deep down into her chest. In a few hours that "feverish, grippy" feeling began to disappear; she coughed less and could breathe easier thru her nose. And in another day or so, doctors report, she was completely rid of the cold.

Note: Other cases reported daily—all certified by attending physician.

Just a few pleasant spoonfuls of Ayer's Pectoral now and you, too, will feel like a different person tomorrow. Endorsed by all druggists.

120-DAY TERM GIVEN ACCUSED DRUNK DRIVER

Operator's License Was Revoked Nine Months
Ago for a Year.

Sentence of 120 days on the state penal farm and fines totaling $210 were levied against Frank Fox, 57, of 1134 Holiday street, today—his punishment for admittedly driving while drunk and failure to obey a court order.

Police testified that at Senate and Indiana avenues Wednesday Fox's car careened along Indiana avenue, skidded, shuddered and then halted abruptly when the wheels folded underneath it.

Fox pleaded guilty before Judge Paul C. Wetter on charges of drunkenness, operating while drunk and blind tiger, on which the judgment was given.

He also admitted Wetter had ordered his driver's license revoked for a year on similar charges nine months ago.

"Let this be a lesson to those who violate the court's order," Wetter said.
