

23,500 TO SEE NEW YORK-CHICAGO AMATEUR MITT SHOW

France to Send Team

Winners Tonight to Battle in International Meet.

By United Press
CHICAGO, April 2.—Sixteen amateur boxers from New York, and a like number of Chicago, awaited today the sound of the gong which will open the fourth annual Golden Gloves Inter-city matches at the Chicago Stadium tonight.

Final selection of the competing boxers was scheduled for late today after they are weighed in. Twelve members of each squad had to be eliminated. Each city has twenty-eight men on its squad, and from these will be chosen two in each weight class.

As the coaches watched last minute workouts, it was announced that more than 20,000 tickets already sold would be augmented by an additional 3,500, general admission seats to be placed on sale at the Stadium tonight. The anticipated attendance of more than 23,500 sets a new record for indoor boxing matches.

Originally scheduled for New York, the intercity matches were transferred here when Metropolitan A. A. U. officials refused to permit neutral officials to handle the bouts.

The New York squad arrived in Chicago last week, and immediately resumed training for the fights tonight which will not only pick the intercity champion in each of the eight groups, but will place the victors on a championship squad to meet the champions of France here on May 12.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 2.—Wearied by permitting the New York Yankees to meet the Chattanooga Lookouts here today, Miss Jackie Mitchell, 17-year-old girl hurler, is scheduled to start on the mound for the Lookouts.

Joe McCarthy, boss of the Yankees, is in Birmingham. When questioned by the United Press over the long distance telephone, McCarthy denied he remained in the Alabama city to swing a deal with the St. Louis Browns. McCarthy insisted his chief business was on the Alabama campus at Tuscaloosa.

PHINNEMARIA, Ala., April 2.—Manager Bill Rutherford of the St. Louis Browns, who asked if he planned a trade with the New York Yankees, said he had no such intentions. "We couldn't struggle along with a shorter pitching staff," he said. The St. Louis Browns and the Birmingham Barons were rained out.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., April 2.—Boston Braves broke camp today and headed north. As the club is quite a bit under the player limit, it is likely that every man now on the roster will be carried all the way to Florida. One exception may be Don Lenhardt, recruit first baseman, for whom Jersey City and other International League clubs are bidding.

BRADENTON, Fla., April 2.—Edie Delkers and not the veteran, Sparky Adams, may start the season at third base for the St. Louis Cardinals. Adams is Manager Street's present choice for the job, but Delkers, by his terrific hitting, may force Street to give him the post. The Cardinals break camp on Saturday.

SHREVEPORT, La., April 2.—Philippine, where they open the season with the world champion Athletics on Saturday.

No word has been received from the team's two holdouts, Chuck Klein and Phil Braden.

MACON, Ga., April 2.—Cincinnati Reds in a complete flop, judging by their exhibition games, will be a much stronger club when the regular season opens, Manager Dan Howley said here Wednesday. Howley is of the opinion that Eddie Roush and Cliff Heathcote, new additions to the outfit, will give the Reds a much stronger batting punch, and that the pitching staff is pretty strong.

MACON, Ga., April 2.—With Dazzy Vance safe in camp and satisfied with his contract calling for $23,000, the Brooklyn Robins were a happy lot when they worked out today. Eddie Roush, Cincinnati outfielder, will work out with the Robins until they leave for home April 2.

LOS ANGELES, April 2.—Chicago L. Cub had eleven victories and twelve defeats to their spring training record today as they opened a two-game series with the Los Angeles Angels.

The Cubs dropped their twelfth game Wednesday to the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7 to 11, the Pirates driving Bud Teachout from the mound with a seven-run onslaught in the fourth inning. Grantham, Traynor, McClellan, Hornsby and Zack Taylor hit home runs.

NEW ORLEANS, April 2.—Wes Ferrell, manager of the Cleveland Indians hurling staff, went nine innings Wednesday and

Plan Dirt Track Events

W. R. Caine Speed Green W. J. Helmerich

With three well-known dirt tracks leased for the season, the newly-organized Indiana Dirt Track Racing Association is looking forward to a banner season. The three men shown above will have charge of the association and have signed some of the best known drivers of the middle west to appear this season.

W. J. Helmerich has been named president of the association, and E. L. (Speed) Green, former dirt track driver who managed Walnut Gardens speedway last year, will be business manager and promoter. W. R. Caine recently was named secretary-treasurer.

The association will stage about twenty events this season, opening April 6 at Single G oval, Richmond. The first event at Walnut Gardens will be held May 3.

Brilliant Golf Program Is Arranged for Country Club

BY DICK MILLER

Not to be outdone by any golf organizations, Indianapolis Country Club, one of the oldest organizations of its kind in the state, announces a very complete and interesting 1931 season program for both men and women. Chairmen of the sports and pastimes committees, Joseph Stickney and Mrs. E. S. Gorrell, were in charge of the arrangements.

Play for the Welborn cup, a tradition at Indianapolis Country Club will open the men's season on Thursday, April 18. Due to the many special features planned, Mrs. Gorrell has not scheduled any other definite tournaments for the women than the seasonal and announcement events as the season progresses.

Country Club women will entertain the city championship at their links June 22, 23 and 24 with play a spring handicap tournament beginning May 18, an invitational event on Thursday, June 11, and the club championship on Aug. 24. The second and third day in each month will be guest day for women.

The annual beefsteak dinner, starting bomb for the golf season, will be held April 25. On May 2, the spring handicap play will open. Stickney and his committee aids will stage the fifth annual I. C. C. derby on Saturday and Sunday, May 23 and 24.

Play for the Geddes cup will be staged June 6; Harry C. Gilbert trophy, June 27; the Jilson cup, July 4; the Chalmers Brown trophy July 11; the Edmund Clark trophy, Aug. 22, and the McGowan cup on Oct. 13.

Six and eighteen-man teams matches with Highland will be played July 18 at Highland and Aug. 15 at the I. C. C. course.

Club championship play will begin Aug. 29 with the grand closing and awarding of prizes at the opussum dinner Oct. 24.

Jimmy Lawson has been signed for his second season as professional at the club, Stickney said, and Edward C. Welch, after many years' successful service, again will serve as club manager.
