

W. C. T. U. to Hear York, Dry Leader

L. E. York, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, will speak on "Prohibition and Politics" during the morning session of the Marion County institute of the W. C. T. U. Monday in the afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. Addresses in the afternoon will be given by the Rev. Warren W. Wiant, pastor of the North Methodist church, on "The Outlaw Who Would Come Back," and the Rev. Frank Lee Roberts on "Prohibition Illness."

The institute will convene at 9:30 with a song service, led by Mrs. Fred Kepner, and morning devotionals in charge of Mrs. W. P. Knobe. Miss Florence Lanham, membership secretary of the Y. W. C. A., will give greetings, followed by the organization of the institute and the appointment of committees.

Board Head to Speak
Mrs. Bessie Hart, secretary of the Loyal Temperance Legion, will present the work of the organization, and the work of the young people's branch will be discussed by Mrs. Dorothy Ragdale Kortepeter. Mrs. Frank J. Lahr, president of the county board of directors, will speak, and an appeal for the Union Signal, the union's periodical, will be presented by Mrs. E. A. Williams.

The morning program also will include a duet number by Mesdames Carrie Swails and Nellie Mills; a reading by Mrs. M. D. Wiley, and a Scripture reading contest, with the following contestants: Mesdames Williams, Harry M. Sloan, A. C. Hawn, J. T. Roberts and A. Bash Arford. Mrs. T. A. Berry will lead the noon prayer service.

Preceding the opening of the afternoon session, at 1:15, the county executive committee will meet. A Symposium on Prohibition, presented by Mesdames Margaret Gardner, Ella Kroft and Charles Mueller, will open the session. A second song service will follow.

Glee Club to Sing
Mrs. Jessie M. Bader, assistant pastor of the Central Christian church, will lead the devotional. Several numbers will be presented by the Glee Club of the Quinn Bible class, East Tenth street Methodist church, and Mrs. Bertha Voyles will give a reading. The Esther quartet, composed of Mrs. Barbara Christensen, Mrs. Mary Hightshue, Mrs. Corn Shaw and Mrs. Gertrude Shaw, will sing.

County directors will be presented to the institute, and time will also be reserved for the presentation of guests. The following committees have been appointed for the institute:

Hostesses. Mesdames Henrietta Helshman, chairman, M. G. Morris, Velma Birge, H. W. Claffy, W. W. Reedy, E. E. Reedy, Ella V. Gardner, Barbara Christensen, Milton Murphy, Orpha Shetts, Mary E. Hensley, Lewis E. York, Adelle Lancaster, Lillian Heizer, Lillian Smith, Elizabeth Arncliffe, Eva Davidson, Elizabeth J. Jackson, Minnie, Mrs. Arthur Hiser, Catherine Davidson, Sylvia Ryker, H. T. Gullett, C. W. Ackman, C. E. Mitchell and Miss Irene Trueblood; literary committee, Mesdames G. E. Murphy, chairman; Mesdames Phoebe Link, chairman, Mary Hensley, C. E. Mitchell, Charles Nagel and Miss Trueblood; official papers committee, Mesdames A. E. Williams, chairman; Mary Warner, G. B. Ross, Flora Davidson and Miss Leona Helshman; program, Mesdames Horro Huls, Fred Kepner, Silas Toyer, H. T. Gullett; resolutions, Mesdames W. Ackman, Herbert Thurston and J. T. Roberts.

The committee in charge of registration is Mrs. Huls, Mrs. H. E. Moore, Mrs. Alta Hansell, Mrs. Ruby Yount and Miss Helshman.

Girl Scouts

New candidates are: Betty Jane Dobbin, Troop 45; Minnie Lindsey, Troop 12; Lois Smith, Troop 18; Margaret Grant, Helen Goss, Ethel Bricker, Mildred Land, Bernice Coe, Troop 29; Eloise Osborne, Dorothy Johnson, Troop 11; Jean Oglesby, Troop 1, Helen Reuleaux, Troop 43; Lorna Marie Kerny, Troop 28.

Girls invested as scouts this week include: Mary Kinman, Troop 35; Joan Henry, Marc Janet Mummert, Troop 30; Suzanne Greig, Janet Graham, Una Walker, Harriet Gorman, Troop 49; Madeline Smith, Troop 42; Charlotte Crane, Mildred Stelan, Troop 2.

Mrs. D. G. Lucas, a trained nurse, and mother of one of the scouts in Troop 2, gave a talk on health and first aid to the troop.

Opal Shell has offered Troop 3 the use of a furnished cottage on White river for outings this summer. The troop is planning to go to the cottage during the spring vacation.

Troop 24 is making Easter baskets of different colored crepe paper to make money for their troop.

A new patrol called the Scarlet Quill has been formed in Troop 50 with Carol Langstaff patrol leader and Anita Cohen, corporal.

Leaders Association will hold its regular meeting April 7 at Sixteenth and Delaware street. Fire prevention will be presented by the Indianapolis fire department officials.

Troop 5 will hold its March Court of Awards and Mother, Father and Daughter banquet, April 9, at 630 at Our Lady of Lourdes church.

For the March Court of Awards the different patrols of Troop 43 gave stunts.

Troop 3 held Court of Awards on their second anniversary, March 25. Mrs. Huettner, who was instrumental in starting the troop, presented the badges. The girls presented patrol and troop songs and formations and dramatized the laws. A pep session was conducted by Sarah Tyler, leader of patrol three.

Troop 1 had a "Hobby Fair" and

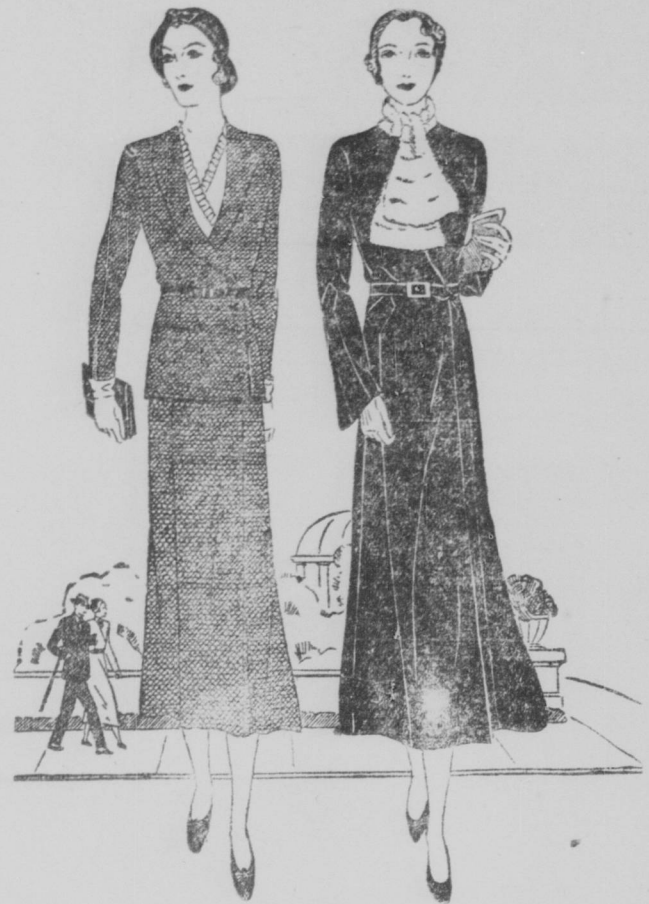

4% Paid on Savings
Serurity Trust Co.
111 North Pennsylvania Street

 Safety for Savings
FLETCHER AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK
Southeast Cor. of Market and Pennsylvania
4% ON SAVINGS

What's in Fashion?

Fashions You'll See on Easter

Directed By AMOS PARRISH

Easter Fashions You're Sure to See—Left, side-closing suit worn with milan-brimmed tricor-crowned hat; right, dark coat with white fur scarf, Halo turban.

CLUB WILL HOLD FOUNDERS' DAY

Founders' day will be observed by the Pi Sigma Tau sorority with a dinner Tuesday night at the Antlers. A business meeting to make arrangements for the dinner will be held Monday night at the home of Miss Phyllis Thorpe, 71 Whittier place.

Newly elected officers of the organization are Mesdames Margaret Arnold, president, re-elected; Mary Quigley, vice-president; Ethel Breyfacher, secretary, and Rachel Kepner, treasurer.

P. E. O. Order to Meet

P. E. O. monthly luncheon will be held at 1 Monday at Ayres' restaurant. A council meeting and election of officers will follow.

Both outgoing and incoming boards are asked to be present. G chapter will act as hostess.

Aid Society to Lunch

Section D, Ladies' Aid society of the Second Reform church, Pleasant avenue and Shelby street, will give a luncheon from 11 to 1 Wednesday at the church. Mrs. H. F. Hawickhorst is in charge.

Troop 42 will hold their Court of Awards

Troop 42 will hold their Court of Awards at 7 April 10 at the Hawthorne social service house.

Troop 32 is having a Mother, Father and Daughter banquet with their Court of Awards at 6:30 April 6 at Third Christian church, Broadway and Seventeenth street. Mrs. Clayton Ridge, member of the speakers bureau, will be the speaker of the evening.

Miss Elizabeth Downhour of the Teachers college will talk on Bird Finder Merit Badge at 10 April 6 at the Girl Scout office. Miss Stella Moellering of the Indianapolis Power and Light Company will present "Cook and Housekeeping," April 13.

Troop 49 entertained their mothers at their Court of Awards, Friday, with the following program: Formation, orchestra selections, reading by Mary Lou Over, tap dancing by Marguerite Funkhauser. Badges were presented afterward by the lieutenants.

Section 11 of the high school group had its meeting last Thursday night at the library of the Board of Trade building. The meeting started with a supper at 6:30 p. m. Plans are being made for work on one merit badge. The next meeting will be announced later.

About 500 Girl Scouts were at Elwood Friday to take part in the tree planting activity. The Girl Scout office staff was assisted by the captains in aiding the girls to pass various outdoor tests such as fire building, map making, tent pitching, and nature work. Each girl was given the opportunity to plant five seed-walnuts on the part of the camp laid out for the Girl Scout arboretum. The afternoon was spent in playing games, singing songs, and the finale was a treasure hunt.

Section 1 of the high school group will be made up of the following troops: 3, 6, 8, 20, 22, 23, 30, 31, 33, 35, 40, 43, 45, 46, 47, 48, 50. All high school girls in these troops will hold their first meeting with Miss Adamson at 1 Friday. The captains will be notified later where the group will meet.

Through GERMANY by Motor

28 Days Under the Lloyd Flag by Sea and Land

The excursion, designed for persons of moderate means, sails from New York on June 2nd on the liner S. S. Columbus, arriving in the old port city of Bremen

Under Personal Escort

Rhine Valley $312.50 Up

Bremen Cologne

Bohn Mainz

Trier Frankfort Leipzig Berlin

The itinerary for the motor trip, which will be made in new, comfortable de luxe motor cars, includes beautiful old Cologne, Potsdam, Coblenz, Trier, Berlin, the most fascinating of European capitals.

Complete Details May Be Obtained From

RICHARD A. KURTZ, Manager Travel Bureau

The Leading Travel Bureau of Indianapolis

The UNION TRUST Co

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

Circus Fete to Be Held at Y. W. C. A.

A three-ring circus, including side shows, and a parade, will be presented at the Central Y. W. C. A. Friday night by various departments of the association for the benefit of the summer conference fund.

The committee has announced that everything included in a real circus, from the pink lemonade to bare back riders, will be on the program. There will be side shows, a parade tent, callopie, with tumblers ad gymnasts on the first floor; with members of the business girls' department in charge.

On the second floor will be the "Morning Glory Night Club," conducted by the Woolworth Club; an art gallery by the mercantile group; an old-fashioned picture album by the domestic club and the Wokanka Club; and clowns and entertainers by the Beech and Arthur Club. Admission tickets, on sale by members of the committee, will admit the holder to four of the side shows, as well as the main performance. The committee in charge, composed of representatives from all departments of the association, is: Mesdames Roberta Dickerson, Louise Scooter and Betty Belk. Girl Reserves: Mesdames Myrtle Morgan, Babe Brumback and Roberta Roberts, industrial department, and Mesdames Marian Davis and Lola Uddle, young business and professional women. Miss Marian T. Smith, assistant Girl Reserve secretary, is chairman of the publicity committee, assisted by Miss Uddle, Miss Morgan and Miss Scooter.

RECENT BRIDE

Mrs. Aaron Glick

Before her marriage last Sunday, Mrs. Aaron Glick was Miss Anne L. Fritz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Fritz, 317 North Riley street. Mr. and Mrs. Glick are at home at 4233 Broadway.

Bridge Party Held

The Musicales Pons Club held its weekly bridge party Thursday night at the Seville Tavern. Those present were Mesdames Russell Brant, Lee Rogers, Mesdames Gertrude Lewis, Louella Schiller, Ruth Moller, Helen Schnorr, Laura Agan, and Mary Esther Williamson. Miss Moller will be hostess for the meeting next week at her home, 5145 Park avenue.

Junior League to Elect

Indianapolis Junior League will hold election of officers and its annual business meeting at 2:30 Monday at the Propylaeum. Mrs. Dudley A. Pfaff heads the nominating committee, which includes Mrs. John P. Collett, Mrs. William Cooper Kern, Mrs. Kurt Pantzer and Miss Rosamond Van Camp.

Dance to Be Given

Job's Daughters, Bethel 4, will give an "April Showers" dance at 9 Saturday night, April 11, at the Woodlawn club house. The committee in charge is composed of Mesdames Louise Hollingsworth, chairman; Irene Bentley and Louise Steinberger. "The Orchestra Without a Name" will provide music.

Chapter Will Meet

Catherine Merrill tent tent No. 9, Daughters of Union Veterans of Civil War, will hold a business meeting at 7:30 Monday night at 512 North Illinois street, followed by a program in observance of Grand Army Day. Mrs. John Essex will be chairman.

Sorority Meeting Slated

Alpha chapter, Gamma Delta Alpha sorority, will meet at 8 Monday at the Antlers.

Pep Club to Entertain

Members of the Pep Club will hold a theater party at 7:30 Wednesday night at the Palace theater.

PLAN ALTRUSA CLUB CARD PARTY

The three Altrusans of the local chapter of the organization pictured above are assisting in arrangements for the card party at the Marriott, April 2. Proceeds will go to the scholarship fund of the club. Left to right—Miss Anna Glaska, Mrs. Augusta B. Hollister and Mrs. Blanche Mitchell.

In the Realm of Clubs

MONDAY

"Grandeur and Misery of Victory" will be the subject of the meeting of the Monday Conversation Club, with Mrs. John S. Wright, 3730 North Pennsylvania street as the hostess. Topics will be given by Mrs. Ellen G. Furbee and Mrs. E. H. K. McComb.

Oliver Perry Morton chapter, Daughters of the Union, will meet at the Antlers.

Mrs. Howard Meeker, 340 East Fifty-third street, will be hostess for the meeting of the Review Club, with Mrs. Robert Elliott in charge of the program. Mrs. Roy Bain and Mrs. Robert Patterson will review, respectively, Rogers' "The Fine Art of Reading," and Anthony's "Elizabeth."

"Let Us Be Gay," by Crothers, will be reviewed by Mrs. Roy Gorton, at the meeting of the Seaside Club, to be at the home of Mrs. Lester M. Poarch, 4241 Gullford avenue.

Vincent C. L. S. C. Club will meet at the Fletcher American National bank, with the program by Mrs. Charles Paisback and Mrs. J. I. Hoffman.

Mrs. Charles Showalter, 323 Lesley avenue, will entertain members of the New Era Club, assisted by Mrs. Roy Horne. Officers will be elected, and Mrs. Mae Brooks Miller will give a talk on "Historical Points of Indianapolis."

Ladies' night will be observed by the Indianapolis Literary Club at the meeting in the clubrooms at the D. A. R. chapter house. E. H. Kemper, McComb will speak on "Side Lights on a Job."

Irvington Woman's Club will meet with Mrs. Bertram Day, 46 Audubon place, instead of with Mrs. W. H. Insley. Mrs. T. G. Weesenberg will read a group of original poems.

TUESDAY

Election of officers will be held by the Fortnightly Literary Club at the Propylaeum. Mrs. John R. Curry will give the program, and tea will be served.

Meridian Heights Inter Se Club will hold an open meeting at the home of Mrs. A. M. McVie, 4167 Broadway. Mrs. Gino A. Ratti will speak on "A Home in Italy."

Heyl Study Club will meet in the club rooms at the Rauh Memorial library. Two papers will be given by Mrs. Franklin McCray and Mrs. C. H. Hardy.

Independent Social Club will meet with the Indianapolis Council of Women.

Mrs. Mark Reasoner, 920 North Campbell avenue, will entertain members of the Irvington Home Study Club. Mrs. George C. Bosley will talk on "Religious Books of Former Days, and Radio Sermons."

Mrs. Austin Clifford will be hostess to the meeting of the Alpha Et a Latrean Club. Mrs. C. Severin Buschmann will speak on "Humility Uprooted."

Irvington Chautauque Club will meet with Mrs. William Baum, Williams creek, with the program by Mrs. Charles Darsie.

Mrs. Martin McDermott, 4233 Washington boulevard, will be hostess to the Proctor Club. Mrs. J. J. Price will speak on "St. Meinrad's Abbey."

WEDNESDAY

Colleges and universities of the United States will be the subject for the meeting of the Amica club, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Richards, 827 Dewey avenue. The program is in charge of Mesdames R. E. Spiegel and J. A.

Salter, assisted by Mrs. Bert Everhart.

Mrs. H. D. Merrifield will entertain members of the Zetatech Club at her home on the Churchman road. Women in politics will be the topic for the afternoon, with sketches of the careers of Ruth Bryan Owen and Ruth Hanna McCormick by Mrs. S. O. Sharp and Mrs. C. F. Hurst, respectively.

A program on art will be given at the meeting of the New Century Club, to be held in the club rooms at the Rauh Memorial library.

Brookston Literary Club will meet with Mrs. Nola Marlowe, with a paper by Mrs. W. E. Neel.

Wednesday Afternoon Club will meet with Mrs. Paul Ameter, 1617 Sharon avenue. Reports will be made and Mrs. Roy Davidson will give a musical program. Mrs. Robert Guedel will read a paper on "The Poetry and Art of Russia."

Mrs. Edward Almond, 3360 Grace-land avenue, will be hostess for a meeting of the Council of Past Presidents, George H. Chatman, W. R. C.

THURSDAY

Mrs. J. F. Matthews, 1822 Park avenue, will be hostess to the Ladies' Federal Club, assisted by Mrs. G. C. Lester and Mrs. F. A. Lorenz.

Mrs. Mary Billings, 3968 Winthrop avenue, will be hostess to the Indianapolis Current Events Club, assisted by Mrs. J. D. Setzer. Mrs. Walter H. Biddlecombe and Mrs. George Linting will give the program.

North Side Study Club will meet with Mrs. F. C. Robinson, 3102 Park avenue. Mrs. H. E. Lister will read a paper, "Houses of Roman in Canada," and Mrs. J. B. Hoffman will give current topics.

Thursday Afternoon Club will hold a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Harry Rhinehart, with Mrs. Howard Galey as assistant hostess. Over the Teacups Club will observe guest day at the Propylaeum. Mrs. W. D. Gatch is in charge of the program.

FRIDAY

Mrs. Robert Drum, 5740 Oak avenue, will be hostess to the meeting of the Irvington Social Study Club. The topic will be "France," papers on Pierre Curie and Marie Curie will be given by Mesdames D. H. Giffin and W. L. Carey. A one-act play, directed by Mrs. H. G. Hay will complete the program.

Mrs. John T. Jinegar will speak on "International Relations" and Mrs. L. M. Means on "Latin America and the United States" at the meeting of the Irvington Catholic Women's Study Club at the home of Mrs. Edward E. Dallman, 54 North Sheridan avenue.

Irvington Quest Club will meet with Mrs. Fred Haynes, 43 North Arlington avenue. Mrs. Richard Miller and Mrs. Pearl Kohnle will give the program.

Women's Advance Club will meet with Mrs. R. L. Fythian, 3521 Winthrop avenue. Papers on women in science will be given by Mrs. M. C. Lewis and Mrs. E. K. Zaring.

Orator to Make Talk to Women

Indianapolis Business and Professional Women's Club will hear William Rainey Bennett, Chicago, at the dinner meeting Thursday at the Woman's Department Club. His subject will be "The Man Who Can."

Bennett is an eminent dramatic orator, who is able, it is said, to take abuse psychological truths and present them in such a way as to make them vital, practical aids to success. There are three great tools for developing hidden powers, according to Bennett. They are: Imagination, will, and conscience. This theme will be developed in his lecture.

Mrs. Adah O. Frost will preside. A musical program will be given by Mrs. Mary Traub Busch, who will sing "The Builder," by Cadman, and "Children of Men," by Russell.

During the dinner hour, Miss Laura E. Hanna, chairman of the educational committee, will sit at the president's table with her committee, Mrs. Gertrude M. Long, Mrs. Elsa Huebner Olsen, Miss Louise McCarthy, Alice Siloway and Grace A. Speer. Miss Hanna will explain the work of the committee and the distribution of scholarship loans.

This lecture marks the beginning of the last club group which has been arranged by Miss Alice Anderson, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ruth Hilkene and Miss Louise Ford.

Jatho, pianist; Miss Helen Riggins, reader; Laura Poland and Dorothy Jatho, piano duet; Dr. De Langlade, talk; John Fowler, pianist; Mrs. Claude Stevenson of the Stevenson School of Expression, reading; Mesdames Dorothy Gies and Thelma Jatho, piano trio; Mrs. Laoni Gill, songs and, Mrs. Laura Poland, pianist.

Washington chapter will meet Wednesday evening with Miss Lillian Holderman, 3015 North Pennsylvania street. Miss Verne Lowman and Miss Blanche Senton are assistant hostesses.

Mrs. John Starost is chairman for a bridge-tee, to be given by the Brittany chapter at 1:30 Thursday in the auditorium of the Banner-Whitehall furniture company. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Starost.

Toyama chapter elected the following officers for the ensuing club year: Miss Viola Turner, president; Miss Edna Matthews, first vice-president; Miss Genevieve Stanz, second vice-president; Miss Helen Starost, recording secretary; Miss Audrey Lee, corresponding secretary, and Miss Lillian Starost, treasurer.

Chee Fee chapter elected the following new officers: Miss Edna Matthews, president; Miss Bobby Wertz, vice-president; Miss Edna Donovan Morris, recording secretary; Miss Mary Stove, corresponding secretary; Miss Anne Bowen, treasurer. The meeting was held last week with Miss Bobby Wertz, who entertained with a chop suey dinner. Peasants were worn by the members who were seated at tables decorated with Chinese characters and lighted by candles. Spring flowers were used for decorations. Mrs. Arman's lecture was followed by bridge.

Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company

Richard H. Habbe
Malcolm M. Moore
Donald R. McIntosh
Charles L. Nicholson
P. R. McNally
Thaddeus R. Baker
Fannie C. Graeter
I. G. Kalm
Whitney W. Stoddard
M. M. Andrews
Roy Shields

Lee B. Smith
H. Edgar Zimmer
Robert V. Gilliland
George C. Schwier
Charles A. Scott
L. V. Schneider
Dr. Martha Smith
Frank J. Cleland
Bert G. McCammon
William Chestnut
Ward H. Hackleman

Hackleman & Shields Agency

Representing
Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341

120 East Market St. RI ley 5341