

OFFICERS TO BE NAMED BY CITY MOOSE ORDER

Election to Be Held Tuesday at Temple; Interest Running High.

Election of officers by Indianapolis lodge 17, Loyal Order of Moose, in the Moose temple, 135 North Delaware street, will take place Tuesday night.

Much interest is being shown by members in the election of trustees, five candidates having signified their intention running for the office.

The election committee is composed of Charles O. Rahe, inspector; E. N. Hardin, judge; Harry Neasman, judge; Harvey Ogden and Henry Kessler, clerks.

Women of Mooseheart Legion have expressed their intention of helping with the celebration of "Better Homes" week of April 26 to May 2.

This is a nation-wide event and prizes are offered by Better Homes, an organization in Washington, for the most fitting and appropriate programs. The text suggested as a basis for participation is: "For every child a dwelling place safe, sanitary and wholesome, with reasonable provisions for privacy, free from conditions which tend to thwart his development. A home environment harmonious and enriching."

The Junior Order of Moose will hold an initiation April 29.

Legionnaires of the state of Indiana have scheduled several frolics for the month of April. The frolics in the near future are Marion, Saturday, April 4; Kokomo, April 11; Ft. Wayne, April 18, and Indianapolis, May 2.

WHICH IS THE 5c CIGAR?

HERE are three cigars. Two of them sell regularly at ten cents or more. The other is a CRANE'S IMPORTED—and sells for only a nickel. We're willing to bet that (bands removed) you can't tell which is the 5c cigar. That's because Crane's Imported is made of SELECTED tropical tobaccos, in the tropics where costs are low. That's why—although to the pocket-book Crane's Imported is a nickel cigar—to the palate it tastes like a ten cent cigar—or better.

CRANE'S IMPORTED
