

PUSH CAMPAIGN TO NOMINATE HOOVER IN '32

Four Prominent Republicans
Announce Themselves
Behind President.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, April 8.—The movement for renomination of President Herbert Hoover is beginning to take form.

Four prominent Republicans, two of whom are not connected directly with the administration, have announced themselves in favor of in-trusting the party banner to the President again.

They are Senator George H. Moses of New Hampshire; W. Kingsland Macy, New York state Republican chairman; James Francis Burke of Pittsburgh, and Postmaster-General Walter Brown.

They not only have pledged themselves to Mr. Hoover, but some of them also have urged the rank and file of the party to join.

Airing of their views is being considered here in connection with Brown's return from a personal trip through the south during which he is understood to have looked over the delegate situation with the next Republican national convention in mind.

His reports were encouraging to the Hoover high command.

Some of the Hoover leaders have been eying with misgivings the marked activity of Colonel Horace Mann, former Hoover ally in the 1928 campaign.

Mann's agents claim to have the help of Claudius Huston, former national chairman, in their effort to align southern delegates against Mr. Hoover next year.

They have spread reports that they expect more than 200 delegates to be unpledged or for nomination of former President Coolidge.

5,000 TREES TO BE SET

Arbor Day Program to Be Held at Muncie Friday.

MUNCIE, Ind., April 8.—Muncie citizens will plant 5,000 trees Friday in observance of Arbor day.

But, according to Mayor George R. Dale, each person who sets out a tree without a city permit, under an existing ordinance, will be liable to a fine.

The mayor, however, promised immunity to all those who break this law as he says that he will do the same providing he can find a shovel or a spade.

Muncie is observing the day a week earlier than proclaimed by Governor Leslie. Dean Stanley Coulter of Purdue will be the speaker on a program at Burris training school.

Town Bans Dances

CAYUGA, Ind., April 8.—The town board of Cayuga has passed an ordinance forbidding public dances, with the statement that dance halls have been the scenes of fights and drinking. Board members declare that if the ordinance banning the dances is held invalid, a tax so high as to be prohibitory will be placed on halls.

BUTLERITES TO HEAR LECTURES

Announce Program for World Education Parley.

Complete program of the third annual world education conference, which will be held at Butler university Friday, has been announced by Wales Smith, student chairman in charge of the session. The conference, sponsored by the Butler Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., will present four speakers who will lecture before the student body at the regular class hours during the morning.

Speakers and their subjects: Dr. Raymond Schutz, "Prohibition," "Why Depression and How to Avoid It"; "Unemployment"; Mrs. W. F. Rothenberger, "The White and Black of It"; Professor I. S. Prokhanoff, "Atheism and the Russian Church," "Questions on Russia"; Dr. D. M. Edwards, "Eighty-Two Cents Out of Every Dollar."

According to an announcement by President Robert J. Aley all students in the university will be excused to attend the meetings of the conference. However, no classes will be dismissed. Several professors plan to have their classes attend the conference in a group instead of the regular class work of the morning.

Members of the student committee in charge of the event besides Smith are Elma Ross Sailors and Betty Bower, Miss Allen Grafton, instructor in the college of religion, is faculty sponsor.

license department, it was announced today by Frank May Jr., secretary of state.

Other May appointments include three file clerks in the license department. They are John M. Masselink, Terre Haute; Walter O'Brien, Peru, and Max Crawford, Frankfort.

Masselink was a member of the
