

BACKLEY, G. O. P. WORKER, TO BE BURIED FRIDAY

Veteran Committeeman Dies After Long Career in Politics.

Funeral services for a veteran Republican worker in Marion county, Leonard J. Backley, 66, who died Wednesday after a long illness, will be held at the home of a stepson, Arthur R. Jackson, 1606 Fletcher avenue, at 2 p. m. Friday. Burial will be in Washington Park cemetery.

Mr. Backley was chairman of the Eleventh ward organization for six years, and precinct committeeman for twelve years.

For more than twenty-one years he was connected with G. Ittenbach & Co., following his trade of stone-worker and for the past ten years had been associated with the Standard Oil Company (Ind.). Although born in Chicago, Mr. Backley made his home in Indianapolis for forty years.

He was a member of St. Mark's church, Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Eastern Star.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Ida E. Backley; two sons, John and Leonard J. Backley Jr., both of Chicago; a brother, John Backley, of Chicago; two stepsons, Arthur R. and Thomas Jackson, and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Iva E. Brookings, of Indianapolis.

Two City Apartments Looted

Irving Flax, 47, at 1100 North Pennsylvania street, reported theft of clothing worth $85 from his apartment. Miss Grace Meng, 3726 North Meridian street, said thieves took four dresses, valued at $86, from her apartment.

Hurls Brick; Gets Jewelry

A man threw a brick through the window of Sam Rubens' used goods store at 1022 South Meridian street, early today, and took jewelry valued at $55.

LODGE VETERAN DIES

Henry Ferguson I. O. O. F. Member for Years.

Henry C. Ferguson, oldest member of Philoxenian lodge 44, I. O. O. F., Civil war veteran and resident of Indianapolis fifty years, died on Tuesday at the State Soldiers' home in Lafayette.

Mr. Ferguson was an employee of the Indianapolis Union Railway for near forty years. He was a member of George H. Thomas post, G. A. R., and old North Park Christian church.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Friday at the Tyner undertaking establishment, 328 West Thirtieth street. The Rev. E. L. Day, former pastor of North Park church, will officiate. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Lou M. Ferguson; a son, Chester R. Ferguson, of Frankfort, and six grandchildren.

ORDER EXHUMING IN MURDER CASE

Body of Mrs. Mary Phillips to Be Examined.

Body of Mrs. Mary J. Phillips, 64, who was found clubbed to death in her home, 1337 South Meridian street, Jan. 16, will be exhumed Friday on an order from Judge Frank P. Baker of criminal court.

Vital organs will be examined by Dr. R. N. Harger, of the Indiana university medical school, to determine whether Mrs. Phillips was poisoned. Information to this effect has been received by Prosecutor Herbert E. Wilson.

Her husband, Alva J. Phillips, 58, awaits trial in criminal court on a charge of first degree murder in connection with the death.

Phillips is at liberty under a $10,000 bond. The exhumation order is the first issued in this county in several years, it is said.
