

FOUR SCHOOLS IN FINALS OF RADIO CONTEST

Shortridge Actors Will Be on WFBM on Saturday at 3 o'clock.

Shortridge, Wiley of Terre Haute, Elkhart and Anderson high schools actors proved their supremacy over rivals in the four-district contest of the first radio drama contest held last week. Saturday they will meet in the finals to be broadcast over Station WFBM.

Each cast of actors will present a one-act play, adapted for broadcast purposes, the winner being chosen by three judges at each contest. In the final contest, according to J. A. McGee of Purdue university, chairman of committee sponsoring the contest, the choice of radio listeners also will be given consideration.

In programs over WFBM Saturday, Wiley will broadcast at 2, Shortridge at 3, Elkhart at 8 and Anderson at 8:30 p. m.

Members of the Shortridge High School Drama League will present "The Foretold," under direction of Flora Love of the Shortridge faculty. Cast of the one-act play is composed of Richard Hoover, Anne De-Croes, Donald Arnold, Esther Steup and Harry Thomas.

The contest and a similar one for college actors is being sponsored by Indiana Association of Teachers of Speech. According to McGee, an effort will be made next year to conduct a nation-wide broadcast of contest plays.

Thought Asthma Would Smother Her

Sleeps All Night Now. Bronchial Cough Gone.

Her prompt relief from asthma and severe bronchial coughs is described in a letter by Mrs. E. J. Bain, 1902 W. Vermont St., Indianapolis, Ind. She says:

"I had bronchial asthma and was so weak it just seemed I would drop at every step. I couldn't sleep at night. When I would lie down it seemed I would smother to death. Since taking Nacer, every symptom of asthma has left me, and I did not have a bad cold or cough all winter."

Hundreds of people who suffered for years from asthma and bronchial coughs, state that their trouble left and has not returned. Nacer, a potent and a booklet of vital information will be sent free by Nacer Medicine Co., 400 State Life Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind. ASK SAFETY ESSAYS

National Campaign Winners to Receive Prizes.

Particulars of the tenth national campaign for street and highway safety sponsored by the highway education board in Washington, D. C., have been sent to all principals of grade schools.

One of the medal winners last year was Ted Etherington of Center township school 2.

Whether or not Indiana will share honors this year will depend on the quality of essays submitted by May 15 to principals of the schools.

First prize will be a trip to Washington with all expenses paid. At Washington, the winner will be presented with a gold watch. Second and third prizes will consist of gold watches awarded at the home school. Awards will also be given for the best papers in Indiana.

Two Plays to Be Given at City School

Two one-act plays, sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association will be given in Washington high school auditorium at 8 Friday night under direction of Miss Elizabeth J. Lane, instructor in English, and Mrs. Helen Schaff, school nurse. Proceeds will be used in welfare work in Washington high school. The following are in the cast of "Mis' Mercy": Jim Peters, Robert Lemen, Henry Kreutzinger, Janet Baumhopper and Josephine Haebing. In "The Ghost Story" are: John Wilson, Mary Ann Dale, Georgia Weathersford, Helen Muterspaugh, Josephine Kennedy, Oneta Franklin, Thomas Castleman, Earl Hoff, George Van Blaricum and Doris Meyer.

AIR PROGRAM IS SET

WFBM Broadcast to Feature Oriental, Spanish Airs.

Oriental and Spanish music will make up Thursday's program of the Air to be broadcast at 1:30 p. m. over WFBM and the Columbia broadcasting system.

Opening number will be Beethoven's "Turkish March" taken from incidental music to "The Ruin of Athens." This will be followed by the "Indian Ballet" from the opera "Lakme" by Delibes, a French composer who has displayed great ingenuity in depicting the oriental atmosphere in music.

Other compositions by European writers to be heard will be "Percin March" by Strauss, the waltz king; "Hymn to the Sun" by the Russian composer, Rimsky-Korsakoff; "Las Golondrinas," by Seradell, and two selections from the opera, "Carmen," by Bizet.

PLAN SPRING TERM

Butler Will Offer Special Course to Teachers.

Butler Teachers' university offers a six weeks' spring term to begin May 4 to Indiana Teachers who need additional credits for renewal and conversion of elementary licenses. Arrangements have been made by the college of education.

A staff of twelve was recently selected and, as announced by Dean Richardson, will assume positions at the beginning of the new term.

Instructors chosen are: Elizabeth Estreich, Ruth Benedict, Elizabeth Downhour, Anne Fern, Elizabeth Hall, Faye Henley, Hazel Herman, Maria W. Hyde, Fay Marshall, Dr. James Peelluz, Dean Richardson and Dr. Irwin T. Schultz.

Boy Hero Honored

HUNTINGTON, Ind., April 22.—The Ralston Purina Hero commission of St. Louis, Mo., has awarded Wilbur Thompson, local high school pupil, a gold medal for saving the life of a companion several months ago. Thompson pulled Reber Schmitt from Little river, near here, last winter.

All these story-books are on the shelves of the children's room at the public library and free for any child to borrow and read.

249 SCHOOLS IN STATE CONTEST

Commercial Event Will Be Held at Muncie.

By Times Special

MUNCIE, Ind., April 22.—Tenth annual state high school commercial contest will be held at Ball State Teachers' college, Friday.

More than 10,000 pupils were reached by drill material sent out prior to district contests held last Saturday.

"The fact that ten more schools entered the contest this year than last year is encouraging to teachers all over the state who are working to improve results in the classroom," declared Professor M. E. Studebaker, head of the commerce department and originator of the contest. Two hundred and forty-nine high schools entered this year.

Contest has been divided into three divisions—bookkeeping, shorthand and typewriting. Pupils are not limited to the number of divisions that they may enter, but they must compete in their own classes.

Children's Museum

"Early Life in Indiana" will be the subject of Arthur B. Carr's class discussion at 9:30 a. m. Saturday in the Children's Museum auditorium.

At 10:30 a. m. Mrs. Howard S. Mettel will speak on Yucatan. She will illustrate her talk with stereopticon slides. Mrs. Mettel went with an archeological party which spent several weeks making excavations in Yucatan.

Keen interest is being shown by many of the schools competing for places on the junior board of directors of the museum. The campaign closes May 6.

Kiwanis Club members have paid for a junior membership for every child in the Indianapolis Orphans' home. Last year all pupils at the orphanage visited the museum through courtesy of the Kiwanis.

Through permission of the Indianapolis Real Estate Board, prize-winning house models made for the Home Show contest will be displayed at the museum for a month.

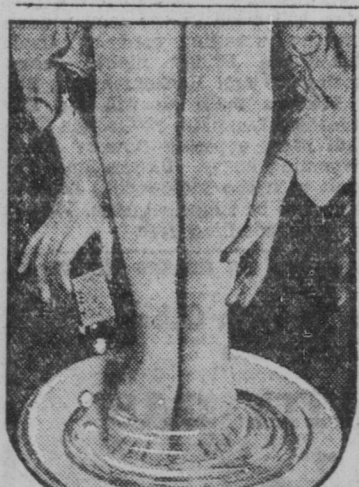

CHORUS, ORCHESTRA WILL GIVE PROGRAM

Legend of Sleepy Hollow to Be Held at School 73.

"The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" will be presented by the junior chorus of the Sutherland School of Music and the Lora Lackey orchestra at School 73 Friday night.

Two sketches will be given by Lora Frances Lackey and C. Norman Green of the Sutherland drama school. Mildred Clark, soprano soloist, will assist.

Lora L. Lackey will direct the musical and dramatic program.

Sore, Tired Feet

Oh! How good it feels to put your tired, aching feet in a "TIZ" bath! You can just feel the pain being drawn out and grateful comfort being restored.

"TIZ" draws out the acids and poisons that puff up your feet and make them tender and sore. It takes all the soreness out of corns, calluses and strained muscles and makes tight shoes feel a half size larger. Get a box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store and have weeks of foot comfort for a few cents.

WARREN HIGH SCHOOL TO GIVE PEACE PLAY

Class Will Be Aided by Speaker in League Play.

Warren high school government class will give a play entitled "The League of Nations" on April 29.

With the aid of a special speaker from New York City, actual procedure of the league's assembly work will be portrayed. Disarmament and world peace, two very predominant problems confronting world progress, will probably form the main discussion.

900 TO GRADUATE IN COUNTY SCHOOLS

Class Day Programs Replace Formal Commencement in Grades.

Class day programs will replace formal commencement exercises in all Marion county grade schools outside Indianapolis.

More than 900 pupils will be graduated from these schools from the eighth grade. They will be given certificate showing completion of eighth-grade studies.

Marion county high schools outside Indianapolis have made plans for elaborate commencement day exercises preceding presentation of diplomas at the high schools.

Dr. Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools in Atlanta, Ga., will speak at the Southport commencement. Sutton is president of the Education Society.

The Rev. E. R. Francis, pastor of First Baptist church of Terre Haute, will make the address at West Newton. Other speakers are being arranged.

All schools will begin commencement program at 8 p. m. High schools and dates of commencement exercises are:

Oakland, April 29; Castleton, April 30; Acton and New Bethel at Acton, April 30; Valley Mills and West Baden at West Newton, May 1; New Augusta, May 4; Lawrence, May 5; Ben Davis, May 7; Southport, May 23, and Warren Central high school, May 29.

Fred T. Gladden, Marion county superintendent of schools, will present diplomas.

ORATORS WILL COMPETE

Shortridge Senior Contestant in State Finals at Gary.

Curtis Plopper, Shortridge senior, will compete at Gary Friday in state finals of the Constitution oratorical contest sponsored by the state bar association.

Charles Feibleman, Shortridge junior, will represent District 7 in the state discussion at Indiana university Friday.

Music Festival

Marion county townships will participate in the first annual Marion county musical festival in Warren Central high school at 7:45 Friday night.

Program includes a variety of numbers, ranging from "Tannhauser" to lighter selections. All interested are invited to attend.

SAFETY PRIZES TO BE AWARDED

Silver Cup Winners Will Be Chosen by Judges.

Judges selected Monday will meet Thursday to decide which schools have the most perfect safety records. Three schools will receive prize awards for having less accidents during the past year than other Indianapolis public or parochial schools.

If ties occur, enrollment, hazards of location and zeal in the safety program work will be considered. Decisions will be announced Friday.

Members of the committee on awards are:

The Rev. Fred Malott of Perry township; Mrs. Lucille Thornberry, Decatur; Dr. J. A. Swalls, Franklin; H. E. Childress, Lawrence; the Rev. Louis Minsterman, center; Mrs. Clara Wiley, Pike; Mrs. John B. Lewis, Warren; Mrs. Davis Ross, Washington; and Mrs. Waldo Farmer of Wayne township.

Since eight-month schools will close during the four days between April 27 and May 1, presentation of silver safety cups probably will be made next week.

With one exception all woods burn better the older and drier they are. Only the ash makes better fuel when burned green.

27 PUPILS WILL GRADUATE AT BEECH GROVE

High School Commencement Program to Be Held on May 29.

Beech Grove high school will graduate twenty-seven pupils this year at the commencement program in the school which will be given at 8 p. m., May 29.

Two seniors, Ruth Adams and James Bishop, have been chosen by unanimous approval of the faculty to speak at the program. Selection was made on the basis of scholarship, initiative, dependability, cooperation and ability to represent the class. Principal speaker will be Albert Stump, attorney.

Baccalaureate services at the school, May 24, will begin at 7:30. Those graduating are:
