

NEW OFFICERS ARE NAMED BY EASTERN STAR

Grand Chieftains Will Be Installed at Meetings Here Today.

Delegates of the Order of Eastern Star was to conclude its election of officers at the session in Murat temple auditorium this afternoon.

At the opening meeting Wednesday of the fifty-seventh annual convention, Mrs. Daisy Crist of Crawfordsville was elected worthy grand matron, succeeding Mrs. Frances E. Curtis, of Monon. Dr. Truman E. Yunker of Greencastle, professor of botany at De Pauw university, succeeded Ura Seeger of West Lebanon as worthy grand patron, and Mrs. Mamie Conrad of Warsaw was re-elected grand treasurer.

Mrs. Blanche Regett of Clarks Hill was re-elected grand secretary. Miss Mabel Carrithers of Princeton will succeed Mrs. Crist as associate grand matron. Albert S. Phillips of Hobart was elected associate grand patron.

Office of grand conductress will be filled by Mrs. Rose Malcolm of Indianapolis. Balloting for associate grand conductress was not to be finished until this afternoon.

Deputies appointed for the twenty-one districts of the Order of Eastern Star were to be announced late this afternoon when installation of officers also will take place. Fourth annual ball to be given by worthy matrons and worthy patrons of District 11 of the Order of Eastern Star, will begin at 8:30 tonight in the Columbia Club ballroom.

Officers elected at the annual State Secretaries Association dinner in the Severn Wednesday night were: Mrs. Laura Rathbun, president, succeeding Mrs. Nellie K. Stamm; Mrs. Katherine Hawk, first vice-president; Mrs. Edna Holwell, second vice-president; Mrs. Sarah Baker, secretary, and Mrs. Vera Day, treasurer.

Memorial services by grand officers were given Wednesday night at Murat temple.

Banquet held by Order of Eastern Star secretaries in the Claypool preceded the services.

BUILDING PERMITS ON INCREASE IN MARCH

National Survey Shows City One of Leading in Nation.

Large increase in the value of building permits issued in Indianapolis in March in comparison to the preceding month, was reported today in the national building survey of S. W. Straus & Co.

During March permits were valued at $806,508 while February's total was $524,790. In March, 1930, the aggregate was $817,098 while in March, 1929, the total was $1,930,185.

Indianapolis is listed among the twenty-five cities in the country which are leading in permit valuations.

FOUR PERSONS HURT IN AUTO COLLISIONS

Suffer Cuts and Bruises; Woman Is Thrown From Car.

Four persons were injured Wednesday night in two minor auto accidents.

Aubrey Wilson, 26, of 520 Coble street, is in city hospital today recovering from leg injuries sustained when his auto was sideswiped by another driven by Dr. J. J. Black, 4742 Broadway. The accident occurred in the 5900 block East Washington street.

Mrs. Francis Morris, of near Lebanon, was thrown from the car driven by her husband, Walter, and suffered body bruises. Their auto collided with another driven by Francis F. Sheehan, 20, of 22 North Gray street. Sheehan's mother and father were bruised.

VOLIVA TO QUIT ZION, BECOME EVANGELIST

Refutes Reports He's Dying; He'll "Never Go Near Tub Again."

By United Press
ZION, Ill., April 23.—Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of the Christian Catholic Apostolic church, has announced he will turn over active control of Zion to Apostle W. J. Mintern next summer, and devote the remainder of his life to spreading his religion throughout the world.

The famous overseer refuted recent reports that he was dying by appearing publicly, naming his successor, and vowing he "never will go near a bathtub again," although he expects to live forty-five years longer or until he is 106 years old.

"I merely scalded my foot while bathing," he said.

CAMELOT TO BE SHOWN

Game of Skill Will Be Explained at Ayres by Mrs. Boyden.

Camelot, the first of the six only games of skill in existence to be added in this century, will be explained in L. S. Ayres & Co. auditorium at 2 this afternoon, by Mrs. Elizabeth Clarke Boyden of New York, one of the leading authorities on contract bridge.

Camelot is a combination of checkers and chess, invented by George S. Parker, Salem, Mass., after forty years of study. The ease with which the game is learned, and its romantic atmosphere account for its popularity, according to Mrs. Boyden.

Seek Scientist in Arctic

With the coming of spring, a new search is under way for Professor Alfred Wegener, above, missing leader of the German expedition to Greenland for the study of geological and meteorological conditions, who has not been heard from since he disappeared into the frozen wastes last October.

When he left the western coast, near Umanak, last September, he was carrying supplies to two scientists at a meteorological station in central Greenland, 250 miles inland, indicated by the cross on the above map.

Professor Wegener also was exploring possibilities of an Arctic air route.

HAWKS SETS 2 MORE EUROPEAN FLYING MARKS

American Speeds From Paris to London in Less Than Hour.

By United Press

HESTON AIRDROME, England, April 23.—Captain Frank Hawks, the American flier, arrived from France today, smashing two more European records to finish off his two days of flight between London and Rome.

The American speed flier who Wednesday set a new mark of five hours and twenty-two minutes from London to Rome, broke two records on his flight from Paris to London.

Flying from Le Bourget, near Paris, he reached Croydon airdrome in fifty-five minutes to break the ninety-six-minute mark recently set by Commander Glen-Kidston and then continued to Heston airdrome.
