

SIAM'S RULERS IN CAPITAL TO MEET HOOVER

Delete Part of Ceremonies
Because of King's Weakness.

By JOSEPH H. V. BAIRD,
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 29.—President Hoover received an official call today from their majesties, the king and queen of Siam, who came half way around the world to visit this western democracy.

The royal couple, accompanied by the prince and princess Suvasthi, the queen's parents, Lieutenant-Colonel Campbell B. Hodges, the President's military aide, and other officials, arrived at the White House at 10:15 a. m. They stayed fifteen minutes, chatting pleasantly with the chief executive and Mrs. Hoover.

The king and queen, motored from the White House to their palatial home on Massachusetts avenue and were followed shortly by Mr. and Mrs. Hoover, who, as official etiquette demanded, repaid their visit.

Whisked Away Past Capitol
King and queen were whisked away in a dignified car bearing the presidential coat of arms, followed by the rest of the two parties.

Past the Capitol, its white dome gleaming in the setting sun, and up Pennsylvania avenue to the White House. Then on out Massachusetts avenue to the palatial home of Larz Anderson, former ambassador to Japan.

Here hundreds more democratic admirers of royalty were lined up at the curb, as royalty entered the fifty-room democratic palace to seek rest from travel.

BOYS ACCUSE DRUGGIST
Tech Students Testify They Played Slot Machine.

Appearing as state witnesses in the case of Bert H. Frink, 459 North State avenue, drug store operator, ten Technical high school youths told juvenile court Tuesday how they played a slot machine in the Tech pharmacy, 1701 East Michigan street.

Frink was charged with contributing to delinquency of the boys by causing them to become truants from school and to participate in delinquent practices. The case was continued until May 11.

Vote Down Grape Juice as Preference for Communion.

By United Press
FREEPORT, N. Y., April 29.—Fermented wine won a five to one victory over plain grape juice in a poll of Lutheran ministers who were asked to express their preference for Holy Communion purposes at the second annual Long Island conference of the United Lutheran Synod, in session here today.

CITY YOUTH DIES OF CAR CRASH INJURIES

Auto Hits Pole and Tree;
Companion Is Hurt
but Slightly.

Death of a youth in city hospital today, after his automobile had crashed against a pole and a tree south of the city on Tuesday night, raised the list of traffic fatalities in Marion county to fifty-five since Jan. 1.

The boy was Horace Frederick, 23, of 2179 North Temple avenue. Howard Marks, 22, of 2205 North Temple avenue, his companion on the fatal ride, suffered lacerations on the head and face.

Marks said they were riding on Madison avenue near Shelby street when another car cut in ahead of them and Frederick swerved into the ditch to avoid a collision. Striking the pole first, their roadster nosed over against a tree.

Frederick suffered a skull fracture and his neck was broken. Police today held Charles Elrod, 57, of 431 South Pine street, on drunkenness charges after his car crashed into a railroad overhead structure at Washington street and Tibbs avenue Tuesday night, cutting Elrod's face.

Two men whose auto struck a police squad car Tuesday night also were held on drunkenness charges this morning. They are John P. Clancy, 30, of 349 Lincoln street, and Fred Brill, 40, of 1219 South Meridian street. The accident occurred at Shelby and Beecher streets. Patrolman John O'Brien and Ernest De Long were shaken up.

Four persons suffered minor injuries when their car was struck by a hit-and-run driver on National road, west of the city, Tuesday night. They are: Kenneth Fox, 20, of 51 North Tenth street, Beech Grove; Paul Bennett, 20, of 1122 Orange street; Miss Harriet Barrick, 16, of 1402 South Olive street, and Miss Marjorie Binford, 16, of 1818 Olive street.

TWO SEEK PRESIDENCY
Briand and Doumer in Race for Highest French Office.

By United Press
PARIS, April 29.—The contest for the presidency of France narrowed down to two men today, with indications that there will be a vigorous shakeup of the cabinet of Premier Pierre Laval if Aristide Briand, leading candidate, is elected next month.

Senator Paul Doumer, 74, who is small in stature, but otherwise resembles Charles Evans Hughes, is the second candidate, believed to be about ten votes behind Foreign Minister Briand.

When President Gaston Doumergue Tuesday summoned the national assembly to meet May 13, for the election, Doumer definitely became a candidate, although Briand still declined to announce his candidacy formally.

ARREST TWO IN RAIDS
Wine, Beer Finds Confiscated as Police Strike at Joints.

In raids on two alleged bootleg joints Tuesday night, police squads arrested two persons and said they confiscated more than 150 gallons of beer and wine.

Mrs. Josephine Kronsch, 40, of 2914 West St. Clair street, was charged with operating a blind tiger, after police said they found 125 gallons of grape wine and a large quantity of beer.

Raiding an apartment at 410 South New Jersey street, police arrested Glenn Ellis on blind tiger charges and confiscated several quarts of beer on ice and brewing, they reported.

HINT ROOSEVELT HAS HURT HIS 1932 CHANCES

Republicans May Jump on Him as an Ally of Tammany.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, April 29.—Trained political observers here expect important political consequences to flow from the refusal of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt to remove from office Mayor James J. Walker of New York on charges of misfeasance.

While oracles of both major parties were silent, the Republicans at least were expected to have some well-considered publicity ready in the near future regarding what is interpreted in some circles as a gesture of amity toward Tammany hall.

Roosevelt generally is conceded at present to be leading for the Democratic presidential nomination next year. He has been considered in prohibition areas to be "safe," because he has not been as vociferous along that line as some others. He has not been connected with "the interests," and his fight with the power companies has won him friends in the west.

The one delicate spot lay in his possible link with Tammany, arch-demon to voters all over the country. Republicans have attempted to connect him with Tammany, and through Tammany with the New York City scandals. His friends had hoped the Walker case would give him an opportunity to assert his independence from that organization.

Instead he threw out the charges of prominent New Yorkers on the ground that they were too general and to a large extent involved not Walker, but his subordinates. This, it is said will be interpreted by his opponents as constituting subservience to the Tiger.
