TWO big events for the golfers were on today, the first promenade tournament of the season attracting a big field to Highland Country Club and the annual Indianapolis District Golf Association dinner set for the Columbia Club at 6:30 tonight. The association anticipates the biggest turnout ever at the dinner. Arrangements have been made for a big display of merchandise in local sporting goods dealers and clothing, special food and special entertainment which will include Bobby Jones pictures and talks.

The pro-amateur at Highland attracted all the pros from the central section of the state within a radius of seventy-five miles and many of them brought their own amateur partners along. There were, however, a large number of local amateur stars ready to pair with any incoming pros.

Carl Beyer and W. P. Davis, both members of Highland, entered the golf ball in the pro-amateur. Beyer, who is a professional, took a cut at the ball, hit it straight and true, and finally rolled into the cup. The distance was 110 yards. Beyer's partner, Davis, who is an amateur, took a cut at the ball, hit it straight and true, and finally rolled into the cup. The distance was 110 yards.

Woodstock members participated in a morning golfing event with about forty taking part in a nine-hole tournament. The event was held on the Woodstock Golf Course and was won by a local amateur.

The golf course was opened for the season at Avon Saturday and Sunday with a big crowd of golfers. The course was in excellent condition and the weather was perfect.

A FIELD of 161 took part in the golf tournament. Five members being the blind par prize, each having the exact number, 79, for their net score. The five probably will draw later for the award. The players were: Frank Jones, W. P. Davis, W. P. Davis, W. P. Davis, W. P. Davis.

More than 100 Highlanders took part in a big week-end of ball sports and blind par tournament golf. The event was held on the Highland Country Club and was won by a local amateur.

GREENFIELD opened its new country club links Saturday. L. E. Greer, secretary, informs us the course was in excellent condition. A big crowd played over the links during the week-end.

Many of the boys in this section might be interested in the amateur golf championship of the United States, either from a playing or a spectator basis. They will be glad to know the thirty-fifth annual tournament will be played at Beverly Country Club in Chicago this year.

THE national open will be played at Inverness Club in Toledo, July 2, 3 and 4. It also will be the thirty-fifth annual. Sectional qualifying play, thirty-six holes, medal, will be held on June 8 over twenty different courses throughout the country.
