

NEW CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED

North M. E. Congregation to Witness Rite Tonight.

Bishop William F. Anderson of Boston, Mass., will be the principal speaker at services at North Methodist Episcopal church, Meridian and Thirty-eighth streets, tonight, dedicating the new edifice to the community.

With Fred Hoke, president of the church trustees, presiding, the Rev. Ambrose Dunkel, pastor of Tabernacle Protestant church, will deliver an address presenting the church to the community, and Charles F. Coffin will speak in behalf of laymen. Addressing about 1,000 persons at a pre-dedication service for young people in the church Wednesday night, Bishop Herbert Welch of Pittsburgh pleaded for "international mindedness," asserting "there is no clash between real patriotism and international spirit. The man with the township mind is out of place."

LABOR FIRM IN STAND ON BEER

Woman Fails With Plea to Think of Bread.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Organization of Wayne township post, American Legion, officers will be held in grade school No. 14, 4200 West Washington street, next Wednesday night.

The executive council of the federation debated the subject with Mrs. Patterson, and had the last word, reaffirming its stand for modification of the Volstead act.

Mrs. Patterson told the council it should not concern itself with prohibition when what she termed economic issues were before the country.

"The laboring man," she said, "is in need of bread, not beer."

The council replied that it believed the economic situation "would be improved materially and employment given thousands if the Volstead act was amended."

Costigan Calls Arms Talk Only Smoke Screen.

By United Press

DENVER, May 7.—Senator Edward P. Costigan (Dem., Colo.) today criticised President Hoover's "rhetorical pleasantries" in specifying armaments as a chief cause of world economic depression.

Mr. Hoover, speaking before the congress of the International Chamber of Commerce at Washington, Monday declared that armaments were a burden upon economic recuperation.

Costigan said the address illus-

SENATOR SLAPS HOOVER'S PLAN

Four Sites in State to Be Inspected by U. S. Men.

Four sites for the proposed United States fish hatchery to be erected in Indiana are to be inspected by federal authorities during the next two weeks.

trated "the contrast between preaching and practice, which too long has marred America's international influence and leadership."

"All of us concur in the demand for real disarmament," he said, "but while the administration continues to spend millions on millions of our taxpayers' money until our expenditures for armaments now approximate $750,000,000 a year, why not about the vast burdens of preparedness as a cause for the present depression."

Fletcher Trust Branches — All Over Town

NO matter where you go in Indianapolis, you see branches of Fletcher Trust Company. They are all over town—North Side, East Side, West Side, South Side. Twelve branches in all—each with exactly the same resources of more than $30,000,000 and the same conservative management as the Main Office downtown.

Look for these branches. Select a convenient one and make it your banking place. Here are signs to guide you—symbols of safety by which you may know a Fletcher Trust branch:

Fletcher Trust Company

Each Fletcher Trust branch has this lettering on its windows. This means that the branch is just as much a part of Fletcher Trust Company as the Main Office downtown. It means safety, strength, conservatism, courtesy, breadth of service.

Each Fletcher Trust branch has this seal on its windows. It means that the branch shares full membership in the Federal Reserve System and that deposits in the branch are surrounded by all of the safeguards coming from such membership.

Each Fletcher Trust branch has this seal on its windows. It means that the branch shares full membership in the Indianapolis Clearing House Association and that deposits in the branch are protected by the safeguards coming from such membership.

Remember that all three of these signs are on every Fletcher Trust branch. Look for them. Think what they mean. Consider the advantages of having such banking protection brought to all parts of the city—not only to the downtown district but to your own neighborhood.

You are cordially invited to make use of these advantages by opening an account—checking or savings—at any Fletcher Trust branch. Depositors at any branch can also make deposits and withdrawals at the Main Office downtown.
