

EASTERN A. L. CLUBS IN WEST

Cleveland Loses But Retains Slight Edge

Yankees Ride in Second Place, One Game Behind; Leaders Face Test Against Invaders; Cards, Cubs Win in National League Contests.

NEW YORK, May 8.—The first interseasonal competition of the season was scheduled for American League clubs today.

New York, Philadelphia, Washington and Boston, the four eastern clubs of the circuit, moved into the west to open against Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit and Cleveland, respectively. Thus far this year the eastern and western teams of the league have battled among themselves.

The east-west imbroglio in the National League will break out among a somewhat jagged front, with New York and Chicago, and Boston and Cincinnati starting the firing Saturday. The other two western clubs—Pittsburgh and St. Louis—open their eastern invasion later, the Pirates meeting Brooklyn at Brooklyn Sunday while the Cardinals do not open their interseasonal competition until Monday against Boston.

Cleveland's Indians, defeated 10 to 4 by St. Louis Thursday, hold a one game advantage over the New York Yankees in the American League but after their four game series with Boston, they will meet the three strongest teams in the circuit in New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

George Blaeholder, although he allowed thirteen hits, had little difficulty in checking Cleveland Thursday. The Browns pounded four Cleveland hurlers for seventeen hits.

Al Thomas Chased
In the only other American League game, Detroit defeated Chicago, 6 to 1 and advanced to fourth place, just a half game ahead of Washington. Powerful first inning attack that drove Al Thomas from the mound gave the Tigers victory. The St. Louis Cardinals increased their margin of leadership in the National League to two games over the second place New York Giants by defeating Pittsburgh, 11 to 5. Jess Haines allowed the Pirates but seven hits, while the Cardinals bombarded French, Osborn and Willoughby for fifteen blows.

Martin Is Star
Pepper Martin, Cards rookie center fielder, hit a home run, double and two singles, accounting for four of the St. Louis runs.

In the other National League contest the Chicago Cubs overcame their old jinx, Ray Kopp, to defeat Cincinnati, 5 to 4, in eleven innings. Hack Wilson scored the winning run on pinch-hitter Earl Grace's long fly.

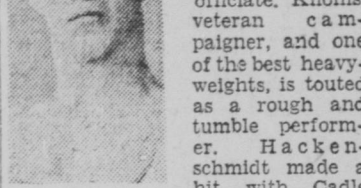

The Brooklyn-Philadelphia game was rained out, while New York and

Kilonis Faces Pennsy Matman

John Kilonis, Greek grappler, and Joe Hackenschmidt, German mat performer of Pennsylvania, will supply the chief action on tonight's card at Cadie tabernacle. Women will be admitted free to all seats.

Frank Buchanan will officiate. Kilonis, veteran cam-paigner, and one of the best heavyweights, is touted as a rough and tumble performer. Hackenschmidt made a hit with Cadie fans last week when he twice tossed Cyclone Robinson.

Charlie Stanton, California heavy, and Dug Marcell, Montreal, will meet in the semi-windup tonight. Middleweights will open the card with a prelude at 8:30.

6 Tilts on Legion Bill

Heavies to Battle in Three Top Scraps at the Armory.

Joe Sekya, Jimmy Mahoney, Dick Daniels, Mike Mandell, Tiger Jack Payne and Charlie Berlander are among the heavyweights whom Rosy Rosales of Cleveland has defeated, according to his record submitted to the Legion by Farnon Tom McGinty, manager of the Navajo Indian pug who is to tangle with Chuck Wiggins next Tuesday night at the Armory.

The Legion has lined up what looks to be a fast supporting card for the Wiggins-Rosales feature. The complete program follows:

Ten Rounds—Chuck Wiggins, Indianapolis, vs. Rosy Rosales, Cleveland; heavyweights.

Eight Rounds—Harold Anderson, Indianapolis, vs. Murre Kerr, Indianapolis; light-heavyweights.

Six Rounds—Marion Youngstaefer, Indianapolis, vs. Billy Rhodes, Indianapolis; heavyweights.

Six Rounds—George Stokes, Gary, vs. Bud Clark, Vincennes; featherweights.

Six Rounds—Red Holloway, Indianapolis, vs. Eddie Marshall, Terre Haute; junior welters.

Four Rounds—Bud Miley, Indianapolis, vs. Joe Moore, Indianapolis; lightweights.

Marion Youngstaefer, the six-foot-six protegee of Bert Rumer, who is now handling the fist business for Wiggins, is training at Vincennes with Chuck, as is Red Holloway.

Six Teams in College Event

MUNCIE, Ind., May 8.—Indiana's "little state" track meet will be held on the Ball State college athletic field here Saturday afternoon. Entries have been received from Butler, Rose Poly, Indiana State, Earlham, Ball State and De Pauw, all of which will be represented by teams. Individual entries from several other colleges also have been filed. De Pauw won the event last year and with Butler is favored for the 1931 title.

LOCAL GOLFER LEADS

Nell McIntyre Sets Pace in Michigan Open Play.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., May 8.—Nell McIntyre, Indianapolis, was out in front by two strokes at the end of the first thirty-six holes of the $1,000 Blossom Festival open golf tournament here Thursday.

Johnny Dawson, Chicago amateur, was two strokes behind McIntyre's 145, and Al Espinosa was third with 148.

Newcastle started this night-shooting idea around here and now that Columbus has taken it up, shooters are curious as to the outcome.

Three small bore rifle matches are on the calendar for the near future when the Central Indiana Rifle League will hold three 50 and 100 yard, 22 caliber events. The first will be held this month at Danville, second in June at Greenfield and the third under the auspices of the Hoosier Rifle Club of Indianapolis. Dates will be determined later.

A registered shoot is scheduled by the Vincennes Rod and Gun Club for Sunday May 17. There will be 200 sixteen yard targets, 50 handicap targets and 50 pairs doubles. The public is invited.

FRENCH BOXERS DRILL

CHICAGO, May 8.—The French amateur boxing champions resumed training today for their international bouts with the United States Golden Gloves, titlholders, at Soldier field Tuesday night.

If weather conditions do not interfere the bouts are expected to draw a crowd of 100,000.

PURDUE, N. Y. U. SIGN

NEW YORK, May 8.—Football teams from New York university and Purdue will clash at the Yankee stadium here in an intercollegiate contest, Oct. 20, 1932, athletic officials at the New York institution announced today. It will mark the first time N. Y. U. has met a member of the Western Conference.

WOODSTOCK PLAYERS WILL be permitted last year's handicap when they qualify for the annual spring handicap tournament Saturday. The Edwin Forney trophy will be at stake in the championship flight to be made up of the sixteen low qualifiers. The first round matches are scheduled for next week, May 16.

TRAVELERS TO CHICAGO PRAISE THE COMFORT OF MONON CLUB-LOUNGE CAR

"Like a Club on Wheels," Hoosier Patrons Say

People taking the famous Hoosier All-Steel Train to Chicago are telling their friends about the enjoyable features of this train's club-lounge car. They say it is a veritable "club on wheels."

The car is furnished in the manner of an elegant residential living room. Highly upholstered chairs, luxurious carpeting and tasteful lighting effects provide an atmosphere seldom duplicated in railroad travel.

A handsome radio brings passengers the latest news, world events and sparkling music and entertainment. In the center of the car are comfortable sections for bridge. Combination ash trays and service tables are spaced throughout for the benefit of smokers, both ladies and gentlemen.

The club-lounge car is easily accessible to parlor and dining car patrons, who are invited to make use of it free of charge.

If you are going to Chicago, do as most people do—go on the Monon. Take the Hoosier or one of the other famous Monon trains that have established a new high standard of safety, comfort and service. Call the Monon ticket office for information. Phone Lincoln 6404—Advertisement.

Chicago Honors Joe McCarthy

By United Press
CHICAGO, May 8.—A crowd of 30,000 was expected to turn out for "Joe McCarthy day" at Comiskey park today where the New York Yankees open a four-game series with the Chicago White Sox.

McCarthy, former manager of the Cubs, took over the reins of the Yankees after Rogers Hornsby had

PRIMO CARNERA SUIT UP

By United Press
NEW YORK, May 8.—The suit of the Madison Square Garden Corporation of Illinois seeking to restrain Primo Carnera from fighting Jack Sharkey in Brooklyn June 10 was scheduled for hearing in federal court today.

The Garden claims that Carnera is under contract to it until September and that the giant Italian heavyweight violated the agreement when he signed to meet Sharkey without obtaining the permission of the corporation.

TIGERS END DRILLS

GREENCASTLE, Ind., May 8.—Spring football at De Pauw university was brought to a close Thursday with a regular game between two teams. Four complete teams worked out under Coach Neal this spring.
