

NEW WAR THREATENED IN KENTUCKY MINE REGION

PEACE IS NEAR BREAKING POINT; 5 ARE JAILED

Discontent Spreads When Guards Fail to Lay
Arms Aside.

400 TROOPS ON HAND

Union Workers Charge
Governor Violating His Pledge.

BY FOSTER EATON
United Press Staff Correspondent

HARLAN, Ky., May 11.—Peace established by national guardsmen in this strife-torn community seemed near the breaking point today, with several hundred additional miners thrown out of work by strikes throughout the county and a union leader and three Evans officials in jail on capital charges.

Another man also was in custody, charged with threatening to break into the Harlan county jail and liberate a union official, a police chief, his assistant, and town clerk, held on triple murder charges.

Discontent is spreading. Although it was denied by national guardsmen and Sheriff John Henry Blair, a report persisted that a mine guard and a union coal miner had killed each other in a gun fight at Shields.

Discontent spread today, additional walkouts occurring due when mine company guards were not disarmed, as spokesmen for the United Mine Workers of America said Governor Clem D. Sweeney's representatives had promised, with arrival of 400 national guardsmen to curb disorders.

Union representatives said the walkouts were the direct result of the Governor's failure to order company guards disarmed.

Lay Trouble to Guards. Rival factions claim the trouble, which has taken five lives here, was caused by mine guards, while the sheriff and mine operators blame what they term "left wing" union workers.

Union reports of walkouts here today indicated that nearly 3,000 have been added to the 10,500 already unemployed, and citizens fear that even the presence of state troops could not serve to allay the unrest for long.

W. B. Jones, secretary of Local No. 3355, Police Chief Asa Cusick, Assistant Police Chief Al Benson and Joe Cawood, town clerk, were taken into custody by Sheriff Blair on charges growing out of the ambush of three deputy sheriffs and a citizen last week.

Coal Miner Is Jailed. J. H. Moore, a coal miner of Evans, where nearly all the disorders have taken place, was arrested when he was alleged to have declared in an impromptu street-corner address Sunday that "they'll all be out of jail by 5 o'clock."

Sheriff Blair said this one of his undercover men, a bona fide member of the United Mine Workers of America, promptly reported the threat and Moore was arrested.

HIT-RUN AUTO SUSPECT HELD BY CITY COPS

Charge Driver's License
Had Been Revoked
Before Crash.

William Shelly, 1529 South East street, was arrested today by Lieutenant Frank Owen of the accident prevention bureau, charged with being the "hit-and-run" driver who left the scene of an accident at East and Georgia streets on May 9. Shelly was arrested when he attempted to claim his automobile, which was interned by police at the Plaza garage.

He claimed that his car was stolen and that he had not driven it the day of the accident. He had reported the car as stolen.

After questioning by police, Shelly is said to have admitted that he drove the car that wrecked an auto driven by Foy McClain, 816 North Delaware street.

Police records show that on Aug. 23, 1930, Shelly's driver's license was revoked in Columbus, Ind., following an automobile accident. He was fined $40 on drunkenness charges and $20 for driving without following the Columbus accident.

The year's revocation of the driver's license had not expired when the Indianapolis accident occurred.

Yegg's Dismay

By United Press
SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Cal., May 11.—Harold Marks, San Diego burglar, today claimed the invention of a burglar-proof lock that has defied the Queen of the Detectives and pickers and safe openers.

The lock is a combination dial and key device, with the combination set for words instead of numerals.

The key can not be inserted until the proper word or words are spelled.

Vibration of the tumbler has been eliminated, Marks said, making it impossible to solve the combination by listening.

New Water Tank Good News for Irvington

Huge storage tank being erected by the Indianapolis Water Company and inset, aviators' marking to be painted in ten-foot letters on its 100-foot crown. The marking indicates that Indianapolis municipal airport with A. A. rating, lies twelve miles distant in the direction indicated.

Huge 1,500,000 Gallon Vat to Be Completed for Service in July.

Steel workers are "raising a toast to Irvington," near Arlington avenue and Tenth street.

It's a giant's toast—1,500,000 gallons—and violates no dry law, for it's water from mains of the Indianapolis Water Company.

East side residents have been watching steel girders spear the sky as the structure went up that is to support the huge tank, with a capacity of 30,000 ordinary sized barrels, or 12,450,000 pounds of water. The structure will be 100 feet high, the tank itself having a depth of 25 feet and diameter of 100 feet. It will be supported by forty-eight steel columns and the central riser pipe a diameter of 10 feet. The water main discharging from this pipe is 24 inches in diameter.

The tank will supplement the service from pumping stations to provide a more uniform pressure, improved fire protection and water service to the 50,000 persons now living east of rural street.

It overcomes the difficulty imposed by the fact that from an elevation of 711 feet above sea level at Meridian and Washington streets the ground rises to an elevation of 825 feet at Washington street and the east city limits.

With necessary feeder mains, the tank will be ready for service early in July.

SUICIDE, ASKS FORGIVENESS OF 'DREAM' MATE

Leaves Letter to Husband and Children Who Never Existed.

By United Press
CHICAGO, May 11.—The contents of a letter, which a girl wrote while dying of poison, to a husband whom, relatives said, never existed, were revealed today by authorities, who declared the missive disclosed one of the strangest mental cases on record here.

The girl, Miss Frede Edwards, 22, formerly of Salem and Olie, Ill., was found dead in her rooming house. Physicians said the letter found in the room undoubtedly had been written after she took the slow acting poison and while she knew death was not stay away from you and from my children," Miss Edwards wrote. "The longing for you is killing me. I never had a moment's peace after the mad act I was guilty of in quitting you."

After begging forgiveness, she recalled the days she had spent with her "dream husband."

"Let your thoughts go back," she wrote, "to the day when you first knew me, when I was a happy girl. And the first kiss you left upon my lips! And O, Archibald, do you remember the loving days after I was your wife how happy we were with each other?"

In one paragraph she spoke of the death of a child, William, and, in another, wrote:

"I am going to William, but Lucy and Archibald will be left. Oh, be ever kind to them. I pray you, visit not their mother's sin upon this head."

"Archibald, I am on the very threshold of the next world. Will you not bless me? Let what I am be."

CHAPLIN, STUNG TO THE QUICK, BRANDS BRITONS 'WORLD'S GREATEST HYPOCRITES'

BY SIDNEY J. WILLIAMS
United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON, May 11.—Charles Chaplin, comedian, in a serious mood, bitterly assailed the British as the "greatest hypocrites in the world" at times, in an interview printed today in the London Express.

He was quoted as saying that Europe had bullied, misunderstood, and misinterpreted him. Chaplin, interviewed at Juan-les-Pins, France, struck sharply at his critics in England who flayed him for not appearing at a recent "command performance" in a London variety show charity affair.

"They say I have a duty to England," the interviewer quoted Chaplin as saying. "I wonder just what that duty is. No one wanted
