

TOT, MAN DIE OF INJURIES IN CAR ACCIDENTS

5-Year-Old Girl Is Hurt Fatally When Hit by Auto in Front of Home.

The year's traffic fatality toll in Marion county mounted to sixty-seven today, as names of two victims of crashes Wednesday were added.

Rosalie Rackemann, 5, of 114½ South Noble street, was injured fatally when struck by an automobile in front of her home.

Thomas Pumphrey, 40, of 4181 Shelby street, was injured fatally when his car was struck by a passenger train at Shelby street and the Pennsylvania railroad.

The little girl was playing with her two sisters, Joana, 7, and Juliet, 2, on the sidewalk near their home, when suddenly she darted into the street into the path of an automobile driven by Rex Wilson, 30, of 149 Kansas street.

A fender knocked her down, and she rolled under the car, the wheels of which passed over her body. She died in an ambulance en route to city hospital.

Witnesses said Wilson was not to blame.

Pumphrey was driving south on Shelby street to his home, when the locomotive of the inbound train struck his car and hurled it against a signal light standard and utilities pole.

He died three hours later in city hospital. Witnesses disagreed as to whether warning flasher lights and a bell were operating.

Miss Betty Johnson, 32, and Miss Orpha Wood, 23, of 1042½ Virginia avenue, were injured when struck by an auto at Capitol avenue and Washington street, Wednesday. Mrs. Lena Bayers, 44, of 1540 South Randolph street, driver of the car,

WORLD AMAZES MAN FREE AFTER 34-YEAR TERM

Spanish-American War Had Not Been Fought When He Went to Cell.

By United Press

BOSTON, May 14.—Henry Stewart, 66, today was enjoying his first day of freedom in thirty-four years.

William McKinley was President. Roger Wolcott was Governor of Massachusetts, and the Spanish-American war had not yet been fought when this man, now thin and gray, entered state prison to serve a life sentence for killing a fellow worker.

Boston's crooked streets were filled with horse-drawn traffic at the time.

He was astonished at the changes that had taken place—at the number of motor vehicles, at the Boston elevated railway and subway system, at airplanes which soared over the city, at new buildings which had sprung up.

"It's a different world than I thought it would be," he said. "Forty years ago I believed it would be 200 years before we would have airplanes."

At the statehouse, where he called to thank Governor Joseph B. Ely in connection with his release, Stewart exclaimed:

"This is the first time I have been here. What a magnificent building!"

Stewart will spend the next month under the care of the Salvation Army, then plans to go to work.

Asked if he intended to get married, he replied:

"Not on your life! I'll have enough trouble looking after myself."

Alleged to have broken into eight schoolhouses, Ed Tuttle, 18, of Toledo, and a 16-year-old boy were bound over to the county grand jury today on burglary and petit larceny charges.

Mrs. Keach died Wednesday in St. Francis hospital, Beech Grove. She was the mother of James L. Keach, a commission merchant, who died twelve years ago. The grandson is the only survivor.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 14.—Chief Justice Richard B. Russell of the Georgia supreme court, father of eighteen children, including a son who will become Governor next month, was ready today with at least eighteen reasons why he is against birth control.

He will debate the subject tonight with Margaret Sanger, leading advocate of birth control, as his opponent.

Miss Sanger, who in real life is Mrs. J. Noah See, mother of two sons and a daughter, and for many years has led the fight to legalize dissemination of contraceptive information, faces a picturesquely informed figure in Judge Russell.

He is a Georgia planter of the old type, with a drooping mustache. His tall spare figure is accentuated by the black frocktail coat he usually wears.

A newspaper editor before becoming a judge, holder of several honorary college degrees, interested in many social organizations, he epitomizes the true southern gentleman of the old school.

He is certain to extol the sentimental values of a large and happy home and offer his own family as an example.

The sociological side of the question he will also touch upon, he said.

Altogether, he will advance eighteen arguments against birth control.

Cut in Low Pay Proposed

CARMEL, Ind., May 14.—A citizens' ticket composed of candidates for four trustships, clerk and treasurer of Carmel, is pledged above all else to reduce salaries of those posts from $60 to $12 per annum. Election of the ticket would reduce office expenditures for this town of 1,500 by $288 a year.

'MACHINE GUN' O'HARE AWAITS U.S. TRIAL HERE

Gangster Faces Charge of Conspiracy in Liquor Ring in State.

Silent until he can consult an attorney, Edward (Machine Gun) O'Hare, long connected with middle western bands of hoodlums, was held in county jail here today.

He is awaiting arraignment on a federal court indictment more than a year old. The indictment charges O'Hare with three liquor conspiracies. He was named by a federal grand jury in the Joe Traum liquor ring operating out of Terre Haute.

O'Hare was captured with a gang of other hoodlums in their hangout in East St. Louis, Ill., last week, and was taken to Chicago as a suspected member of the mob led by Ed (Killer) Burke, recently caught in Missouri.

O'Hare first was wanted at Terre Haute in 1929, where a period of gang warfare ended in the slaying of Jackie Morrison and George Ad-ducks, both minor gangsters. He escaped arrest, but later was captured in Illinois. He fought extradition and the state of Illinois would not send him here because there was no indictment against him.

O'Hare was brought to Indianapolis Wednesday by John I. Wilson, agent in charge of special agents, department of justice, here, and deputy United States Marshals J. W. O'Neill and Eric Glass.

O'Hare probably will be arraigned before Judge Robert C. Baltzell Friday or Saturday. He has refused to answer questions until he gets his attorney.
