

575 SENIORS TO WIND UP STAY AT SHORTRIDGE

Baccalaureate Sermon to Be Heard Sunday; Class Day June 9.

Five hundred seventy-five seniors at Shortridge high school today are looking forward to their final week as high school students. The class will attend baccalaureate services Sunday at 4 p. m. at the North Methodist church.

The Rev. W. W. Wiant, pastor, will deliver the sermon. Music will be furnished by the church choir. Class day exercises will be held June 9 in Cadeb Mills hall. Officers are: Mary Catherine McLean, historian; William Dally, willmaker; Alice W. Auerbach, prophet; and Dick Gaus and James Orr, giftors.

On the commencement program, June 10 in Cadeb Mills hall, speakers will be Anne De Cress, salutatorian, and Curtis Plopper, valedictorian. Evelyn Pruitt and James Henry Prescott also will speak.

Invocation will be pronounced by the Rev. George S. Southworth, and Russell Willson, president of the school board, will present the diplomas.

George Buck, principal, will preside. The Shortridge orchestra, directed by Will F. Wise, will play.

Award day was observed today in Cadeb Mills hall exercises. Buck presented awards to all who had earned honors during the year.

Twelve hundred fifty Shortridge year books have been ordered by pupils. Seniors will receive theirs Friday and others will be delivered June 8.

Children's Books

During summer vacation when children have more time to play, the problem of their amusement becomes more acute for parents. To meet this situation the public library has made special arrangements in the children's room where, beginning June 15, any child may take home six books to read and keep them until Oct. 1 if he desired.

These special privileges are given so that a child may take books along on a family vacation or to a summer camp. Every child is entitled to these library advantages. Your child should read:

"THE SNOW IMAGE" (by Nathaniel Hawthorne)—The library has a new edition of the popular old story, made more attractive than ever by Dorothy Lathrop's beautiful illustrations.

"ALANNA" (by Helen Coats Crew)—Alanna Malone of Ballycooly was a little Irish girl whose eyes matched the bluebell and her hair the raven's wing. Her adventures are all told in this story.

"THE JUMPING-ROPE PLACE" (by Marian H. McNeely)—How the four young Americans left alone to make their way in the world, showed pluck and determination in overcoming the dangers and hardships of homestead life in Dakota. A well-told story of American life that girls of twelve and over will enjoy.

"FLOATING ISLAND" (by Anne Parrish)—A doll story with plenty of adventure and humor.

"LIANG AND LO" (by Kurt Wiese)—The story of two little Chinese boys who start off on the back of a buffalo to find a dragon. Illustrations are in color. Attractive book for younger children.

TECH NOTES

BY FRANCIS S. NIPP

Technical Correspondent

Out of 2,257 Technical English students 1,445 have been excused from the final minimum essential test because of making scores of 100 per cent in three preliminary tests during the year. One class of sixteen members was perfect, and a second class of twenty-six pupils had twenty-five perfect.

Ten boy members of the Stratford Literary Club portrayed characters in Shakespeare's "Henry VIII" at the final meeting of the club Thursday.

Boys taking part were Frank Newman, Robert Lybrook, Rudard Jones, Robert Hively, Warren McDermott, Edgar Baum, George Froust, Francis S. Nipp, Savo Stoshitch, and Charles Stevenson. Jane Williams introduced the scenes and explained the program.

The second scene from the Girls' Concert Club's production, "Birth of Spring," and "Grasshopper Cantata," a presentation of the Boys' Concert Club, will be special features of the alumni meeting to be held at Tech Saturday.

Greetings to the alumni will be given by Milo H. Stuart, former principal of Tech, and by Dewitt S. Morgan, present head. The meeting will be followed by a dance.

Hear Graduation Address

Fifty-eight graduates of Warren township high school heard Dr. Frederick E. Taylor, pastor of the First Baptist church, deliver the commencement address on "Building a Life to Last." Fred T. Glad, superintendent of Marion county schools, presented diplomas.

Pupils to Compete for Scholarship

Four Washington high school pupils will compete this week with students from other schools for scholarships to the John Herron Art Institute. They are Emil Unser, Doris Posing, Hazel Jones, and Bernard Lanet.

ART EXHIBIT IS SET

Technical Art Department to Show Drawings.

A backyard clothesline will become the exhibition gallery for one hundred works of art of Technical high school students, June 10, in the garden of Mrs. H. B. Burnett, 4417 North Pennsylvania street.

Delicious Fruit Recipes

Fresh fruits are very important in the diet as regulatory foods and tissue builders. The fact that they contain mineral salts such as calcium, phosphorus, lime and iron—each necessary to the body tissues—makes the use of fruit in the diet necessary.

And the fact that most fruits are low in food value, while furnishing cellulose and acids, makes them ideal for summer use in the diet. Our Washington bureau has ready for you a comprehensive new bulletin on fruit dishes, drinks and desserts. It includes recipes for delicious fruit muffins, fritters, cocktails, salads, desserts and beverages. You'll be surprised at the variety of tasteful ways you can use fruit and berries in the daily menu. Fill out the coupon below and send for this bulletin.
