CAPITAL ROCKED BY FAILURE OF MANY HOTELS

Mayflower Probe Climaxes Series of Real Estate Collapses.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, June 4.—Financial difficulties of the Mayflower hotel, internationally famous hostelry, have focussed attention on similar developments in the national capital over a period of two years.

The Mayflower, home of Vice-President Charles Curtis, recently was thrown into a temporary receivership on petition of Mabel Walker Willebrandt, representing a group of stockholders.

Wednesday the receivership was lifted, but officials of the company were ordered to show cause June 10, why a permanent order should not be issued.

The American Bond and Mortgage Company, which financed the Mayflower, is under investigation by the department of justice.

Charges have been made that investors in its shares throughout the country have lost millions.

Financiers Face Embezzlement

The Mayflower case is the culmination of a series of real estate collapses which have created a scandal in Washington financial circles and resulted in receiverships or other difficulties for eight fashionable hotels, several expensive apartment houses, and a number of office buildings and other properties.

One financier is serving a fourteen-year term on a charge of conspiracy to embezzle $5,000,000, is awaiting trial on a charge of using the mails to defraud, and faces possible indictment on a charge of perjury. He is S. G. Bryan Pitts, son of an Alexandria, Va., street car conductor and former head of the F. H. Smith Company, which sold securities by mail.

Edmund H. Rheem, sportsman, Princeton graduate and baseball star, is under indictment on a charge of embezzlement as a result of the collapse of the real estate financing firm of Swartzell, Rheem & Henry, of which he was active head.

Wholesale Frauds Seen

Harry Wardman, who came to this country a penniless Scotch immigrant and became the capital's leading real estate man, has in the last two years lost nearly all his holdings, including ten large hotels, apartments or office buildings. He is father-in-law of Rheem.

Early this year Country Club Properties, Inc., a suburban development in Montgomery county, Maryland, went out of business after selling many lots. Its president, N. B. Clarke, left the city.

The following are among the more important hotel properties involved in the series of crashes: Mayflower, Carlton, Wardman Park Inn, Shoreham, Roosevelt, Hay-Adams, Chastleton and Hamilton. All are fashionable and expensive.

Senators John J. Blaine (Rep., Wis.) and Smith W. Brookhart (Rep., Ia.) have interested themselves in the situation.

Blaine says loose real estate and banking laws in the district permit wholesale frauds, and he is seeking stricter laws.

PINCHOT AGAIN IS SNUBBED BY NATION'S CHIEF

Pennsylvania Governor Gets Cold Shoulder Three Times in Row.

By Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance
WASHINGTON, June 4.—Gifford Pinchot, Pennsylvania's Republican Governor, who is said to be ambitious to live in the White House, has been snubbed three times by two Republican Presidents—once by Coolidge and twice by Hoover.

The latest snub, last Friday night in Philadelphia, has revived reports that Mr. Hoover and some of his friends are worried lest developments in Pennsylvania cause Pinchot to go to the next Republican national convention a potential presidential candidate.

Between Hoover and Pinchot there has existed a mutual dislike since the days when members of the wartime food administration.

When Pinchot came to Washington in 1925, to attend the Coolidge inauguration at the head of a troop of Pennsylvania cavalry, Coolidge refused to notice the dashing, picturesque figure Pinchot cut. The President actually turned his head away.

In Philadelphia last fall Pinchot had a second experience with a presidential cold shoulder. Like Hoover, he was an honor guest at the opening game of the World series. Hoover was seated when Pinchot—then a candidate for Governor—arrived.

When Pinchot sought to extend greetings, Hoover arose very stiffly and indifferently grasped his hand. Only the barest How-do-you-dos were exchanged. When photographers sought to get a picture of the two, George Akerson, then Hoover's secretary, jumped in front of cameramen.

Hoover occurred at the banquet of the ultra-conservative Union League Club of Philadelphia, where Hoover was honor guest. The Governor and President exchanged the barest sort of greetings. Pinchot sat at the first table, but not next to the President and there was no further conversation between them.

Hoover's example of coldness, incidentally, was emulated by most of the conservative Republicans present. They seemed to resent the presence of the Governor, who is openly fighting public utilities and the state's old guard Republican leaders.
