

NEARLY ALL TOP FLIGHT GOLFERS QUALIFY FOR OPEN

MacFarlane, Walker
Fail to Make Grade

Two Former Title Holders Fall by Wayside; McIntyre and Miller, Indianapolis, Land in Field; Al Espinosa, Chicago, Best With 135.

With few notable exceptions, all golfers of renown in the United States today were among the 150 players who have qualified for the national open golf tournament at Toledo, beginning July 2. Indianapolis will be represented in the championship event by two professionals, MacFarlane, unattached, and Neal McIntyre, Highland Golf and Country Club. Miller qualified at Cincinnati with a score of 150 and McIntyre made the grade at Chicago by turning in a similar count. Will Diddel, George Lance, Sammy Simpson, Ralph and Russell Stonehouse and Chuck Garringer, Indianapolis, competed, but lost out. Lance and Simpson are amateurs.

Willie MacFarlane, who defeated Bobby Jones in the play-off for the national open championship in 1925, and Cyril Walker, 1924 title holder, were the favorites who failed to qualify. MacFarlane and Walker were among the 143 players who attempted to qualify at Rye, N. Y. Whiffy Cox of Brooklyn, with a card of 138, turned in the best score for the New York district.

Ninety-seven men came through in twenty district qualifying rounds Monday, while fifty-three players were exempt from qualifying. This latter group includes the thirty-one golfers who finished in the first thirty and ties at Interlachen last year; the ten members of the British Ryder cup team; four Argentine players; two each from France and England; one each from Germany and the Philippine islands, and Art Straub of Bloomfield, N. J., and Tony Manero, Elmford, N. Y., two United States professionals who have been abroad.

Six Crews at Race Scene

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 9.—Six crews already are in training here for the annual Poughkeepsie regatta June 16, and were scheduled for hard workouts today. California was out on the choppy Hudson twice Monday. Wisconsin went through its first real test, rowing the four-mile course, while Navy and Pennsylvania also covered the regular distance. Columbia's undefeated crew and the Syracuse shell went through long and hard conditioning workouts.

In Feature

At Ft. Benjamin Harrison tonight the weekly outdoor fistic show will be topped by a double windup of ten-rounders.

In one of the feature scraps the aggressive southpaw Fillipino, Henry Falegano, fighting out of Des Moines, will take on Tracy Cox, the local glove thrower, who has grown into a junior lightweight.

Falegano in other appearances here pleased the customers and is no easy lead to defeat. He does considerable shifting and when he boxes "left-handed" his punch carries real dynamite. Falegano has been in the city several days and has displayed a dangerous body attack.

Koch, Baylor's 1930 all-America football guard, made his debut as a professional baseball player here Monday with Wichita Falls of the Texas League, appearing in the first game of a double-header as a pinch hitter and working behind the plate in the second.

In the nightcap he scored two runs, got one hit in four trips to the plate and ably supported pitcher Presnell, who turned in a two-hit 7-to-0 shutout win.

Harold Niemeyer, Seattle professional, qualified without unpacking his clubs. He will represent the Pacific northwest. Niemeyer was the only entry for the one place allotted his district and qualified automatically.

Leonard Schmutte, formerly of Indianapolis, representing the Lima (O.) club, scored 152 at Cincinnati and landed in the national starting field. Johnny Lehman, amateur, formerly of Gary and now of Chicago, registered 150 at Chicago Monday and will compete at Toledo. He is a former Purdue Big Ten champ. John H. Bird, St. John (Ind.) professional, also qualified at Chicago with 154.

The best score made in the qualifying tournament was turned in by Al Espinosa of Chicago who carded a 135. Eddie Loos, after finishing in a tie for second with drew, leaving five men tied for fifteenth place. It was decided to leave it up to the United States Golf Association to determine whether all five of the men should be eligible to compete in the open or whether they should play the tie off.

BIRDS TO KEEP MOORE

CHICAGO, June 9.—Al Moore, outfielder with the Columbus American Association club, will remain with the Red Birds at his own request, Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis announced Monday after a hearing on Moore's status.

IOWA SIGNS LOCKE

IOWA CITY, Ia., June 9.—Gordon Locke, former Hawkeye gridiron star, will serve as assistant next fall to Burr Ingwersen, head football coach. Since 1926, Locke has been director of athletics at Western Reserve, Cleveland.

CARDS SIGN COLLEGIAN

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., June 9.—Bill Fuzak, Illinois U. outfielder, has signed a contract with the St. Louis Cardinals. Fuzak hit .486 in ten Big Ten games with the Conference champs.

Rivals Set

Cox Tackles Falegano and Anderson Opposes Vet Elkhart.

Tracy Cox and Harold Anderson, popular local glove throwers, are ready for their ten-round assignments tonight at Fort Harrison punch bowl against well-known opponents.

Tracy is pitted against Henry Falegano, speedy southpaw mauler of Des Moines, Ia., for the third time. In two previous encounters last summer, Falegano left-handed his way to one triumph, and the second scuffle resulted in a divided press decision.

Anderson, the 18-year-old heavyweight, who recently took up residence here, tackles the veteran Jack (Chief) Elkhart of Chicago. Anderson has annexed five local bouts and dropped a close decision.

Four supporting bouts are on the card, starting at 8:30, and decisions will be given in all. Major James Spoon and Major L. A. Greene will serve as judges, while Jimmie Cooley and George Grammel will divide the officiating. Prelims:

Six Rounds—Dick Porter, Anderson vs. Dutch Belling, Morristown; welterweights.

Six Rounds—Herman Emmer, Cincinnati vs. Honeyboy Brown, Louisville; welterweights.

Four Rounds—Joe Moore, Indianapolis vs. Bobby Emster, Cincinnati; junior welterweights.

Four Rounds—Noble Wallace, Indianapolis vs. Bud Hurley, Cincinnati; welterweights.

Steve Savage, husky Chicago grappler, has been signed for the main go on Friday night's wrestling card at Riverside park. Savage will oppose a newcomer in Indianapolis when he takes on Frank Wolfe, heavyweight of New York.

Wolfe is touted as an aggressive performer, and claims triumphs over well-known wrestlers, including Allan Eustice and Reginald Siki. He scales 215 pounds, while Savage weighs 220. The Indiana Athletic Club is promoting the Friday show at the Riverside "rain or shine" arena, having moved from Cade tabernacle.

4 Yanks in French Open

By United Press

DEAUVILLE, France, June 9.—Four Americans and a Canadian are among the seventy-five entries in the French open golf championship which started here today. Horton Smith, Joe Kirkwood and Willie Hunter, United States pros; Johnnie De Paolo, Los Angeles amateur, and J. H. Forsman of Canada are entered in the 72-hole medal play competition.

Other well-known performers are Jose Jurado, Marco Churio, Hector Freccero and M. de Maria of Argentine; Arnaud Massey and Aubrey and Percy Boomer of France; Henry Cotton and Arthur Havers of England and Percy Allis of Berlin.

E. B. Whitcombe of England, defending champion, did not enter.

Senators Stay on A's Trail as Yankees and Cleveland Falter

BY LEO H. PETERSEN

United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 9.—Walter Johnson's Washington Senators stood out today as the only dangerous obstacle remaining between the Philadelphia Athletics and their third consecutive American League championship.

Although five games behind the pace-setting Athletics, Washington is in a position to climb to first place should Philadelphia falter. The Senators have been unable to gain on the Athletics, who are continuing their success against the western clubs of the league.

Thus far, the Athletics have shown no signs of a let-down, but Manager Johnson continues to drive his men in the hope that eventually Philadelphia will crack enough to enable his team to slip into first place.

Although the Indians have shown surprising strength during the last two weeks, Cleveland and New York can practically be counted out of the pennant scramble. The Yankees are nine games behind Philadelphia, while Cleveland, in fourth place, trails the leaders by ten full contests. The New York pitching staff is too erratic for the Yankees to become a serious contender while Cleveland appears to lack the all-round class of a championship team.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Walter Johnson's Washington Senators stood out today as the only dangerous obstacle remaining between the Philadelphia Athletics and their third consecutive American League championship.

Although five games behind the pace-setting Athletics, Washington is in a position to climb to first place should Philadelphia falter. The Senators have been unable to gain on the Athletics, who are continuing their success against the western clubs of the league.

Thus far, the Athletics have shown no signs of a let-down, but Manager Johnson continues to drive his men in the hope that eventually Philadelphia will crack enough to enable his team to slip into first place.

Although the Indians have shown surprising strength during the last two weeks, Cleveland and New York can practically be counted out of the pennant scramble. The Yankees are nine games behind Philadelphia, while Cleveland, in fourth place, trails the leaders by ten full contests. The New York pitching staff is too erratic for the Yankees to become a serious contender while Cleveland appears to lack the all-round class of a championship team.

The Indians advanced to within a game of third place Monday when they came from behind to defeat New York, 4 to 1.

After being held to one hit by Charles Ruffing in the first eight innings, Cleveland rallied in the ninth and scored four runs on a homer by Averill, triples by Porter and Mavris and a single by Hodapp. Wes Ferrell held the Yankees to three hits and would have scored a shut out except for his two-base wild throw in the fifth inning when he tried to pick Dickey off first.

Two home runs by Jimmy Fox and the seven-hit pitching of Lefty Grove featured the Philadelphia Athletics' 7-to-3 victory over Detroit. Fox's home run was his twelfth and thirteenth of the season. Earl Whitfield, Tiger hurler, allowed only eight hits, but Philadelphia bunched the blows in the fifth, sixth and eighth innings.

Washington went on a batting rampage and whipped the Chicago White Sox, 18 to 1. The Senators collected twenty hits off four Chicago hurlers while Burke limited the White Sox to eight safeties.

Walter Stewart pitched St. Louis to a 4-to-0 victory over Boston, enabling the Browns to climb out of the American League cellar. Stewart allowed seven scattered hits and did not permit a man to get beyond second base.

The New York Giants climbed into a tie with Chicago for second place in the National League by defeating the Cubs, 6 to 1. Ancient Clarence Mitchell limited the Cubs to five well scattered hits. No other National League contests were played.

CANCELA MEETS CHAMP

CHICAGO, June 9.—Tony Canzella of Florida and Maxie Rosenbloom, light heavyweight champion, will clash in a ten-round non-title bout here Thursday.
