

CARPENTERS AT NEW BALL PARK GO ON STRIKE

Sixteen Men Ordered to Walk Out by Agent for Union.

A strike, not of the diamond variety, pervaded the new baseball field of the Indianapolis Association club, Sixteenth and Harding streets, today and threatened to slow construction on the $350,000 grand stand and ball lot.

Sixteen carpenters, employed in erection of the grand stand, were ordered to walk-out Saturday by the business agent of the district carpenters' union in preference to accepting a $1-an-hour wage scale. Today the sixteen carpenters were ordered off the baseball grounds by the contractors, they say, when they refused to return to work at the scale proffered them.

The union scale for carpenters is $1.22 1/2 an hour on the basis of an eight-hour day.

Efforts are underway to mediate the differences of the carpenters and the contractors in the wage scale.

Norman Perry, president of the ball club, when asked regarding the strike, said: "I've offered a fair wage at a dollar an hour. If they don't want to take it then I'll have to get some one else. I want to get this ball park built. I'll hire anybody that's willing to work. We didn't order them off the job. They were ordered off it by their own walking delegate."

Representatives of the William P. Junglaus Company, contractors in charge of the erection of the new park, refused to comment on the walk-out. They refused to either affirm or deny that the carpenters had left the job because the wage scale had not been adhered to.

C. F. Manion, business agent of the Carpenters' union of this district, ordered the men off the job. "We'll not cut the scale for them," said one official of the Carpenters' union.

On the other hand, Perry is said to be adamant in his stand that $1 an hour is a fair wage. Perry is desirous of opening the ball park for Association games this September.

11 BREAK JAIL AT CANON CITY: RIOTING FEARED

Officials Make Desperate Effort to Reorganize Guard Force.

By United Press

CANON CITY, Colo., June 16.—

Fear of a repetition of the bloody riots of 1929 drove Deputy Warden Roy Best to unusual action today in an effort to overcome a feeling of unrest which has resulted in eleven convicts escaping from the Canon City prison within a week.

After the 1929 riots in which eight guards and five convicts were killed, the prison personnel was bolstered heavily. During recent months, however, the guard force was reduced gradually and Warden F. E. Crawford left on a vacation in the belief all was serene within the prison walls.

Last week, it was said, a rebellious spirit again became manifest. As the guard force was reduced further through sending out posers to hunt missing convicts, the prisoners became bolder and escape attempts became more numerous.

Deputy Warden Best said today he was reorganizing the entire guard force rapidly and "plugging all leaks and weak spots" in the hope of putting down the unrest before it became more serious.
