

INTRUDER TAKES TO HIS HEELS AS DOG LEAPS

Hot-Weather Prowler Is Routed From City Home.

A snarling police dog proved too much for a burglar Wednesday night.

Mrs. John Auman, 2025 Langley avenue, told police she was awakened by a man prowling in her bedroom.

Before she was able to call for police, the dog leaped at the intruder who jumped through the window and fled.

Theft of clothing and jewelry, valued at $200, from their auto as they parked on a downtown street Wednesday night, was reported today by Avedis D. Ischekian of Hawthorn, N. J.

Pearl Frost, 107 South Arlington avenue, suffering from the heat and humidity, slept Tuesday afternoon in a car parked in the 500 block, North Capitol avenue. When he awakened, he told police, $12 and papers valued at $25, were missing.

Elroy Langloz, 2603 North Harding street, said $48 had been stolen from a trunk in his kitchen. Mrs. Lula Bryant, 126 South Harris street reported a burglar cut a screen in her house and stole $13.

Theft of a watch from the Northwestern Jewelry Shop, 2719 Northwestern avenue, by a "customer" was reported to police today by Ernest Schwartz. Value of the watch was not estimated.

Cutting through the rear screen door, burglars ransacked the residence of Roy Irey, 2163 Adams street, who told police today $9 was stolen.

JULY FOURTH IS NOT 'SANE,' FIGURES SHOW

Fireworks Spree Branded Foolish by Society Against Blindness.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—"Contrary to popular impression, the observance of Independence day is not becoming sane and sane," declares Lewis H. Carr, director of the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, in reporting a survey of July 4 casualties made by the society.

"At least fifty persons lose the sight of one or both eyes and about 500 more suffer minor eye injuries during this foolish fireworks spree," he said the survey indicated.

Nine deaths and 649 injuries were reported in New York City alone as a result of last year's celebration.

Probably thousands more minor injuries happened, but were not reported, the city's health department commented. New York, in common with many other cities, prohibits the sale of dangerous fireworks. The accidents which occurred were attributed to explosives sold by fireworks bootleggers.

"The public safety requires more drastic regulation," Mr. Carr advised.

Six of the New York fatalities last year were boys between 12 and 18 who died of tetanus following wounds. Five of the boys died because of blank cartridge wounds.

This type of injury is particularly liable to result in tetanus because the deep wound with narrow opening provides nearly ideal conditions for the growth of the tetanus bacillus. This germ, the cause of tetanus, or lockjaw as it is sometimes called, can not live where there is oxygen, but thrives well deep down in a puncture wound such as blank cartridges produce.

Wise parents will be prepared for July 4 accidents, even if the sale of fireworks is not permitted in their communities. A first aid kit should be ready for use. Tetanus antitoxin, if given in time, will prevent death from tetanus, so in case of any doubt about fireworks injuries, a physician should be called to administer the antitoxin. If clothing catches fire it should be smothered with a rug.

Had Awful Bearing Down Pains

"Better after First Bottle"

"AFTER my little girl was born, I was in an awful condition. I had bearing down pains and had to lie down a great deal. I read what other women had to say about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"After taking the first bottle of your wonderful medicine I felt better right away. My pain is gone and the color is coming back. "Every day I am getting stronger. I will answer all letters asking about this medicine."—Mrs. Gerald A. Ritchey, 1200 Johnson Ave., Portage, Pennsylvania.
