

LAD IS KILLED AS HE DASHES IN CAR'S PATH

Nine-Year-Old Boy's Death
Pushes County Toll
to 86.

A skull fracture and internal injuries proved fatal at city hospital early today to a 9-year-old boy who dashed from behind one auto into the path of another in the 1400 block Mainway avenue late Monday. He was Harry Kelly, 213 North Oriental street, the eighty-sixth victim of traffic mishaps in Marion county this year.

Witnesses told police that Edward Endsley, 52, of 26 North Whitewater place, the driver, was blameless. They said the boy ran from the sidewalk behind a parked car so close in front of Endsley's auto that the latter could not avoid the accident.

Endsley was arrested on a technical charge of assault and battery, but was released on his own recognizance.

Three persons injured in collision of an auto with a gravel truck at Sixty-fourth street and Spring Mill road Monday afternoon were:

E. D. Layman, 48, of 619 North Pine street, truck driver; Miss Anna Marie Dungan, 18, of 7102 Central avenue, driver of the auto, and Riley Aikman, 19, of Harrisburg, Pa., passenger with her.

Cecil Reiger, 27, of 429 Congress avenue, was injured in a truck-and-car collision Monday at Twenty-fifth street and College avenue.

LIQUOR-LADEN CAR IS 'PARKED' IN DRIVEWAY

Unknown Driver Abandons Car,
Cargo Beside Irvington Home.

Some are born with silver spoons in their mouths, while others have cars containing liquors and clothing parked in their driveways.

That was the experience Paul Allen, Sixteenth street and Audubon road, reported to police Monday night.

Allen said he was sitting on the porch when a man drove a car into the yard, turned off the motor and, picking up a money satchel, disappeared in a nearby field.

Investigating, Allen found a quantity of wine and whiskey, a blanket, an overcoat and women's clothing in the car. The automobile carried a Michigan license.

Gets a Gift at Last

Captain Ed Helm

"Twenty-five years ago on the police force and never a gift except a couple of cigars." So moaned Captain Ed Helm on Monday when he passed the quarter-century mark as a defender of the people of Indianapolis.

But today it was different. Sergeant John Volderauer, who Helm "broke in" twenty-three years ago, presented him with this flowing, black tie of artistic dimensions that Ed wears under his chin.

"Well, I got something—at last," he mused.

FAMILY HEIRLOOM IS GIVEN MUSEUM

Dr. W. F. King Sends Court Ledger of 1821 to Ohio Society.

Dr. William F. King, director of the state health department, today dispatched a valuable family heirloom to Columbus, O., to be placed in the museum of the State Historical Society of Ohio.

It is a ledger and justice of peace record kept by Dr. King's great-grandfather at St. Clairsville, O., from 1815 to 1821.

The book has a calfskin cover with hair of the hide showing in places.

Robert Dent, a great-grandfather, kept a general store in St. Clairsville during 1815-1816 and was justice of peace for Meade township, Belmont county, during 1820-1821.

Among the customers to whom credit was extended at the store is Benjamin Lundy, pioneer abolitionist, who interested William Lloyd Garrison in the anti-slavery cause.

Dr. King's great grandfather on his father's side also traded at the store, the ledger shows.

Entries are made in a fine shaded script and are probably written with quill pen. Among the items charged are "Seegars at 6 1/2 cents a dozen and whisky at 25 cents a pint."

Request for the book came from Carrington Marshall, chief justice of the supreme court of Ohio, who is president of the historical society.

Dr. King sent the book to his sister, Mrs. Harry E. Myers, Columbus, who will present it personally to the society.

Nobody Loves A Fat Man

So goes the old saying—but no body believes it.

However—leading physicians claim that fat is unhealthy and should be consigned to such.

A noted doctor in Germany tells his fat patients to make this four weeks test—Not hard to do.

Eat no pie—pastries—ice cream—or sweet desserts—eat a good but moderate meal of lean meat, fish or chicken, along with a vegetable such as cabbage, cauliflower, spinach, eggplant or carrots—or a salad of tomatoes, lettuce or fruit—go easy on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar.

Take one-half teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—weigh yourself—every week.

You can get a jar of Kruschen Salts that lasts 4 weeks for 85 cents at Hook's Dependable Drug Stores or any drug store in the world with the distinct understanding that you must be joyfully satisfied or money back—the Kruschen way is the safe way to reduce.

Mr. Herman Rankin of Detroit, writes: "My first bottle of Kruschen Salts took all of the aches and swellings out of my joints—with my first bottle I went on a diet and lost 22 pounds and now feel like a new man."

Kruschen Salts are the six salts your system needs to aid the internal organs to function naturally and healthily and free the body from toxins and acids.

When you grow thin with Kruschen—you gain in energy and activity—you work better, sleep sound and feel the spirit of ambitious youth within you.—Advertisement.

COUNTY CHIEFS TO PROBE POOR FARM 'VERDICT'

Commissioners to Conduct
Own Quiz Into Jury's
Newest Report.

The Marion county commissioners are going to take a nice automobile ride this week.

It won't be one of the Capone brand. It's going to be one of those nice, restful auto rides that folk take Sunday evenings when they're tired of going places and doing things.

This ride will be to the county poor farm.

Of course the commissioners have been to the poor farm before, but they're going again because of "just another grand jury report," which and that housing conditions at the farm were deplorable, that inmates were being mistreated and suggesting that John Carter, superintendent, be given the "gate."

George Snider, commissioner, and author of the critique, "just another grand jury report," is engineering the sight-seeing tour.

"We expect to visit the farm some time this week and make our own investigation of the jury's report," Snider said.
