

DWIGHT DAVIS' POST WILL GO TO ROOSEVELT

Philippines Job to Be Given as Promotion to 'Young T. R.'

By Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance
WASHINGTON, July 6.—Theodore Roosevelt will be appointed to succeed Dwight F. Davis as governor-general of the Philippines when Davis' resignation is accepted later in the year.

Roosevelt's record as governor of Porto Rico, a post to which he was appointed two years ago, has persuaded President Hoover to promote him.

Roosevelt also has the backing of War Secretary Patrick Hurley, who has known him since childhood. Hurley is a boy of 16 enlisted in the Roosevelt's rough riders, but was rejected because of his youth.

Rumors of Roosevelt's prospective promotion have reached the Philippines and it is understood have created a favorable reaction.

Davis, who formerly was war secretary, may run for the Republican nomination for senator from Missouri to succeed Senator Harry B. Hawes, who is resigning. Davis, it is reported, also is ambitious to become ambassador to London in the event Ambassador Hawes should resign.

Governor Roosevelt has perfected himself in Spanish since his assignment to Porto Rico and his administration is said to have greatly impressed Mr. Hoover during his recent visit.

Roosevelt has since been the President's guest at his Rapidan fishing camp. He was in Washington a few days ago.

The governor-generalship of the Philippines is one of the highest paid offices in the American government, and carries a great prestige in the far east. The salary is $18,000 a year, plus an official residence and other emoluments.

Roosevelt has been discussed since Hoover's visit to Porto Rico as a possible candidate for Vice-President if Curtis decides to run for the senate.

CITY TO BUILD TRIO OF NEW FIRE STATIONS

Construction Is Assured Following Action of Councilmen.

Construction of three new fire stations in the city today was assured following action of city council Monday night in approving a $60,000 bond issue ordinance.

Another ordinance passed authorized appropriation of $61,500 to the works board for heat, light and water extensions and for printing.

Ten ordinances were introduced, one appropriating $25,000 to the street commissioner for repair and maintenance of unimproved streets and another providing a similar amount to the city engineer for improved streets.

Repealing of the "pest house" ordinance of years ago to permit treating of contagious diseases in all hospitals here is provided in a third ordinance. In the past contagious disease cases have been sent to city hospital, adding to the hospital's overcrowded conditions. Two ordinances provided for a $750,000 temporary loan for the city and another $175,000 for the health board.

Amendment of the traffic ordinance to permit granting of loading zones to business firms in sections not previously provided for is sought by the safety board in another ordinance submitted.

STALIN'S MOVE IS TEMPORARY, OBSERVERS SAY

Reverts to Capitalistic Ideas to Smooth Rough Road.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Soviet Russia's zeal to make the "five-year plan" a success is responsible for recent departures from pure Communist doctrines, in the view of American officials conversant with Russian affairs.

Word that Josef V. Stalin, Soviet leader, had advocated higher pay as an incentive to skilled workers were received with interest in government circles here. So were accounts of his move to utilize the old Russian intelligentsia in the Soviet's battle for economic progress.

However, these departures from doctrine Communism were regarded by informed officials here as merely temporary. One official, who follows Russian affairs constantly, said:

"Whenever the Soviet gets into industrial difficulties, it reverts to capitalist principles. Then, when industry picks up, it returns to pure Communism. It is a 'zig-zag' policy. Stalin's latest pronouncement seems to indicate a 'zag'."

Semi-capitalistic systems of wages are sponsored by the practical men of the Soviet state to meet difficulties, this official said, but such concessions to capitalism always are opposed by the doctrinaire Communists.
