

H. WEIR COOK RESIGNS STATE AVIATION POST

Douglas Harris Is Named
General Manager of Curtiss-Wright.

H. Weir Cook, general manager of the Curtiss-Wright Flying Service of Indiana, since its incorporation more than two years ago, has resigned his position, it was learned today.

Douglas Harris, who has been in charge of maintenance at the base for the past year and more recently in charge of flying instruction, has been named by Curtiss-Wright officials to succeed Cook.

Cook, while declining to comment on his future plans, explained he resigned preparatory to formation of a new company in which he will be associated with Eddie Rickenbacker, president of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway and an official of General Motors and Fokker Aircraft Company.

Cook has been flying since the World war, serving with distinction in the air service overseas and being credited with downing several enemy planes.

Harris has been flying since 1922, having been in charge of the Curtiss-Wright base at Providence, R. I., before coming to Indianapolis.

THEY TELL ME

BY BEN STERN

RETENTION of control of Marion county in the Twelfth district and that section of the county included in the new Eleventh district is the avowed intent of the regular Republican or "Coffin" organization here, it definitely was learned today.

Notice has been served on Senator James E. Watson by officials of the G. O. P. organization here that any attempts of insurgents in Irvington to seize the reins there will be viewed with the utmost disfavor.

Especially repugnant to the organization heads will be any aid given Bert Morgan, president of the Irvington Republican Club and joint campaign manager for Governor Leslie, in his efforts to become Eleventh district chairman, Watson was told.

To permit Morgan or any other figure not identified with the Coffin organization to become district chairman would be dealing a death blow to that group's control of the county machine the "regulars" well know.

Under the reorganization plan agreed to by Schuyler Haas, present Seventh district chairman, at a conference recently with Elza O. Rogers, state chairman, the precinct committeemen in that part of the county lying within the Eleventh will elect a representative and an assistant to sit in on the district reorganization meeting to name a chairman.

If Coffin succeeds in re-electing his precinct committeemen the pair will be his adherents.

Morgan, it is asserted, has been building up strength in Hancock and Madison counties, the two other parts of the Eleventh, with a view to being named the chairman.

His friends contend that inasmuch as Bert Vestal of Anderson expects to be renominated by the G. O. P. for congress, a Marion

LOVERS USE RULES IN ROMANTIC FILM

Warner Baxter and Dorothy Mackaill Have Several Wild
Seconds in 'Their Mad Moment' Booked at Apollo.

THE momentous decision made by Warner Baxter and Dorothy Mackaill in "Their Mad Moment," Fox romantic drama opening Saturday next at the Apollo, is one that should interest all lovers, it is believed.

Most every one subscribes to the theory marriage should be contracted because of love alone. Other more hardened souls sometimes argue that material wealth is more desirable than love. It is between these conflicting theories that the lovers in the picture are torn, and it is believed to make an absorbing, interesting document for entertainment.

Warner Baxter is the aggressor in the picture. He no sooner falls in love with Miss Mackaill than he tells her of his love, with all the wild abandon and ardent characteristic of the Basques.

Miss Mackaill is more reserved. She admits her love for the ecstatic youth, but believes that he is no more than an attractive but poor peasant.

In addition, her scheming step-mother has engineered a meeting for her with Sir Harry, wealthy Englishman, which has led to an unwelcome engagement.

Their problem is complicated when Dorothy accompanies Warner to his Basque farm in the hills, thinking the trip is to be but a romantic lark.

There she is amazed by being introduced to the sturdy peasants as the bride-to-be and future head of the Christa clan, of which Warner Baxter is the reigning male heir. Her reaction to this situation forms the picture's climax.

URGES HOOVER CUT TARIFF TO 'REPAY FAVOR'

Democrats Deserve Hand
for War Debts Aid,
Says Robinson.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—President Herbert Hoover was called on today to repay Democratic support for his debt suspension plan by advocating a reduction of the Hawley-Smoot tariff rates. Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas, minority leader in the senate, made the suggestion in a statement issued through the Democratic national committee.

Democrats, he said, "waived partisanship and thereby smoothed the way" for the debt plan.

"Now, has not the time arrived for the President equally to rise to an opportunity and back-pedal on his insistence on a tariff bill which, in the minds of most economists, largely is responsible not only for the depression in domestic business because of the slaughter it involved our export and import trade, but which foreign statesmen hold has had a great influence in the industrial and commercial distress of their own countries?"

Such action by the President, Robinson said, would "show that he is as courageous and as patriotic and as concerned with the welfare of the average American as his political adversaries."

She Couldn't EAT or SLEEP

"I feel like a new Woman"

"ABOUT six months ago I was a run-down and a friend told me about your medicine. 'I got a bottle and started taking it. I was so weak and nervous, my appetite wasn't good at all, I couldn't eat and of course I lost my strength. In fact I have never been healthy. 'After I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my nerves were lots better. I can sleep well and I have a real good appetite. I feel like a new woman.' —Effie Oliver, Antler, Okla.
