

Miss Krieg Will Wed at Five Points

Miss Gertrude Krieg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August H. Krieg, 2523 Southeastern avenue, and Carl Folkening, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Folkening, Beech Grove, will be married at 8:30 Sunday night in a ceremony to be performed at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church at Five Points, with the Rev. J. D. Matthiessen of Trinity Lutheran church officiating.

Professor Paul Elbert will be organist, and Miss Dora Toepfer, Peru, will sing "At Dawn" and "Calm Is the Night."

Mrs. Ernest Krieg, matron of honor, will wear a frock of green organdy and carry yellow roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Hilda Folkening and Miss Esther Trautman, will wear gowns of blue and yellow flowered organdy, respectively, and will carry arm bouquets of pink roses.

Edwin Rode Best Man

Every Rohlberg, the bride's niece, who will be flower girl, will wear an empire frock of orchid organdy, with a turquoise blue ribbon sash and a turquoise blue ribbon around her hair.

Edwin H. Rode will be best man, and Norval Folkening and Ernest Krieg, ushers.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of white bridal satin of modified princess style, with yoke and fitted cuffs of Venise lace. A double fold at the hips rises to give a high waisted effect at the back. The skirt sweeps into a short train. Her veil of Venise pattern lace is made with a coronet cap which will be caught with orange blossoms. She will carry bride's roses.

Reception at Home

A reception at the home for 125 guests will follow the ceremony. Among those from out of town will be:

John Krieg and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Trautman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trautman, Mr. and Mrs. John Krieg, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Durkes and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Zipperman and Louis Berkner, Peru, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gunseth and Miss Emma Guhl, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. William Rohlberg, Lansing, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Guhl and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Gunseth, Peru; Mr. and Mrs. George Trautman and Mrs. and Mrs. Roy Sutherland, Macomb, Ill.

Mrs. Krieg will receive in a blue and white flowered chiffon, and Mrs. Folkening will wear blue printed chiffon. Both will have corsages of pink roses.

The bride and bridegroom will leave for a short motor trip, the bride traveling in a yellow satin sport dress with black and white accessories. After Aug. 10 they will be at home at 1523 Southeastern avenue.

SOCIETY LEADERS

MARRIED IN PARIS

By United Press

PARIS, Aug. 1.—Mrs. Mary Lois Kilpatrick Perry of St. Louis, was married Thursday to Russell Luce McIntosh of Boston in a simple ceremony attended only by a few friends.

The religious ceremony took place at Mrs. Perry's apartment at 4 Avenue Cameo. The bride wore an afternoon dress and carried a bouquet of orchids. They left for a honeymoon at Biarritz.

The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kilpatrick, of St. Louis, and a granddaughter of John Liggett, founder of the Liggett Drug Stores chain.

McIntosh is a member of the Metropolitan club and other prominent social organizations in New York. During the World war he served as a captain on the American general staff. He formerly was an engineer, but has retired.

The couple plans to live in New York, returning to America in September.

Present Day Club Prepares Calendar for Coming Season

Each week brings further proof that women's clubs, although not active during the summer months, nevertheless are busy preparing programs for the coming season.

The latest year book received is that of the Present Day Club of Indianapolis, in existence since 1907. It numbers among its honorary members, Mrs. Susan B. Yeaton, Mrs. W. D. Keenan, alternate, and Mrs. D. H. Griffin to the Irvington Union of Clubs, with O. M. Enyart as alternate.

Mrs. Keenan, Mrs. W. G. Hennes and Mrs. G. C. Grimes make up the program committee. Mrs. G. C. Robert is press chairman.

The club was organized in 1915, and has for its purpose in 1931-32, the study of United States through literature. The year is divided into the following sections: New England, New York, Atlantic Coast states, Old South, Modern South, Great Lakes and Rivers, and the West and Middle West.

The program, which will include the study of Russia during the year, has been arranged by the following committees:

Executive, O. M. Pittington, chairman; Mrs. A. R. Rupel and Eugene Foley, social; Mrs. W. R. Foltz, first vice-president; Parke Coopers, second vice-president; F. R. Gorman, secretary; Ira M.
