

POLICE COSTING HOOSIERS LESS THAN YEAR AGO

State Department Savings
$8,000 Reported by Garrott.

For the first ten months of the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, 1931, Indiana state police have operated on $8,000 less expenditures than for the corresponding period in 1930, despite an increased personnel, according to a tabulation made public from the office of Chief Grover C. Garrott.

While there was a deficit of $2,934.52 in the motor theft fund, the department had sufficient funds in the new motor police fund to leave a real balance of $32,801.74, the report showed.

Under the former administration the deficit for the period was $14,767.75.

STATEMENT HITS FIFIELD

"In other words the fund was five times as heavily overdrawn on the same date one year ago under then Secretary of State Otto G. Fifield as it is now under Secretary of State Frank May Jr." Captain Howard Smith, who compiled the figures, pointed out.

"Yet we have increased the personnel of the department from the former total of forty-four to sixty-one and are giving more mileage patrol service than at any time in the department's history."

Personnel increase was instituted July 1.

Receipts for the motor theft fund to July 31, was $143,883.25 and disbursements $151,817.77, leaving the $2,934.52 deficit.

REVENUES DECLINE

For the same period in 1930 the receipts were $162,420.10 and disbursements $177,187.75, leaving the $14,767.75 deficit.

In 1929 receipts were $194,561.50 and disbursements $173,357.41, leaving a balance in the motor theft fund at that time of $21,203.54.

The special fund for the increased personnel was made possible by the 1931 legislature. Expenditures of $18,022,026 had been made from the new fund by July 31.

And this fund receipts dropped 1.37 per cent between 1929 and 1930 and 8.45 per cent from 1930 to 1931, making a total two-year drop of 20 per cent.

Action in Probate Court Paves Way

The Indiana Trust Company is appointed trustee for the holders of the $4,000,000 issues of the Indiana Savings and Trust Company is trustee for the $285,000 of the Broad Ripple Traktion 5 per cent bonds.

MacDonald Hurries to London to Confer With Aids.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—Premier J. Ramsay MacDonald hurried back from Scotland today to confer with cabinet leaders on the serious situation caused by the labor government economy committee's report.

Disension was reported in the cabinet over the committee's recent survey, demanding the government make drastic reductions in expenditures. Certain members of the administration were said to feel that the government can not carry out the provisions of the report consistently and at the same time maintain campaign promises to increase social services. Arthur Henderson, usually close to the premier, was said to be the chief dissenter, opposing the economies suggested.
