

MARKED MONEY NABS KIDNAPERS OF RICH BROKER

Rosenthal's Abductors Had Planned to Kill Their Chief, Says Cops.

By United Press
NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The sudden, unexplained affluence of two hoodlums, coupled with the old police trick of copying the serial numbers of ransom money, was responsible for the capture today of the gang which kidnaped Charles M. Rosenthal, millionaire broker.

Four men and one woman were under arrest as details of the spectacular roundup were made known. Capture of the gang, police said, probably saved the life of the ring leader, for he had double-crossed his followers in distributing the ransom money and was to be "put on the spot."

Those arrested were: Clarence (Nick) Green, 29, Negro, arrested at Atlantic City. He is the ringleader of the gang, according to police, and proprietor of the Hotel Vendig, New York.

Bettine Green, 29, colored, arrested with Green at Atlantic City where the two were living in an apartment.

Theodore Adinolfi, alias Harry King, 26, of New York.

Albert Sileo, alias John Rocco, arrested with Adinolfi in a Newark apartment where they were living in suddenly acquired luxury.

Police said they seized a notebook containing names of future kid-

Odd Plane Seeks Record

In this queer low-winged monoplane, built especially for the Thompson trophy competition at the national air races at Cleveland, O., on Labor day, Pilot Lowell Bayles of Springfield, Mass., expects to fly nearly 300 miles an hour to beat the present speed record for land planes, which is 277.6 miles an hour. Bayles is shown at the right.

HUNT MYSTERY VICTIM IN ROAD STABBING CASE

Woman's Cry, Abandoned
Auto Only Clues of Deputy Sheriffs.

"He's been stabbed."

This cry that pierced the quiet late Monday night at Eightieth street and state Road 31 and an abandoned automobile, today were the only clues deputy sheriffs had in their search for a man they believed may be dying of wounds.

To add to the mystery of the case, the alleged stabbing victim was taken away in another car and the abandoned auto mysteriously was reported missing later.

Ernest Mueller, 1814 Ruckle street, and Robert Wood, 1864 Central avenue, en route to their homes, stopped their car after a woman, standing in the road, had yelled, waved and hurled a brick at their car.

They told deputy sheriffs Ed Kasenbrook and Gilbert Thomas that they found two men in the car and another woman.

One of the women screamed for help and they called deputies. When they returned they found another car was parked along the road and the supposedly wounded man had been placed in it. Before deputies arrived, though, the quartet had driven away in the second car.

The abandoned auto was owned by Ralph Hills, 1435 English avenue, but deputies were told he was out of the city.

An hour after finding of the car on State road 31 police received a call that Hills' car had been stolen from Ralston avenue and Fifty-ninth street.

Deputies today were searching doctors' offices and hospitals to find the "stabbed" man. Hills has not been found, they said.

Injuries Cause Death

By United Press
MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 1.—Injuries suffered by J. Omar Mitchell, 57, when struck by an automobile, caused his death here.

FIVE ARRESTED CHARGED WITH CAR STRIPPING

Four Others Are Sought by Police; Shot Routs
Garage Prowler.

Five men are under arrest and four others are sought today in connection with a series of attempts to strip automobiles and the theft of one car.

Barking of a dog awakened Alfred Lyon, 402 Sande street, this morning. He fired one shot at a man who was near his garage, and later found the thief had taken a tire and rim from his car.

Watching an auto that was alleged to have been abandoned by the thief, police later arrested Raymond Stephenson, 18; Jewell Lawrence, 18, and John New, 29, all of 934 South Delaware street.

Stephenson is said to have been identified as the thief by Lyon.

Gasoline syphoning equipment was found, police said. The trio is held under vagrancy charges with high bonds.

A 15-year-old youth and his uncle, Claude Lifford, 858 Buchanan street, were charged with vagrancy and grand larceny today after they are alleged to have stolen an auto owned by Sam G. Joseph, Denison hotel, at Market and Delaware streets Monday afternoon.

Police said the boy and his uncle were nabbed after they had attempted to syphon gas out of an automobile parked at Noble and North streets for use in the alleged stolen auto.

Four men who had stripped tires off his car in the garage, escaped capture today when Tony Catto, 504 South Alabama street, surprised them as they prepared to haul away their loot.

They abandoned an auto which had been stolen in Anderson, Ind.
