

Club to Fete Mrs. Dungan at Luncheon

Women's Research Club has scheduled its president's day celebration for Sept. 21. A reception will be held in honor of Mrs. James M. Dungan at the home of Mrs. R. O. McAlexander, 2101 North Delaware street, with members of the program and social committees assisting the hostess.

The club, numbering among its members many prominent women, was organized Nov. 1, 1899, and now is affiliated with the local council of women Indiana Federation of clubs and general federation in which it holds universal membership.

Literary in scope, a feature of the year's program will be the appearance of Ethel M. Mills of Chicago, whose subject will be "England from Unfrequented Byways and Lanes," as guest day speaker Nov. 16. Officers of the club are: Mrs. Dungan, president; Mesdames W. C. Berchard, first vice-president; Thomas Shimer, second vice-president; William J. Randall, third vice-president; Charles Compton, recording secretary; O. W. Pifer, corresponding secretary; J. L. Wallace, treasurer, and C. E. Cottinham, parliamentarian.

Delegates include: Mesdames H. W. Kraus, delegate; J. P. Smith, alternate, and C. J. Buchanan, president's alternate. Indiana federation: D. S. Menasco, federation secretary and delegate to seventh district; Richard Cooper, alternate; M. F. Ault, delegate; and Oren Smith, alternate, local council. Committees are:

Mesdames McAlexander, chairman; Edmund D. Clark, L. H. Millikan, James Preston Smith and Alvin T. Coate, program; John Kolmer, chairman; Thomas P. Woodson, Charles E. ## SLIDE-TRAPPED FATHER LOSES LIFE IN WELL

Eight Hours Frantic Digging Fails by 15 Minutes, Doctors Say.

By United Press

COLUMBIA, Pa., Sept. 2.—Eight hours frantic digging failed by fifteen minutes today, physicians estimated, to save the life of William Bowers, 32, trapped by a fall of earth in a thirty-five-foot well.

Bowers had finished his task of connecting a new pump in the well. He started for the surface. Earth and rocks poured down on him. He was caught in a standing position, above the water. His head was free within a circle of rock.

Highway workers on a near-by project went to his aid. Two at a time, they worked in the well, loosening the rock and lifting it to the surface. They labored in two-hour relays, spurred by Bowers' pleadings.

On the surface his father, his wife, and three children stood helplessly. Automobile headlights illuminated the scene. Thousands had gathered to watch the rescue work. An ambulance stood waiting.

Bowers became weaker. Within six hours an arm was released.

"My God, hurry! I'm dying," he cried. Then he lapsed into unconsciousness.

Within eight hours, he was free to his hips. A doctor was lowered into

AUTO DEALERS IN LAST STRETCH OF CAMPAIGN

Used Car Sales Drive Is Sponsored by Oldsmobile Factory.

Indianapolis Oldsmobile dealers today swung into the final stretch of their two weeks' sales campaign of used automobiles.

The campaign, sponsored by the Oldsmobile factory, is being staged to aid dealers in decreasing their floor stock of used cars, and also will serve as a barometer of early fall conditions in the Indianapolis auto market.

W. F. Moyer, zone manager of the Oldsmobile, stated today that dealers are optimistic over the results of the campaign up to date.

Dealers participating in the campaign are:

Roy Hickman, operator of used car division at the Lathrop-Moyer Company; Newby Motor Company; Frank S. Feaser, and the Bradford Auto Company.
