

MAD SCRAMBLE OF DARBY BOYS IS ON FOR '500'

And, Meantime, Sheriff Buck Piles Up 14,021 Votes in Race.

SKULL STANDINGS
 Sheriff Charles (Buck) Sumner... 14,021
 Jesse McClure... 4,065
 Frank C. Riley... 631
 Hossier Fife... 445
 Ira P. Haymaker... 349
 Capt. "Louie" Johnson... 245
 Al Farb... 215
 Tracy Cox... 185
 Hugh McGowan... 179
 Added starters with 100 votes or more: Mayor Reginald H. Sullivan, W. L. Shickett, George L. Winkler, L. E. Slack, Alf Houston, George M. Feland, Judge Frank P. Baker, Police Chief Mike Morrissey.

F-I-V-E H-U-N-D-R-E-D!
 Who wouldn't like to have $500? Well, that's not the worry of the Brown Derby candidates but F-I-V-E H-U-N-D-R-E-D votes is the worry of those candidates lagging in the race for the crown of crowns.

Friday morning all derby starters with less than 500 votes will get what this Thanksgiving's turkey is going to get—the ax.

With the clipping off of additional starters the ballots will be centered on the leaders for the bid which will be given the city's most distinguished citizen at 8 p. m. on Sept. 11 at celebration of "Indianapolis day" at the Indiana state fair.

McClure Is the Threat

Sheriff Charles (Buck) Sumner and his "boys" are trying to make a runaway race of this year's scramble for the "kelly."

Sheriff "Buck" had a 10,000 lead today, but a tornado of rumors came to Jo-Jo, the Dog-Faced Judge, that the McClureites were jockeying for a rail position and were figuring on closing in on the front-running "Buck."

"Wait until we look him in the eye and then watch them quit," threatened one partisan McClure man.

And there's another event for Friday's "fish-dinner" and that is the photos of the craniums of the leaders in the race.

Now, Let's Go!

Each photo will tell your favorite's headsize. You may look him over for moles, cysts, and wigs. Toupee wearers, if discovered, will be scratched from the race.

Five days are left to toss ballots at Jo-Jo. The winner will be announced in next Thursday's edition of The Times. He will be crowned the following day.

Follow the crowd! Vote for your derby entry. Today's ballots are good until Saturday at 5 p. m. Let's go!

DISCUSS PLANS FOR DRY RALLY AT CADLE

Arrangements for Mass Meetings Discussed by Committee Heads.

Arrangements for mass meetings on the prohibition problem to be held at Cadle tabernacle Sept. 9, 10 and 11 were discussed at a meeting of the committee heads at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday.

Meetings sponsored by the Allied Forces for Prohibition are arranged on a nation-wide scale. Seven speakers will speak here during the three days. Clarence O. Hamilton of Boston, publications manager of the International Society of Christian Endeavor, declared:

"Ten Nights in a Barroom" will be presented in the Civic theater by the David Milligan players, Sept. 21 to 26, it was announced.

Members of the Marion County Christian Endeavor Union, Epworth Leagues and Baptist Young People's Unions of the county attended the meeting Wednesday.

COPS SIFT DIVES FOR KNIFE KILLER SUSPECT

Search for Slayer of City Man Leads Police Into Underworld.

Search for the knife slayer of Thomas Connor, 25, today led police into west side underworld haunts, where they learned that the alleged killer has been seen several times since the murder Tuesday night.

Connor died at the city hospital a few hours after he had been stabbed in the abdomen in a drunken brawl in an alley near West and Abbott streets.

Four persons, including a woman, who participated in the drinking bout have been questioned. Police and detectives claim they know the man who stabbed Connor.

WEED DRIVE IS ENDED

814 Requests Compiled Within Two Months by City.

Close of the annual weed-cutting campaign of the city street department was announced today by Street Commissioner Wilbur Winship.

Since start of the weed-cutting campaign two months ago the department has compiled with 814 requests for weed cutting. Approximately thirty men were engaged in the work.

In the future weed complaints will be referred to the health board, which has power to order weeds cut where it can be shown that the weeds are a menace to health.

TWO STORES LEASED

Additional Deals by G. R. Kinney Company Announced in City.

Announcement of the lease of additional space for two downtown store stores by the G. R. Kinney Company, Inc. of New York, was made today by W. A. Brennan, Inc. realtors. The new locations are 139 West Washington street, and at 104 North Illinois street. The locations may be ready for opening by Sept. 12.

Rum Chasers to Regatta

SANDUSKY, O., Sept. 3.—Fourteen rum chasers attached to the Marblehead coast fleet, left this morning for Detroit to patrol the Belle Isle locality during the boat races there this week-end.

The Co-Eds Start to Give a Darn

Mothballs are vanishing from frocks of Butler university "co-eds."

Hosiery is being given a once-over.

Sorority houses are getting a scrubbing.

And all this because the university's campus life begins with the opening of school, Sept. 14.

Upper Left—"A darn in time may save mine," remarks Miss Mary Frances Cray, 628 Oakland avenue, of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority at Butler, as she prepares for opening day.

Upper Right—Miss Helen Langston, of Kappa Alpha Theta, is giving her best dance frock a "going-over."

Lower Right—But the life of a sorority pledge isn't such a much these pre-school days as Miss Helen Carson, of Pi Beta Phi's pledge list, finds out as she wields a mop cleaning up the sorority house in readiness for the influx of her fraternal sisters.

ACTRESS TO BE GUEST OF CITY

German Star Will Mark Population Center.

A temporary marker will be placed on the spot near Linton, Ind., established as the United States population center, by Miss Lil Dagover, German actress, who is to arrive at the municipal airport at 5:15 this afternoon.

Miss Dagover, who is in the United States to fulfill a movie contract in Hollywood, will be met at the airport by Mayor Reginald H. Sullivan and a civic reception committee.

After her arrival, Miss Dagover will be received by Governor Harry G. Leslie at his office. Tonight she will meet local newspaper dramatic critics at a dinner in the Lincoln, later visiting the Circle and Indiana theaters.

Friday she is to inspect the Marmon automobile plant, go to Linton and return in time to be the honored guest at a dinner at the Columbia Club by the Board of Photo-play Indorsees.

The committee named to meet Miss Dagover at the airport is as follows: Mayor Sullivan, Louis J. Borinstein, president of the Chamber of Commerce; C. Otto Janus, representing the Athenaeum; Hale MacKeen of the Civic theater, and Cullen E. Espey, district manager of Skouras-Publik theaters in Indianapolis.

MODEL PLANES TO FLY AT DEDICATION

Contest Is Announced by Airport Chief for Ceremony.

A flying commercial model airplane contest for boy designers will be held in connection with dedication of the Municipal airport, Sept. 25, 26 and 27, it was announced today by Mayor Charles E. Cox Jr., airport superintendent.

Herschel S. Knight will be contest manager. The contest will be conducted at the port from 9 to 11:30 a. m., Sept. 26, entries being accepted until Sept. 24. Contest rules are:

Open to model builders less than 21 years old the day of the contest.

Open to visiting model builders from anywhere in the United States.

Models must "conform to good engineering standards"—they must have built-up fuselages and must resemble real airplanes; they must have main supporting surfaces (wings) of at least 125 square inches; wings must be double surfaced; the fuselages must be completely covered, except for an opening of not more than two square inches to permit of access to the motor; they may drop no parts in flight; they must be built entirely by their owners, except for propeller shafts; they must derive their power from rubber motors; they must have a maximum fuselage cross section at least in square inches to one-tenth of the fuselage length squared. A contestant may have three models for use in the contest; models must have wheels of at least one and one-half inches in diameter. Motor sticks must not extend more than one inch beyond fuselage, and all covering material must be colored.

Excursion Rates for Labor Day and the Week-End Round-Trip Fares

To CINCINNATI $3
 To MADISON $3

To Lawrenceburg, Versailles or Osgood $2.75

To Aurora $2.50

Tickets good on all cars and motor coaches going and returning, Sunday, Monday or Tuesday.

Leave Traction Terminal, Illinois and Market, for Cincinnati: 7:00, 9:00 a. m.; 1:00, 4:15 p. m.

For Madison: 7:00 a. m.; 1:00, 5:15 p. m.

For Details Phone Riley 4501

Indianapolis & Southeastern Lines

De Luxe Parlor Car and Motor Coach Service.

Furniture—Rugs Draperies Sander & Recker Furniture Co. MERIDIAN AT MARYLAND

666 LIQUID OR TABLETS

Relieves a Headache or Neuralgia in 30 minutes, checks a Cold the first day, and checks Malaria in three days.

666 Salve for Baby's Cold.

BANKERS HUNT POSSIBLE 'PAL' OF EMBEZZLER

'Model Husband' Insists He Had No Aids in His $1,500,000 Thefts.

By United Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—Banking and insurance company officials hunted today through voluminous records for evidence that some one helped Walter E. Wolf embezzle more than $1,500,000 from the Continental-Illinois Bank and Trust Company.

"I had no accomplices," declared the 42-year-old model husband and neighbor, but officials found it almost impossible to believe that for ten years the $4,000-a-year bank employee could work entirely alone and escape detection as he squandered fortunes in the stock markets.

Representatives of Lloyd's in London said they were convinced, however, that Wolf was not aided by any of the fifty men who worked under him in the coupon department of the fourth largest bank in America.

James R. Leavell and Abner J. Stilwell, president and vice-president, respectively, of the $1,123,000,000 institution, also said they were convinced no other employee of the bank had been involved in the record-smashing peculations, but considered it probable some one outside the bank had aided Wolf.

Wolf himself blamed fate and stock brokers for his troubles, but most of all, he blames himself.

"If I only could live the last ten years over again," he said.

It was said that not more than $500 of all the thousands Wolf embezzled was turned to his own use. The rest he lost in the markets. The bank put a large corps of men to work searching files of the last ten years to determine just how many securities had been taken and to find evidence, if possible, that some one had aided Wolf.

Bank officials said Wolf admitted he was encouraged by brokers to plunge deeply into the markets in desperate efforts to win back his losses. He stole securities, it was charged, and put them up as margin.

After Miss Booth denied in superior court that she carried on a love affair with Renaldo while they were in Africa, a decision in her favor was handed down in the $50,000 damage suit brought against her by Mrs. Suzette Renaldo, wife of the actor.

Miss Booth, the only witness called, testified that her acquaintance with Renaldo was casual and that she did not know he was married and the father of a small son until she returned from Africa. She denied every charge of misconduct made by the actor's wife.

Mrs. Renaldo was said to be in New York, where she recently brought charges of child abandonment against Renaldo.

After filing suit for damage here, Mrs. Renaldo fled the state with her son when Renaldo swore out an insanity complaint against her.

Similar motions have been presented to past conventions, but in every case have been tabled.

This summer, Ohio Legion officials sidestepped such a motion, saying:

"The Legion drinks wet, thinks wet, and is wet. Get in any fight as individuals, but keep the Legion out of it."

In the Illinois state convention, an anti-prohibition motion was tabled after a hot debate.

The resolution sponsored by the Washington post points out that the Legion stands for the Constitution, and that the presence of an unpopular law has endangered "the perpetuation of law observance, of justice, temperance, freedom and the security of the homes."

It demands that the Eighteenth amendment be repealed "in the interests of real temperance and respect for law."

Victory post No. 4 of Washington, D. C., in a letter to Floyd L. Young, Indiana commander, has announced that it intends to support at the national gathering a resolution demanding that the amendment be repealed.

Similar motions have been presented to past conventions, but in every case have been tabled.

This summer, Ohio Legion officials sidestepped such a motion, saying:

"The Legion drinks wet, thinks wet, and is wet. Get in any fight as individuals, but keep the Legion out of it."

In the Illinois state convention, an anti-prohibition motion was tabled after a hot debate.

The resolution sponsored by the Washington post points out that the Legion stands for the Constitution, and that the presence of an unpopular law has endangered "the perpetuation of law observance, of justice, temperance, freedom and the security of the homes."

It demands that the Eighteenth amendment be repealed "in the interests of real temperance and respect for law."

Victory post No. 4 of Washington, D. C., in a letter to Floyd L. Young, Indiana commander, has announced that it intends to support at the national gathering a resolution demanding that the amendment be repealed.

Similar motions have been presented to past conventions, but in every case have been tabled.

This summer, Ohio Legion officials sidestepped such a motion, saying:

"The Legion drinks wet, thinks wet, and is wet. Get in any fight as individuals, but keep the Legion out of it."

In the Illinois state convention, an anti-prohibition motion was tabled after a hot debate.

The resolution sponsored by the Washington post points out that the Legion stands for the Constitution, and that the presence of an unpopular law has endangered "the perpetuation of law observance, of justice, temperance, freedom and the security of the homes."

It demands that the Eighteenth amendment be repealed "in the interests of real temperance and respect for law."

Victory post No. 4 of Washington, D. C., in a letter to Floyd L. Young, Indiana commander, has announced that it intends to support at the national gathering a resolution demanding that the amendment be repealed.

Similar motions have been presented to past conventions, but in every case have been tabled.

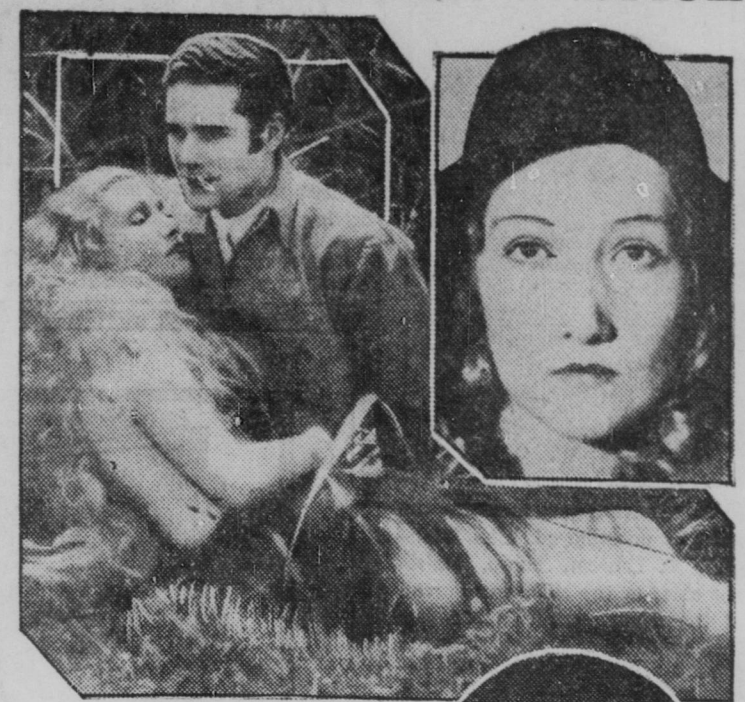

This summer, Ohio Legion officials sidestepped such a motion, saying:

"The Legion drinks wet, thinks wet, and is wet. Get in any fight as individuals, but keep the Legion out of it."

In the Illinois state convention, an anti-prohibition motion was tabled after a hot debate.

The resolution sponsored by the Washington post points out that the Legion stands for the Constitution, and that the presence of an unpopular law has endangered "the perpetuation of law observance, of justice, temperance, freedom and the security of the homes."

ACQUIT ACTRESS IN LOVE THEFT CASE

'Trader Horn's' Heroine Is Cleared in $50,000 Alienation Suit.

By United Press

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 3.—Edwina Booth, heroine of the motion picture "Trader Horn," stood absolved today of the charge that she alienated the affections of Duncan Renaldo, young actor, during the filming of the picture in the African wilds.

After Miss Booth denied in superior court that she carried on a love affair with Renaldo while they were in Africa, a decision in her favor was handed down in the $50,000 damage suit brought against her by Mrs. Suzette Renaldo, wife of the actor.

Miss Booth, the only witness called, testified that her acquaintance with Renaldo was casual and that she did not know he was married and the father of a small son until she returned from Africa. She denied every charge of misconduct made by the actor's wife.

Mrs. Renaldo was said to be in New York, where she recently brought charges of child abandonment against Renaldo.

After filing suit for damage here, Mrs. Renaldo fled the state with her son when Renaldo swore out an insanity complaint against her.

Similar motions have been presented to past conventions, but in every case have been tabled.

This summer, Ohio Legion officials sidestepped such a motion, saying:

"The Legion drinks wet, thinks wet, and is wet. Get in any fight as individuals, but keep the Legion out of it."

In the Illinois state convention, an anti-prohibition motion was tabled after a hot debate.

The resolution sponsored by the Washington post points out that the Legion stands for the Constitution, and that the presence of an unpopular law has endangered "the perpetuation of law observance, of justice, temperance, freedom and the security of the homes."

It demands that the Eighteenth amendment be repealed "in the interests of real temperance and respect for law."

Victory post No. 4 of Washington, D. C., in a letter to Floyd L. Young, Indiana commander, has announced that it intends to support at the national gathering a resolution demanding that the amendment be repealed.

Similar motions have been presented to past conventions, but in every case have been tabled.

This summer, Ohio Legion officials sidestepped such a motion, saying:

"The Legion drinks wet, thinks wet, and is wet. Get in any fight as individuals, but keep the Legion out of it."

In the Illinois state convention, an anti-prohibition motion was tabled after a hot debate.

The resolution sponsored by the Washington post points out that the Legion stands for the Constitution, and that the presence of an unpopular law has endangered "the perpetuation of law observance, of justice, temperance, freedom and the security of the homes."

It demands that the Eighteenth amendment be repealed "in the interests of real temperance and respect for law."

Victory post No. 4 of Washington, D. C., in a letter to Floyd L. Young, Indiana commander, has announced that it intends to support at the national gathering a resolution demanding that the amendment be repealed.

Similar motions have been presented to past conventions, but in every case have been tabled.

This summer, Ohio Legion officials sidestepped such a motion, saying:

"The Legion drinks wet, thinks wet, and is wet. Get in any fight as individuals, but keep the Legion out of it."

In the Illinois state convention, an anti-prohibition motion was tabled after a hot debate.

The resolution sponsored by the Washington post points out that the Legion stands for the Constitution, and that the presence of an unpopular law has endangered "the perpetuation of law observance, of justice, temperance, freedom and the security of the homes."

It demands that the Eighteenth amendment be repealed "in the interests of real temperance and respect for law."

Victory post No. 4 of Washington, D. C., in a letter to Floyd L. Young, Indiana commander, has announced that it intends to support at the national gathering a resolution demanding that the amendment be repealed.

Similar motions have been presented to past conventions, but in every case have been tabled.

This summer, Ohio Legion officials sidestepped such a motion, saying:

"The Legion drinks wet, thinks wet, and is wet. Get in any fight as individuals, but keep the Legion out of it."

In the Illinois state convention, an anti-prohibition motion was tabled after a hot debate.

The resolution sponsored by the Washington post points out that the Legion stands for the Constitution, and that the presence of an unpopular law has endangered "the perpetuation of law observance, of justice, temperance, freedom and the security of the homes."

It demands that the Eighteenth amendment be repealed "in the interests of real temperance and respect for law."

Victory post No. 4 of Washington, D. C., in a letter to Floyd L. Young, Indiana commander, has announced that it intends to support at the national gathering a resolution demanding that the amendment be repealed.

Similar motions have been presented to past conventions, but in every case have been tabled.

This summer, Ohio Legion officials sidestepped such a motion, saying:

Upper Left—Duncan Renaldo and Edwina Booth, in a scene filmed in Africa.

Upper Right—Miss Booth.

Below—Mrs. Renaldo.

New York, where she recently brought charges of child abandonment against Renaldo.

After filing suit for damage here, Mrs. Renaldo fled the state with her son when Renaldo swore out an insanity complaint against her.

Similar motions have been presented to past conventions, but in every case have been tabled.

This summer, Ohio Legion officials sidestepped such a motion, saying:

"The Legion drinks wet, thinks wet, and is wet. Get in any fight as individuals, but keep the Legion out of it."

In the Illinois state convention, an anti-prohibition motion was tabled after a hot debate.

The resolution sponsored by the Washington post points out that the Legion stands for the Constitution, and that the presence of an unpopular law has endangered "the perpetuation of law observance, of justice, temperance, freedom and the security of the homes."

It demands that the Eighteenth amendment be repealed "in the interests of real temperance and respect for law."

Victory post No. 4 of Washington, D. C., in a letter to Floyd L. Young, Indiana commander, has announced that it intends to support at the national gathering a resolution demanding that the amendment be repealed.

Similar motions have been presented to past conventions, but in every case have been tabled.

This summer, Ohio Legion officials sidestepped such a motion, saying:

"The Legion drinks wet, thinks wet, and is wet. Get in any fight as individuals, but keep the Legion out of it."

In the Illinois state convention, an anti-prohibition motion was tabled after a hot debate.

The resolution sponsored by the Washington post points out that the Legion stands for the Constitution, and that the presence of an unpopular law has endangered "the perpetuation of law observance, of justice, temperance, freedom and the security of the homes."

It demands that the Eighteenth amendment be repealed "in the interests of real temperance and respect for law."

Victory post No. 4 of Washington, D. C., in a letter to Floyd L. Young, Indiana commander, has announced that it intends to support at the national gathering a resolution demanding that the amendment be repealed.

Similar motions have been presented to past conventions, but in every case have been tabled.

This summer, Ohio Legion officials sidestepped such a motion, saying:

"The Legion drinks wet, thinks wet, and is wet. Get in any fight as individuals, but keep the Legion out of it."

In the Illinois state convention, an anti-prohibition motion was tabled after a hot debate.

The resolution sponsored by the Washington post points out that the Legion stands for the Constitution, and that the presence of an unpopular law has endangered "the perpetuation of law observance, of justice, temperance, freedom and the security of the homes."

It demands that the Eighteenth amendment be repealed "in the interests of real temperance and respect for law."

Victory post No. 4 of Washington, D. C., in a letter to Floyd L. Young, Indiana commander, has announced that it intends to support at the national gathering a resolution de-