Mrs. Lillie Shaffer, 63, wife of Charles C. Shaffer, 2523 West Sixteenth street, flour and feed merchant, died Tuesday at Lake Manitou. Cause of the death was heart disease. She had been ill for almost a week.

Suicide in Car.

Dismissing his chauffeur, Oscar V. Rouse, 72, of 1807 North Meridian street, sat in front of his wholesale grain and feed office at 7 North Davidson street Tuesday night and drained a bottle of poison.

Coroner Fred W. Vohling, who returned a suicide verdict after an autopsy at city hospital, said dependency probably resulted from business depression doubtless led Mr. Rouse to end his life.

Mr. Rouse had been affiliated with William Rouse & Sons, grain dealers, more than forty years. At the time of his death he was president of the firm.

Tuesday night he ordered his automobile and drove downtown with the chauffeur, John Smith, Negro, 940 Superior street. Smith was dismissed for half an hour, and returned to find his employer's body in the car.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Luella Rouse; a son, William M. Rouse, and three brothers, Abner, Fred and Frank Rouse, all of Indianapolis. Funeral arrangements are not completed.

overhead to remind the mutineers of the aerial bombardment that broke the mutiny. Among the prisoners were members of the Communist committee set up by the mutineers.

Some of the Communists were thrown overboard when the revolt failed.

No one was allowed to approach the mutineers. The few rebels who were on deck appeared tired and haggard. Five men with their hands tied behind their backs were seen on the deck of the tug Artiller.
