HIS PIGS TAKE PRIZES AT SWINE JUDGING

Lebanon Boy's Berkshire Gilt, Barrow Held Best.

Pigs are pigs, Byron Powell, Lebanon (Ind.) boy admits, but, he points out, there are ordinary pigs, good pigs, and best pigs.

Now, ordinary pigs might content some boy raisers of swine. Others might be satisfied with producing good pigs.

Not Byron, however. Only the finest will win his enthusiastic interest.

He proved it. His Berkshire gilt and barrow each won championships in their breed at the pig club show at the Indiana state fair.

BRITISH LAUNCH ECONOMY BILL IN PARLIAMENT

Financial Reform Started; Riot Attempts of Large Crowds Curbed.

By United Press

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald, speeding the new coalition government's drastic financial reform program, presented the national economy bill in parliament today.

The legislation was designed to provide the government with a quasi-dictatorial emergency measure for rushing through its financial program. It would "authorize making orders in council to effect economies in expenditure and improvements of arrangements for meeting such expenditure."

Attempts to incite riots outside the houses of parliament were curbed by a thousand police early today after Communists and other agitators unsuccessfully harranged a large crowd to demonstrate against the coalition government, which won a vote of confidence Tuesday night.

Survivors are the husband, Edward M. Farrell; an infant daughter, Mary Jane Farrell; her mother, Mrs. Jane Blackwell, and a brother, William C. Blackwell, all of Indianapolis.

STAGE SHOWS WILL RETURN TO LYRIC

Saturday Will Mark Return of Vaudeville to Illinois Street Theater After a Variety Vacation.

STAGE shows are coming back to Indianapolis. The welcomed announcement comes from the Lyric and states that beginning next Saturday they are going to resume their former popular combination policy.

This policy was and will be six acts of RKO vaudeville, including a name headliner attraction in conjunction with the pick of three companies' program pictures.

The Lyric took a short respite during the last few weeks of the summer, to enable them to play up the excess amount of the so-called big pictures and to also bring them right up to national release date on all of their films.

The management of the Lyric further announces that all Lyric vaudeville shows are to be booked from New York this season. William Berger, who is considered to be one of the foremost vaudeville bookers, has been engaged and will collaborate with the manager of the Lyric in selecting the type of shows and acts which are best suited for this locality.

The RKO Vaudeville Exchange, located in the Palace Theater building in New York, will be the headquarters for Berger.

This means that the Lyric will have an opportunity to accept or reject as they see fit any and all of the outstanding name attractions from musical comedy, variety stage success. Sally O'Neil and Alan Dinehart are the featured players.

The RKO officials in New York have started a movement to revive the "big time" this season, but in a different way, presenting five to six outstanding acts, in addition to pictures, at popular prices.

The Lyric has been joined to the already former mid-west circuit which includes Louisville, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Cleveland and Chicago.

The opening bill for the Lyric starting has not yet been completed and will be announced in these columns later in the week.

The feature picture which will be shown with the first vaudeville bill of the new fall season is the Fox movietone version of "The Brat," Maude Fulton's well-known stage success. Sally O'Neil and Alan Dinehart are the featured players.

BUCK'S BACKERS SWELL DERBY BALLOT TOTAL

Sheriff Looms Sure Winner of Brown Kelly; Last Chance to Vote.

Sheriff Charles (Buck) Sumner, 23,611
Jesse McClure ..... 7,201
Ira P. Haymaker ..... 853
Frank C. Riley ..... 663
Hoosier Pete ..... 694

It's the last chance to ballot for 1931's Brown Derby king. Only a mountain of votes can hope to defeat Sheriff "Buck" Sumner for the right to appear at the coronation ceremonies at 8 p. m. Friday in front of the state fair grandstand and receive the bronze plaque and the dun-colored "kelly" as the city's most distinguished citizen.

Victory is conceded by the most partisan of partisans in the ranks of Jesse McClure.

"It's their year, but wait until 1932—then there'll be a different story," declared one McClure lieutenant.

Buck's henchmen seemed unperturbed by the apathy in the ranks of the McClure boys. They continued even today to roll up a higher vote total than 1930's victor, George L. Winkler, former sheriff.

Winkler won from Mayor Reginald H. Sullivan with approximately 20,000 ballots against the mayor's 11,000.

Ballot boxes for the derby melee close at 9 a. m. Thursday. Every vote must be in The Times office by then or it will not be counted.

The winner, who looks like "Buck," unofficially will don the derby for a photo in Thursday's edition of The Times.

Watch for the "mugging" of the winner and then Friday night attend the coronation on Indianapolis day at the fair and see the victor try to keep that schoolboy blush as he receives the crown of crowns.

"My sweetheart smokes 'em ..."

"NOW, you know, Bob was raised in a tobacco country. He has worked in two cigarette factories; and I have heard him say all of them are just the same. He says there are a lot of pipes and things like that running through the roofs of the factories and sometimes they look different, but that the way cigarettes are made is all the same.

"Bob says all tobaccos receive the same sort of drying—heat treatment, he called it. In one factory, he says, they may talk about 'baking' the tobaccos and in another they call it another name. He says what they actually do is to 'dry' the tobaccos—reduce the moisture in them—and that the machine that they all use is called a 'Dryer.'

"But when it comes to the quality of tobacco, that's quite a different story, so Bob says; some factories use mild, ripe tobacco, while others think that thick heavy tobacco is good enough. Bob knows tobacco and he tells me that it takes good tobacco—mild and ripe—to make a cigarette as good as CHESTERFIELD.

"You know how it is when a piece of fruit tastes just right—not raw or sharp or too ripe or tasteless—just pleasing and satisfying. Well, that's the way it is with CHESTERFIELD—they just suit me right down to the ground—they satisfy."

— And HIS sweetheart smokes 'em too!

So Listless...What's the Matter?

A Despondent Young Girl

SHE looks despondent, listless. Young girls budding into womanhood often get quiet, wistful and they should be watched.

During this "trying time" every young girl needs the helpful benefit of a strengthening medicine like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mother, won't you give your daughter the Vegetable Compound? Records show that it helps 98 out of every 100 women who use it. Ask your druggist for a bottle of the liquid or the convenient tablets.
