

CHILD REVEALS RAID ON YACHT; FATHER MISSING

Vale Graduate Attacked by Intruders; Wife Is Put Ashore.

By United Press
STAMFORD, Conn., Sept. 10.—A halting, disconnected story of her father and mother having been attacked aboard their cabin cruiser Penguin in Long Island sound, was told by Barbara Collings, 5, when she was found alone today aboard the floating yacht.

She said two men, one of them armed with a revolver, had boarded the cruiser and put her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Collings overboard.

The mother, Mrs. Lillian Collings, was reported to have reached Oyster Bay, L. I., in a canoe early today.
Collings, Yale graduate, and retired business man at 38, was missing.

Child Dazed, Excited
The child appeared dazed and excited. She was uncertain whether her father had been thrown overboard or sent away in a boat as in the case of her mother.

Barbara said she and her parents left her Wednesday on a cruise to Oyster Bay, directly across the sound. While they were at anchor, she said, two men came aboard and demanded to be taken to Norwalk.

When Collings questioned them, the child related, one drew a revolver. A struggle followed.
Barbara was unable to tell when or where the men left the boat.

Bears Battle Signs
The Penguin was found to bear evidence of a battle. Cushions were strewn about the cockpit and the deck was stained with blood.

Police said they discovered two diamond rings in the slippers of the child.

Reports reaching local authorities said Mrs. Collings had told Nassau county police on Long Island that the two men who boarded the Penguin Wednesday night claimed they wished to ferry a wounded man across to the Norwalk hospital.

She was reported to have said the men forced her husband to leave his anchorage and put her aboard a vacant yacht, from which she was rescued early today when a fisherman heard her screams.

Mrs. Collings also was reported to have said the intruders put her husband out in the yacht's tender.
The skip of the Penguin was tied to the stern when it was found, however.

BOUND OVER IN FAKE BILL CASE

Ex-Convict Convicted of Counterfeiting.

Frank Kucinski, university graduate and veteran of the Spanish-American war, he says, in Marion county jail awaited indictment by the federal grand jury on counterfeiting charges.

He was bound to the jury under $5,000 bonds Wednesday by United States Commissioner Howard S.
Young, before whom he waived preliminary hearing. Edward Oliver, 18, Negro, arrested in connection with Kucinski's counterfeiting scheme, was held to the grand jury under $1,000 bonds.

Federal operatives arrest Kucinski in his room at a lodging house in the 700 block East Vermont street, where they found 103 bogus $10 bills, and equipment for making them.

Kucinski had served ten years in Leavenworth federal penitentiary on another counterfeiting charge, and on his release studied photography and engraving and began manufacturing money again, the government charges.

'HOUNDED' INTO JAIL

Dispute Over Dogs Leads to Court Penalty.

There may be too many German shepherd dogs in the vicinity of 1600 Southern avenue.
Regardless of the situation, Earl Cross, 36, of 1557 Southern avenue, is "working out" a $5 fine and costs on an assault and battery conviction.

He was charged with slapping Frank VanSickle, 20, of 1629 Southern avenue, whose shepherd dog Ted is said to have "chewed up" Cross' Spitz dog King.

Cross admitted the attack on VanSickle to Municipal Judge William H. Sheaffer Wednesday.
VanSickle, however, said there were three other dogs like his in the neighborhood and believed one of them had attacked Cross' canine.

Cross told the court he was attempting to protect children and other residents from the dog.

JAIL AND FINE PAIR WHO GAVE JOBLESS TALKS

Both Are Held Vagrants; One Is Worker; Meeting
Is Dispersed.

Because they conversed on a street corner following a meeting of unemployed, Frank Gross, 23 North Richmond avenue, and Henry McCoy, 2021 West New York street, are in the county jail today for failure to pay $50 fines and costs each on "vagrancy" charges.

McCoy and Gross were arrested at North and Blake streets, Tuesday night by police officers. The officers charged that they were making speeches after they had been given notice to disperse the meeting of forty or fifty persons.

$50 Fines Each
In municipal court three Wednesday afternoon, William H. Harrison, judge pro tem, convicted them and fined each $50 and costs. Unable to pay cash appeal bonds of $500 each, the man was remanded to jail by the court.

Friends of Gross and McCoy today said Gross had been making a speech in behalf of the unemployed, but stopped when police ordered him to do so. They said he crossed the street and was talking to McCoy when the officers returned, demanding to know whether they "didn't intend to move on."

Explains Stoppage Gross, it is said, replied that he merely had stopped to talk with McCoy. Both were arrested.

Harrison today said he had been convinced that the police testimony in the case was accurate.
"Neither of them could show any visible means of support," Harrison said. "I have no apologies to make for my action in the case."

"They got what was coming to them, that's all. They seem to think that they could do as they please without asking any one, or being interfered with."

Friends of Gross said he had a regular job.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK ANNOUNCED FOR CITY

Voshell to Co-operate With Indiana Industrial Exposition.

Fire Chief Harry Voshell, cooperating with Indiana Industrial Exposition officials, announced today that he planned to hold fire prevention week in Indianapolis prior to the one which President Herbert Hoover has set aside to be observed nationally.

"Fire prevention is something which should be in order at all times," Voshell said, "and I believe it will do us good to have two weeks of concentrated thought about it.
It is my understanding there will be several companies at the industrial show which are vitally interested in fire prevention and they are willing to co-operate with programs and instructions during the week of the show, Sept. 28 to Oct. 4, so that would bring both weeks together."

W. A. McCurry, managing director of the industrial exposition, said one day of the show would be termed "fire prevention day" and appropriate programs arranged.

By United Press
MANILA, P. I., Sept. 10.—Almost unanimous sentiment in favor of Philippine independence was reported today by Secretary of War Patrick J. Hurley on his return

While expressing no conclusions, Secretary Hurley said he found the cities in the southern group solidly were in favor of independence, but that sentiment among the Moros was divided.

loose DANDRUFF get rid of it!

Note the picture above. This woman's hair looks clean, free from dandruff.
Every woman's hair should—and can—look the same way.

Ordinary dandruff can be checked and often cured entirely by the frequent, systematic use of full strength Listerine.

You simply douse it on the scalp full strength and massage vigorously. Keep the treatment up several days. Within two weeks you will be delighted with results.

If infection is present on the surface of the skin, Listerine attacks it. A powerful germicide, it kills bacteria in 15 seconds, the fastest killing time accurately recorded by science.

Listerine helps to dissolve oily crusts and quickly removes them, as well as horny scales. And Listerine quickly relieves that burning, itching sensation.
It soothes inflamed or irritated areas of the scalp.

If scalp is excessively dry, a little olive oil may be used in connection with the Listerine shampoo, or independent of it.
The oil aids in dissolving crusts and scales and keeps hair from drying out.
