

WARBLERS SLAP BACK AT MORON BRAND ON 'ART'

Professor Is Beset With Letters Defending Whistler.

By Times Special

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Beset on all sides by defenders of whistling, his desk piled high with letters signed "A Happy Whistler," Professor Charles Gray Shaw of New York University, who asserted that all whistlers are morons, admitted today that he sometimes whistles himself.

But it is only to call a taxi, he said.

He put two fingers in his mouth, drew a deep breath and demonstrated. The resulting blast could easily have been heard two blocks, but it was a pure lip whistle and not the throat whistle which the professor exempted from his criticism because it was "musical."

Coincidentally, it was revealed that

Cash 'n' Carry

By United Press
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 2.—Two kidnappers who couldn't agree on how to split $50,000 ransom which they hoped to get for releasing Carl F. Groos, investment banker, compromised by accepting $5 cash and letting him go.

Albert Einstein is a whistler, and that the art is a favorite pastime with many musicians, artists and sculptors.

Augustus Lukeman, sculptor of New York and Stockbridge, Mass., asserted that nearly every genius whistles, and that he has heard Einstein whistle.

Artists often induce apprentices seeking jobs to whistle, and if they can not carry a tune, they are not hired, Lukeman said.

Professor Shaw rallied with a counter-attack. Regarding the report that Premier Mussolini is an excellent whistler, he said:

"If I Duce whistles, it is because he can't carry a piano around with him. He is a musician, and it is excusable."

But the professor found only treason within his ranks and rising attacks from without.

LARGE FIRMS HIKE GIFTS TO CHEST DRIVE

Amounts to Community
Fund Increased by Corporations, Leaders Say.

Corporations in other cities which have branch houses in Indianapolis are increasing their gifts to the Community Fund, Stowell C. Wasson, chairman of the branch house division of the charity campaign, announced today.

The Cleveland Grain Company of Cleveland has increased its contribution of last year by 66 per cent. Edwin K. Shepherd, Indianapolis manager, in the letter to Wasson, said, "Our company realizes that the coming winter will be a severe drain on the Community Fund, and for this reason we are increasing our yearly subscription."

A 56 per cent increased gift has been made by the International Harvester Company.

A letter from the company's main office in Chicago to J. A. Brookbank Jr., Indianapolis manager, stated: "The Indianapolis Community Fund has done remarkably well in keeping down the cost of the campaign and the cost of operations and collection, which total but 6.7 per cent of the amount raised last year. In comparison with what is being done in other places, we know that it is very low."

R. A. McGill, Indianapolis manager for the Crane Company, reported an increased contribution of 20 per cent over last year.

The branch house division of the fund solicits in advance of the general drive, which opens Oct. 2, from the home offices of corporations which have branches here.

KIDNAP CABBY TO AID HOLDUP

Trio Threatens Driver in Gas Station Robbery.

Holding a revolver against the head of Ernest Polk, 6350 Pierson street, taxi driver, three bandits who have been operating in the city several nights, early today forced him to aid them in a filling station robbery.

Henry Furkey, 19, of 2207 Station street, attendant at the Interstate Petroleum Company station at Massachusetts avenue and Sherman drive, was forced to surrender $12 to the trio.

After the robbery, Polk told police the gunmen forced him to drive them to Victoria street and Warman avenue where they shoved him from the taxi.

During the escape, Polk said the bandits talked of staging a stickup of a man who had $5,000.

Polk told officers the gunman who pointed the revolver at him during the robbery remarked that "this is a hell of a way to make a living."
