

Recital to Be Given at Propylaeum

Indianapolis Propylaeum has issued invitations for its opening entertainment of the season to be held at 2:30 Thursday, when Bomar Cramer will give a piano recital.

Members may make reservations for luncheon parties before the program, which follows:

"Prelude and Fugue, D. major"
"Intermezzo, Op. 11, No. 6"
"Capriccio, Op. 10, No. 8"
"Intermezzo, Op. 10, No. 5"
"Capriccio, Op. 10, No. 5"
"Three Etudes"
"The Maiden and the Nightingale"
"Prelude, G. minor"
"Etude Tableaux"
"Tango"
"Pavane"
"Valse Opulente"
"Leopolda"
Officers of the Indianapolis Propylaeum are:

Medames Arthur W. Brown, president; John W. Kern, vice-president; Oscar N. Torian, secretary; Edson T. Wood, treasurer and directors: Thomas R. Kackley, Ralph A. Lemcke, Albert Benton, Kin Hubbard, Robert A. Adams, Eugene C. Miller, Harry Murphy, Frank M. Reed, Frederick Hodges, P. Rollin Kautz, Augustus Colburn. The entertainment committee includes:

Medames John W. Kern, chairman; William Ray Adams, Thaddeus R. Baker, William H. Coleman, James Cunningham, Benjamin R. Hitz, E. Vernon Hahn, Kin Hubbard, Ovid Butler, Jameson, Louis H. Lever, William M. Loudon, George Phillip Meier, M. A. Ryan, Charles A. Pfafflin, Samuel L. Shank, Paul H. White.

The following women will serve as hostesses for the afternoon:

Medames Benjamin A. Richardson, John N. Cunningham, Hugh McGibben, J. B. Holliday, Franklin Vonnegut, Walter C. Merson, Delia A. John, R. Oliver, Guernsey Van Riper, William A. Aikins, H. A. Pinnell, J. F. Carroll, Morris Ross, Fred A. Sims, A. M. Cole, Burton E. Jarrett, James B. Nelson, Albert P. Smith, Karl T. Nestler, James F. Proulx, Logan Scholl, James A. Bayden, Charles Latham, Samuel M. Reid, Harold Taylor, Herbert E. Woodbury, Wm. F. Kuhn, James W. Fessler, Harold B. Thayer, George E. Moran, Leo M. Ransdort, Julian M. Pavure, Frank Wampler, Edo I. Wazner, Frank C. Dailer, Henry Kahn, Alexander Stewart, Owen E. Morrell, Wm. W. B. Paul, and Misses Genevieve Scoville, Julia Brink and Mary Winter.

Presidents of Literary Club to Be Honored

One of the oldest literary clubs in the city, the Aftermath Club, will inaugurate its thirty-six years' work in the observance of President's day Thursday with a 12:30 luncheon at the Columbia Club.

Mrs. Charles F. Miller, chairman of the program committee, assisted by members of her committee, will be in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Frank T. Day, retiring president, will introduce and present the gavel to Mrs. Charles W. Field, incoming president, who will give greetings and assume her duties.

Subject for this year's study is a continuation of a study of American history, and Mrs. Miller will outline the plans.

Following luncheon, Mrs. Melissa Jane Polk, soprano, will sing, accompanied by Mrs. John A. Sink. Professor John J. Harny of Indiana Central college, will talk on "America's Gift to the World."

Children's Sunshine Club of Sunnyside is making plans for a card party to be given in the Riley room of the Claypool Nov. 13. Proceeds will be used to replenish the loan closet at the sanitarium.

This loan closet is filled with clothing for the children at Sunnyside, whose parents are unable to provide for them.

Plans are in charge of the ways and means committee with Mrs. Frank Coyle as chairman.

The next meeting of the club will be held at 2 Wednesday in the ladies' parlors of the Fletcher American bank.

WOMEN'S FACULTY CLUB TO GATHER

Women's Faculty Club of Butler university will hold its annual luncheon Saturday, Oct. 17, in the Hunters' lodge at the Marrott. Arrangements are being made by the program and social committees as follows: Social, Miss Allene Grafton, Miss Helen Cade, Mrs. Elijah Jordan, Mrs. A. T. Drago, Mrs. Jane Peeling; program, Mesdames A. B. Carlisle, J. P. Wesenberg, Tolbert F. Reavis and W. L. Richardson.

INTER-ARTS CLUB TO FETE GUESTS

Inter-arts club will hold a guest meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Oscar A. Jose Jr., 4814 North Meridian street.

The program will include papers by the following:

Miss Joan Pratt Johnson, "Norway and Sweden"; Miss Maryann Sisk, "Literature and the Bible"; Miss Elizabeth King, "How to Appreciate Pictures in an Art Gallery"; and Miss Ethel Malloch, "Publishers' Colophons."

Omega Phi to Meet

Beta chapter, Omega Phi Tau sorority, will meet at 8 Monday at the Chamber of Commerce.

Wiggam to Be Entertained After 'Town Hall' Speech

Mrs. Edward McKee and Mrs. Samuel Suthpitt will be hostesses for the luncheon at 12:30 Friday, Oct. 30, at the Indianapolis Athletic Club, following the opening of "Town Hall" at 11 at English.

To Edward Wiggam, a Hoosier author who did his first writing on an Indianapolis newspaper, falls the honor of opening "Town Hall" in its first season in Indianapolis. He and Mrs. Wiggam will be honor guests at luncheon.

Reservations may be made by those attending the lecture at town hall offices or at the club.

IT'S SPORTING TIME AT TUDOR HALL

Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae to Observe Founder's Day

Alpha Chi Omega alumnae of Beta Beta chapter will observe Founder's day with a luncheon today at the home of Miss Ann Hall, 5850 University avenue, to commemorate the forty-sixth anniversary of the national sorority which was founded Oct. 15, 1885, at De Pauw university.

A special table, decorated with a plateau of red dahlias, white tapered tied with red tulle and corsages which will mark their places will be set for the following founders:

Medames Scooby Cunningham, Ralph B. Clark of Indianapolis; Miss Estelle Leonard of Union City; Miss Mildred Blackledge, national secretary; Miss Helen Murray, president of Beta Beta; Mesdames C. E. Cottingham, E. H. Jenne and Miss Hannah Keenan.

Messages of greeting have been sent to the two remaining founders who were unable to be present, Mrs. Harry Smith of Greencastle and Mrs. Edward M. Child of Martinsville, Ill.

Miss Leonard, with her musical ensemble from Union City, will furnish the program, arranged by Miss Jane Hall.

Assisting hostesses are: Mesdames S. G. Howard, Homer G. Meek, Glen Dutenhaver, Vernon McNeal, Elsie B. Galt, and Misses Florence Gould and Wallace Montague.

The dinner will be followed by a meeting, when plans for the year will be outlined. Edward E. Petri, president will preside. Premier Pierre Laval and Marshall Henri Poincaré, who will visit the United States during the coming year, will be discussed, along with other current events pertaining to France.

Mrs. Charles Bechers, 4824 East Tenth street, will be hostess for a Russian tea to be given this afternoon by the Omicron chapter, Chi Sigma sorority, for rushees of the group. Appointments and favors will be in harmony with the Russian motif. The tea will close the rushing season for the sorority.

Assisting the hostess will be Misses Mary Frances Egan, Marjorie Weiler and Mildred Dietz. Miss Josephine Mangold, a pupil of Miss Dorothy Fife, will give a Russian dance.

Guests will be: Misses Edna Boston, Nora Casserly, Lillian Beck, Hilda Clemson, Thelma Combs, Helene Eder, Mary Ann Hegarty, Mary Alice Hill, Bessie Jones, Mary Long, Edith Speer, Vernice Trout.

Jewish Juniors to Open With Candidate Tea

Indianapolis Council of Jewish Juniors will launch a membership campaign with a tea at 3 Sunday afternoon at Kirshbaum Center. It will be the first of a series of social affairs to be given by the council for girls eligible to membership.

Miss Dorothy Krish, chairman of the membership committee, is in charge. All girls 15 or older are invited to attend.

Officers of the council for the coming year are: Misses Julia Goldberger, president; Jane Slutsky, vice-president; Dorothy Krish, second vice-president; Hilda Greenburg, corresponding secretary; Frieda Brill, recording secretary; and Adelaide Cohn, treasurer.

Mrs. Edwin N. Canine, Fifth District Federation of Clubs and the Woman's Department Club of Terre Haute is presenting Mrs. Edwin N. Canine, Terre Haute, as candidate for president of the Indiana Federation of Clubs, subject to the election of the state convention in West Baden Oct. 21, 22 and 23.

Mrs. Canine has been active in club work in Indiana and Chicago for a number of years, and is now chairman of the state department of education in the federation.

She was chairman of the program committee of the Indiana federation in 1926; treasurer 1928-1929, and first vice-president 1929-1930.

She has worked with the Lake county Red Cross and boards of religious education and public welfare. She is active in church work, being a former state president, and now state vice-president of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Congregational church.

She also is the mother of a son, who saw service in the World war, and a daughter.

Press club will honor its head Mrs. E. C. Toner, Anderson, president of the Women's Press Club of Indiana and Mrs. Kate Milner Rabb, retiring president, will be honored at President's day luncheon of the club Thursday at the Columbia Club.

Mrs. Toner and Mrs. Rabb will speak briefly and past presidents of the club will extend greetings. Miss Janet Cuthill, dramatic reader, will present the "Violet Scene" from "Romance."

Miss Walsh Hostess Theta chapter, Alpha Omicron Alpha sorority, will hold a business meeting Monday night at the home of Miss Ellen Walsh, 517 East Thirty-first street.

Major Herbert O. Yardley, who originally was scheduled to appear on Oct. 30, is in California directing a picture being made from his book, "American Black Chamber," and he instead will appear on Feb. 12, the date originally announced for Wiggam.

Wiggam's lecture will concern, "What Civilization Is Doing to Us," and will follow the general trend of his books, some of which are "New Decalogue of Science," "The Fruit of the Family Tree," "Next Age of Man," and "Marks of an Educated Man." A fifteen minute open forum will follow the talk.

Life grows zestful for Tudor Hall students during these brisk fall days. Afternoons are spent at outdoor sports, including baseball, basketball, hockey and tennis.

Judy Chambers is at bat in the upper left photograph and Estelle Burpee is catching in a close "world serious" battle.

A group of girls at the school are shown in the upper right. They are, left to right, Elizabeth Hall, president of Student Government; Betty Noland, editor of the Chronicle; Judy Chambers, editor of the Chronicle; and Joan Aufderheide, president of the senior class.

In the lower picture, Judy Hall, right, and Margaret Kistelman, left, hands after a closely contested match.

Life grows zestful for Tudor Hall students during these brisk fall days. Afternoons are spent at outdoor sports, including baseball, basketball, hockey and tennis.

Judy Chambers is at bat in the upper left photograph and Estelle Burpee is catching in a close "world serious" battle.

A group of girls at the school are shown in the upper right. They are, left to right, Elizabeth Hall, president of Student Government; Betty Noland, editor of the Chronicle; Judy Chambers, editor of the Chronicle; and Joan Aufderheide, president of the senior class.

In the lower picture, Judy Hall, right, and Margaret Kistelman, left, hands after a closely contested match.

Life grows zestful for Tudor Hall students during these brisk fall days. Afternoons are spent at outdoor sports, including baseball, basketball, hockey and tennis.

Judy Chambers is at bat in the upper left photograph and Estelle Burpee is catching in a close "world serious" battle.

A group of girls at the school are shown in the upper right. They are, left to right, Elizabeth Hall, president of Student Government; Betty Noland, editor of the Chronicle; Judy Chambers, editor of the Chronicle; and Joan Aufderheide, president of the senior class.

In the lower picture, Judy Hall, right, and Margaret Kistelman, left, hands after a closely contested match.

Life grows zestful for Tudor Hall students during these brisk fall days. Afternoons are spent at outdoor sports, including baseball, basketball, hockey and tennis.

Judy Chambers is at bat in the upper left photograph and Estelle Burpee is catching in a close "world serious" battle.

A group of girls at the school are shown in the upper right. They are, left to right, Elizabeth Hall, president of Student Government; Betty Noland, editor of the Chronicle; Judy Chambers, editor of the Chronicle; and Joan Aufderheide, president of the senior class.

In the lower picture, Judy Hall, right, and Margaret Kistelman, left, hands after a closely contested match.

Life grows zestful for Tudor Hall students during these brisk fall days. Afternoons are spent at outdoor sports, including baseball, basketball, hockey and tennis.

Judy Chambers is at bat in the upper left photograph and Estelle Burpee is catching in a close "world serious" battle.

A group of girls at the school are shown in the upper right. They are, left to right, Elizabeth Hall, president of Student Government; Betty Noland, editor of the Chronicle; Judy Chambers, editor of the Chronicle; and Joan Aufderheide, president of the senior class.

In the lower picture, Judy Hall, right, and Margaret Kistelman, left, hands after a closely contested match.

Life grows zestful for Tudor Hall students during these brisk fall days. Afternoons are spent at outdoor sports, including baseball, basketball, hockey and tennis.

Judy Chambers is at bat in the upper left photograph and Estelle Burpee is catching in a close "world serious" battle.

A group of girls at the school are shown in the upper right. They are, left to right, Elizabeth Hall, president of Student Government; Betty Noland, editor of the Chronicle; Judy Chambers, editor of the Chronicle; and Joan Aufderheide, president of the senior class.

In the lower picture, Judy Hall, right, and Margaret Kistelman, left, hands after a closely contested match.

Life grows zestful for Tudor Hall students during these brisk fall days. Afternoons are spent at outdoor sports, including baseball, basketball, hockey and tennis.

Judy Chambers is at bat in the upper left photograph and Estelle Burpee is catching in a close "world serious" battle.

A group of girls at the school are shown in the upper right. They are, left to right, Elizabeth Hall, president of Student Government; Betty Noland, editor of the Chronicle; Judy Chambers, editor of the Chronicle; and Joan Aufderheide, president of the senior class.

In the lower picture, Judy Hall, right, and Margaret Kistelman, left, hands after a closely contested match.

Life grows zestful for Tudor Hall students during these brisk fall days. Afternoons are spent at outdoor sports, including baseball, basketball, hockey and tennis.

Judy Chambers is at bat in the upper left photograph and Estelle Burpee is catching in a close "world serious" battle.

A group of girls at the school are shown in the upper right. They are, left to right, Elizabeth Hall, president of Student Government; Betty Noland, editor of the Chronicle; Judy Chambers, editor of the Chronicle; and Joan Aufderheide, president of the senior class.

In the lower picture, Judy Hall, right, and Margaret Kistelman, left, hands after a closely contested match.

Life grows zestful for Tudor Hall students during these brisk fall days. Afternoons are spent at outdoor sports, including baseball, basketball, hockey and tennis.

Judy Chambers is at bat in the upper left photograph and Estelle Burpee is catching in a close "world serious" battle.

A group of girls at the school are shown in the upper right. They are, left to right, Elizabeth Hall, president of Student Government; Betty Noland, editor of the Chronicle; Judy Chambers, editor of the Chronicle; and Joan Aufderheide, president of the senior class.

In the lower picture, Judy Hall, right, and Margaret Kistelman, left, hands after a closely contested match.

Life grows zestful for Tudor Hall students during these brisk fall days. Afternoons are spent at outdoor sports, including baseball, basketball, hockey and tennis.

Judy Chambers is at bat in the upper left photograph and Estelle Burpee is catching in a close "world serious" battle.

A group of girls at the school are shown in the upper right. They are, left to right, Elizabeth Hall, president of Student Government; Betty Noland, editor of the Chronicle; Judy Chambers, editor of the Chronicle; and Joan Aufderheide, president of the senior class.

In the lower picture, Judy Hall, right, and Margaret Kistelman, left, hands after a closely contested match.

Life grows zestful for Tudor Hall students during these brisk fall days. Afternoons are spent at outdoor sports, including baseball, basketball, hockey and tennis.

Judy Chambers is at bat in the upper left photograph and Estelle Burpee is catching in a close "world serious" battle.

City Girl to Be Bride of Dakota Man

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Langan, 3821 North New Jersey street, announce the engagement of their sister, Miss Estelle Sadler, and George Levertt Mason, Indianapolis, son of Mrs. John Mason, Fargo, N. D. The marriage will take place at 9 Saturday, Oct. 31, at St. Peter and Paul cathedral.

Miss Sadler will have Mrs. Allen Moorehead as her only attendant, and Andrew Bennett Smith will be Mr. Mason's best man.

A number of parties will be held for Miss Sadler during the weeks preceding the wedding.

Miss Mary Blumhagen will entertain Monday night with a bridge party at her home, 42 Meridian place.

Wednesday Mrs. Moorehead will entertain in her honor with a bridge party at her apartment, 3758 North Pennsylvania street. Saturday Miss Silva Manogue and Miss Martina Shea will be hostesses at a luncheon at the Indianapolis Athletic Club. Mrs. Leonard Meisberger also will entertain in honor of the bride-elect.

The bride will wear a brown traveling suit with accessories and carry a bronze chrysanthemum.

Mr. Ross and his bride will leave immediately for a trip through northern Michigan. They will be at home after Oct. 26 in Greenwood.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Butler university where Miss Moon was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Ross is a Sigma Chi.

The marriage of Miss Louise Moon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Moon, 2425 North Alabama street, and Harold L. Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ross, Frankfort, will take place at 11:30 this morning at the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church, with the Rev. William G. Hartinger officiating.

Evan Walker, accompanied by Miss Christine Housman, will sing.

The bride will be attended by Miss Helen Arzett, who will wear a brown traveling suit with accessories and carry a bronze chrysanthemum.

Mr. Ross and his bride will leave immediately for a trip through northern Michigan. They will be at home after Oct. 26 in Greenwood.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Butler university where Miss Moon was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Ross is a Sigma Chi.

The marriage of Miss Louise Moon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Moon, 2425 North Alabama street, and Harold L. Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ross, Frankfort, will take place at 11:30 this morning at the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church, with the Rev. William G. Hartinger officiating.

Evan Walker, accompanied by Miss Christine Housman, will sing.

The bride will be attended by Miss Helen Arzett, who will wear a brown traveling suit with accessories and carry a bronze chrysanthemum.

Mr. Ross and his bride will leave immediately for a trip through northern Michigan. They will be at home after Oct. 26 in Greenwood.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Butler university where Miss Moon was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Ross is a Sigma Chi.

The marriage of Miss Louise Moon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Moon, 2425 North Alabama street, and Harold L. Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ross, Frankfort, will take place at 11:30 this morning at the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church, with the Rev. William G. Hartinger officiating.

Evan Walker, accompanied by Miss Christine Housman, will sing.

The bride will be attended by Miss Helen Arzett, who will wear a brown traveling suit with accessories and carry a bronze chrysanthemum.

Mr. Ross and his bride will leave immediately for a trip through northern Michigan. They will be at home after Oct. 26 in Greenwood.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Butler university where Miss Moon was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Ross is a Sigma Chi.

The marriage of Miss Louise Moon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Moon, 2425 North Alabama street, and Harold L. Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ross, Frankfort, will take place at 11:30 this morning at the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church, with the Rev. William G. Hartinger officiating.

Evan Walker, accompanied by Miss Christine Housman, will sing.

The bride will be attended by Miss Helen Arzett, who will wear a brown traveling suit with accessories and carry a bronze chrysanthemum.

Mr. Ross and his bride will leave immediately for a trip through northern Michigan. They will be at home after Oct. 26 in Greenwood.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Butler university where Miss Moon was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Ross is a Sigma Chi.

The marriage of Miss Louise Moon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Moon, 2425 North Alabama street, and Harold L. Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ross, Frankfort, will take place at 11:30 this morning at the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church, with the Rev. William G. Hartinger officiating.

Evan Walker, accompanied by Miss Christine Housman, will sing.

The bride will be attended by Miss Helen Arzett, who will wear a brown traveling suit with accessories and carry a bronze chrysanthemum.

Mr. Ross and his bride will leave immediately for a trip through northern Michigan. They will be at home after Oct. 26 in Greenwood.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Butler university where Miss Moon was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Ross is a Sigma Chi.

The marriage of Miss Louise Moon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Moon, 2425 North Alabama street, and Harold L. Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ross, Frankfort, will take place at 11:30 this morning at the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church, with the Rev. William G. Hartinger officiating.

Evan Walker, accompanied by Miss Christine Housman, will sing.

The bride will be attended by Miss Helen Arzett, who will wear a brown traveling suit with accessories and carry a bronze chrysanthemum.

Mr. Ross and his bride will leave immediately for a trip through northern Michigan. They will be at home after Oct. 26 in Greenwood.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Butler university where Miss Moon was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Ross is a Sigma Chi.

The marriage of Miss Louise Moon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Moon, 2425 North Alabama street, and Harold L. Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ross, Frankfort, will take place at 11:30 this morning at the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church, with the Rev. William G. Hartinger officiating.

Evan Walker, accompanied by Miss Christine Housman, will sing.

The bride will be attended by Miss Helen Arzett, who will wear a brown traveling suit with accessories and carry a bronze chrysanthemum.

Mr. Ross and his bride will leave immediately for a trip through northern Michigan. They will be at home after Oct. 26 in Greenwood.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Butler university where Miss Moon was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Ross is a Sigma Chi.

BRIDE IN RITES TODAY

The marriage of Miss Louise Moon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Moon, 2425 North Alabama street, and Harold L. Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ross, Frankfort, will take place at 11:30 this morning at the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church, with the Rev. William G. Hartinger officiating.

Evan Walker, accompanied by Miss Christine Housman, will sing.

The bride will be attended by Miss Helen Arzett, who will wear a brown traveling suit with accessories and carry a bronze chrysanthemum.

Mr. Ross and his bride will leave immediately for a trip through northern Michigan. They will be at home after Oct. 26 in Greenwood.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Butler university where Miss Moon was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Ross is a Sigma Chi.

The marriage of Miss Louise Moon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Moon, 2425 North Alabama street, and Harold L. Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ross, Frankfort, will take place at 11:30 this morning at the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church, with the Rev. William G. Hartinger officiating.

Evan Walker, accompanied by Miss Christine Housman, will sing.

The bride will be attended by Miss Helen Arzett, who will wear a brown traveling suit with accessories and carry a bronze chrysanthemum.

Mr. Ross and his bride will leave immediately for a trip through northern Michigan. They will be at home after Oct. 26 in Greenwood.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Butler university where Miss Moon was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Ross is a Sigma Chi.

The marriage of Miss Louise Moon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Moon, 2425 North Alabama street, and Harold L. Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ross, Frankfort, will take place at 11:30 this morning at the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church, with the Rev. William G. Hartinger officiating.

Evan Walker, accompanied by Miss Christine Housman, will sing.

The bride will be attended by Miss Helen Arzett, who will wear a brown traveling suit with accessories and carry a bronze chrysanthemum.

Mr. Ross and his bride will leave immediately for a trip through northern Michigan. They will be at home after Oct. 26 in Greenwood.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Butler university where Miss Moon was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Ross is a Sigma Chi.

The marriage of Miss Louise Moon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Moon, 2425 North Alabama street, and Harold L. Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ross, Frankfort, will take place at 11:30 this morning at the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church, with the Rev. William G. Hartinger officiating.

Evan Walker, accompanied by Miss Christine Housman, will sing.

The bride will be attended by Miss Helen Arzett, who will wear a brown traveling suit with accessories and carry a bronze chrysanthemum.

Mr. Ross and his bride will leave immediately for a trip through northern Michigan. They will be at home after Oct. 26 in