

STATE GROTTO MEETING WILL ATTRACT 5,000

Arrangements Being Made for Annual Session Here Nov. 7.

Plans are being made for the annual meeting of the Indiana State Grotto Association, which is expected to bring 5,000 Veiled Prophets to Indianapolis on Saturday, Nov. 7.

Ten Indiana Grottos will take part, O. William Foster, chief of the Sahara Grotto and chairman of the convention committee, has announced.

Bands, drill teams and drum corps will take part in a mammoth street parade which will be a feature of the meeting. Michael F. Sculley is general chairman of the parade committee. Monarchs of the Indiana Grottos are vice-chairmen of the general committee.

Groups of neophytes from Anderson, Indianapolis, Richmond, Terre Haute, Evansville, South Bend, Elkhart, Ft. Wayne, Lafayette and East Chicago will form the state class to be initiated. Judge Delbert O. Wilmett, master of ceremonies of Sahara Grotto, is chairman of plans for initiation of the candidates.

Opening sessions will begin at 1 p. m. and will close with a state ceremonial for Veiled Prophets at 7 p. m. in the Murat theater. The parade of uniformed groups of all Indiana Grottos is scheduled for 3:15.

1,400 CHILDREN CARED FOR AT MOOSEHEART

Education Calculated to Spur Responsibility Carried Out.

MOOSEHEART, Ind., Oct. 12.—In the child city established by the Loyal Order of Moose, 1,400 dependent children of deceased members now are being taken care of by the order.

Progressive methods of education carried out are aimed to give the children inculcating responsibility for self-direction. The Mooseheart plan of practical education was prepared with the co-operation of Dr. Albert Bushnell Hart of Harvard university.

MASONS ARE URGED TO AID FUND DRIVE

Co-Operation With Community Chest Is Asked of All Members.

Urging that Masons co-operate with the Community Fund, Julian Wetzel, editor of the Landmarks, monthly bulletin published by lodge No. 319, F. & A. M., declares: "In the by-ways of this beautiful city of ours today stalks many a hungry, discouraged soul facing a hopeless winter."

"Children, of whom it can not be said, 'They should have prepared for this,' will cry from the pangs of hunger and the biting cold—unless we come quickly to their aid."

BROOKSIDE REBEKAHS TO HONOR FOUNDERS

Auxiliary Eightieth Anniversary to Be Observed Tuesday.

At an open meeting Tuesday night Brookside Rebekah lodge will celebrate the eightieth anniversary of the founding of Rebekah Odd Fellowship.

Degree work will be presented by Indianapolis auxiliary chapter No. 2. Annual inspection will be held at Logansport auxiliary Thursday night. Golen A. Smith, deputy grand master; Lawrence A. Handley, grand warden, and other lodge notables will be present.

MOOSE INITIATION TO END JUBILEE DRIVE

Campaign for Members Closes Friday; Ceremony at Temple.

Last initiation during the Moose silver jubilee drive will be conducted Tuesday night at the Moose temple, 135 North Delaware street. The campaign for members will close Friday.

Ritual and drill teams of Indianapolis took part in degree work at Elwood Sunday. Regular meeting of the Junior Legion was held Saturday afternoon.

WOODMEN PARLEY SET

Dedication of Bird Sanctuary to Draw Thousands.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 12.—Woodmen of the World will gather here Nov. 22 for dedication of the William Alexander Fraser chapel and bird sanctuary now under construction.

Exterior of the chapel will be of Indiana limestone. Dark oak with large ceiling beams will be used in the interior. The main stained glass window of the church will be a production of Tiffany.

The bird sanctuary is being built following a study of the Box tower and bird sanctuary in Florida and other structures in various parts of the world.

Week's O. E. S. Meetings

MONDAY

Englewood—Mrs. Edith McIntire, W. M.

Bridgeport—Mrs. Donna Bell, W. M.

Indianapolis—Mrs. Dimble Hadley, W. M.

Brook Grove—Mrs. Jeannette Lockwood, W. M.

West Newton—Mrs. Edith Jay, W. M.

Lyndhurst—Mrs. Nola McDermott, W. M.

WEDNESDAY

New Augusta—Mrs. Sylvia Swinford, W. M.

Nottis—Mrs. Randolph—Past matrons night, Mrs. Helen Wise, W. M.

Cumberland—Mrs. Lola Black, W. M.

FRIDAY

Queen Esther—Mrs. Rea Koehler, W. M.

Naomi—Mrs. Mabel Fuller, W. M.

GRAND MATRON DATES

Monday—Danville (group).

Tuesday—Lafayette.

Wednesday—Afternoon, 6:30.

Thursday—Afternoon, 6:30.

Friday—Afternoon, 6:30.

Saturday—Whitewater.

Cast of 125 Will Give Drama at Scottish Rite Cathedral

Masonic Symbolism to Be Portrayed by Cast of 125 Members.

Presentation of "The Master Builder," a ritualistic drama based on phases of Masonic symbolism, will be an outstanding event among October activities of the Scottish Rite.

A cast of 125 recruited from lodges in Marion county will offer "The Master Builder" for the first time in Scottish Rite history, on Thursday night beginning at 8.

Specially adapted and arranged by Charles P. Benedict, past grand master of the Grand Lodge of Indiana, F. and A. M., and a past master of Mystic Tie lodge No. 399, the production includes a prologue and sixteen scenes.

Pyke to Give Prologue

The prologue will be given by David C. Pyke, three potent master of Adoniram Grand Lodge of Perfection. Speaking parts will be taken by:

Arthur R. Baxter, Marshall T. Levy, John H. Smith, Lee S. Busch, John A. Reagan, Harold F. Entwistle, Pierre J. Collins, Bloomfield H. Moore, Vincent H. Smith, Gail H. Morehead, Rolande E. Claret, Clarence G. Martin, Scott W. William W. Pettie, Ezra H. Stewart, George W. Armstrong, Oswald A. Tallow, George H. Jennings, Ezra D. Hill and others.

Staged by Charles P. Benedict, general director of work for the Rite, the full complement of the cathedral's scenic, electric and other stage facilities, together with the Rite's histrionic and musical forces, will be utilized.

Accompaniment by Choir

Musical accompaniment will be provided by the Scottish Rite choir with Fred Newell Morris, director and soloist, and Frederic A. Barker, organist, assisted by the Murat Chorus of forty voices under direction of Arthur W. Madon with Hiram E. Stonecipher at the piano.

Mechanical department under direction of Mitchell includes Harry A. Phil, stage manager; Thomas B. Right, chief electrician; Ivan Shaw, property master; Charles C. Brault, master of the wardrobe; Averil Bryer, master of makeup; and Charles W. Read, scenic artist.

Presentation will be only for members of the Rite.

'FIVE STAR FINAL' BEST OF ITS KIND

Vern Boxell, Assistant Sports Editor of The Times, Pays High Tribute to 'The Spirit of Notre Dame.'

BY WALTER D. HICKMAN

WHEN I say that "Five Star Final" is the best of its kind, I am not speaking just empty words.

"The fact is that 'Five Star Final' is bigger and better theater than 'The Front Page,' and that is going some."

"Five Star Final" is a frank and at times brutal revelation of methods sometimes said to be used on tabloids in large cities to boost circulation at the expense of the happiness of an entire family.

In this story, Randall (played by Edward G. Robinson) digs up the past scandal of a woman who later married and by proper living redeemed her past by bringing up a lovely daughter.

Randall forces his bunch of newsmen to hound this Townsend family just as the daughter (Marian Marsh) is to wed a wealthy boy, played by Anthony Bushell in a fine, manly way. The daughter, never knowing the truth about her parentage, sees what the scandalous tabloid did to her mother and the man she called "father."

Both commit suicide and the daughter works out in so dire a manner to be a murderer, but—well, see the great climax to "Five Star Final" for that.

The conversation just is as plain as the nose on your face. And the ending, some of the hottest language, spoken and implied, that I have heard on the talking screen.

Well, you will all fall out of your seat when Robinson hurls the telephone through the air, telling the editor and publisher, telling him in uncertain tremors where to put the telephone.

I believe that Robinson is a better actor than he has ever been. He is character all the time, even when he gets on a souse. The paper he works on is so dirty that he is continually washing his hands.

And don't overlook the fine work of Frances Starr and of H. B. Warner as the Townsends who suffer the horror of scandal so much that they commit suicide. Here is really big acting.

I don't recall the name of the girl who plays the role of secretary to Randall, but she is immense. Her souse scene is one of the funniest I ever have seen on the screen.

Direction, photography and sound—all perfect. If you can stand high pressure entertainment, then this is your howling baby. To me it is a knockout.

Now at the Indiana.

LETTING BOXELL TELL YOU OF THIS ONE

I asked Vern Boxell, assistant sports editor of The Times to tell you of "The Spirit of Notre Dame," a great memorial to Knute Rockne.

Boxell's opinion of this picture is as follows:

If you thrill to a touchdown or if you're a movie fan who likes a life-like story told in human and appealing fashion, then "The Spirit of Notre Dame" will please you immensely.

Here is a great living, breathing and, I think, monument to a great man and a builder of the dominant figure of collegiate football history—Knute K. Rockne, late gridiron genius of the South Bend institution.

Throughout this appealing story is sprinkled the charm, the wit and the loving kindness that predominated in the Great Dane.

This is no review of the picture as a dramatic production, but as a dedication to the ideals and inspiring leader and a profound teacher.

Now at the Apollo.

CONSIDERING "A WOMAN OF EXPERIENCE"

So there can not be any misunderstanding, it is my opinion that Helen Twelveth and the director have made an awful mess of "A Woman of Experience," which is based on the stage play, "The Registered Woman."

The story is an unpleasant one and the director in rubbing in the bad mess did the picture no good. And I was sadly disappointed in the work of Miss Twelveth as the registered woman in Vienna, who learned that kept women and in hospitals during the war. She then becomes a member of the secret war police, assigned to get the evidence of a spy of high standing in the government. She wastes about three reels making violent love to a very nice young lad who thinks she is an angel. It is funny how so many nice young boys in the movies are mistaken in their women. Oh, dear me.

At no time does Miss Twelveth get the tempo of the character. She seemed even uncertain in her delivery. In other words, her performance left me cold and wishing the picture would end soon.

The best thing on the Circle bill this week is Chic Sale in "Cowslips," which is full of cow as well as slips.

Now at the Circle.

BILL HAINES IS REAL JOY THIS TIME

In "New Adventures of Gel-Rich-Quick Wallingford," Bill Haines is not the star, but one of the featured players along with Jimmy

"Schnozzle" Durante, Ernest Torrence and Lella Hyams. And this is the best Haines' movie I have seen in five years. You know that Haines is far from being a favorite of mine because of his jassack actions and overplaying. Not so in "Gel-Rich-Quick Wallingford." He is a mighty good actor. He is not guilty of overacting. It seems that his Wallingford role was just made for him. One more picture like this and the Haines name will be a real joy in movie land.

With Haines not being a star, all the others are given their opportunities to register. And you are going to love Jimmy Durante. This man is going to sit pretty in Hollywood for years to come. He is a natural comedian. He just about walks away with this picture at times. And Torrence is a better actor than "Blackie," another crook companion of the great Wallingford.

Am not going to tell you the story, because it is packed with smart surprises. Here is a real gloom chaser. It sure is a daisy. See it.

Now at the Palace.

The seat sale for "Blossom Time," which opens Wednesday night at English's, is now on.

Other theaters today offer: "Wicked" at the Lyric; "Sweepstakes" at the Ohio, and burlesque at the Mutual.

Horseback Riding Popular

KOKOMO, Ind., Oct. 12.—There is a revival of horseback riding in Kokomo, the city where the first automobile was perfected by Elwood Haynes, and which also was the home of Tod Sloan, famous race jockey.

Charles P. Benedict

David C. Pyke

B'NAI B'RITH WILL OPEN ITS SEASON

Lecture at Kirshbaum on 'Red Russia' to Be Year's First.

Indianapolis B'nai B'rith will hold its first open meeting of the year tonight at Kirshbaum Center, with Rabbi Samuel Wohl of Cincinnati, scheduled to give the principal address on "Red Russia." Rabbi Wohl's talk will be in the nature of a travelogue.

H. Joseph Hyman, president of the B'nai B'rith, has announced the appointment of standing committees for the season. They are:

Program—Samuel M. Messing, chairman; A. M. Goldstein, secretary; undersecretary—Meyer Gallin, Morris Strauss, Shlomo Milson, Sidney, Louis N. Gross, Sidney Sternberger, and Nathan Remick.

Entertainment—Sol Blumenthal, chairman; Harry A. Shapiro, Rufus Isaacs, Nathan Remick, Sam Hochman, Louis Bassier and Eph Levin.

Karshel, chairman; Leo Lefkowitz, Adrian Reiter, Saul Slunier, Theodore Feibelman, Abe Blatt and Sidney Sternberger.

Publicity—Morris Strauss, chairman; Fred Newman and Norman E. Isaac, Americanization—Jacob Weiss, chairman; Leo Kaminsky, Sol Blumenthal, Milton Sternberger and Robert Manus.

A. Z. A.—Leo Kaminsky, chairman; Jacob Weiss, Norman Isaacs, Sidney Rome and Alfred K. Berman.

Ritual—Henry Blatt, chairman; Leo Kaminsky, Eph Levin, Rufus Isaacs and Harry A. Shapiro.

Sick—Nathan Topkin, chairman. The B'nai B'rith luncheon club renewed its Friday noon meetings on Friday at the Lockber Hotel, with W. R. Allen, of L. S. Ayres & Co., as guest speaker. Hyman presided at the meeting.

Those in charge of programs for future Friday luncheons are: Oct. 16, Leo Lefkowitz; Oct. 23, Theodore Feibelman; Oct. 30, Sidney Sternberger.

inspiring leader and a profound teacher.

Now at the Apollo.

CONSIDERING "A WOMAN OF EXPERIENCE"

So there can not be any misunderstanding, it is my opinion that Helen Twelveth and the director have made an awful mess of "A Woman of Experience," which is based on the stage play, "The Registered Woman."

The story is an unpleasant one and the director in rubbing in the bad mess did the picture no good. And I was sadly disappointed in the work of Miss Twelveth as the registered woman in Vienna, who learned that kept women and in hospitals during the war. She then becomes a member of the secret war police, assigned to get the evidence of a spy of high standing in the government. She wastes about three reels making violent love to a very nice young lad who thinks she is an angel. It is funny how so many nice young boys in the movies are mistaken in their women. Oh, dear me.

At no time does Miss Twelveth get the tempo of the character. She seemed even uncertain in her delivery. In other words, her performance left me cold and wishing the picture would end soon.

The best thing on the Circle bill this week is Chic Sale in "Cowslips," which is full of cow as well as slips.

Now at the Circle.

BILL HAINES IS REAL JOY THIS TIME

In "New Adventures of Gel-Rich-Quick Wallingford," Bill Haines is not the star, but one of the featured players along with Jimmy

"Schnozzle" Durante, Ernest Torrence and Lella Hyams. And this is the best Haines' movie I have seen in five years. You know that Haines is far from being a favorite of mine because of his jassack actions and overplaying. Not so in "Gel-Rich-Quick Wallingford." He is a mighty good actor. He is not guilty of overacting. It seems that his Wallingford role was just made for him. One more picture like this and the Haines name will be a real joy in movie land.

With Haines not being a star, all the others are given their opportunities to register. And you are going to love Jimmy Durante. This man is going to sit pretty in Hollywood for years to come. He is a natural comedian. He just about walks away with this picture at times. And Torrence is a better actor than "Blackie," another crook companion of the great Wallingford.

Am not going to tell you the story, because it is packed with smart surprises. Here is a real gloom chaser. It sure is a daisy. See it.

Now at the Palace.

The seat sale for "Blossom Time," which opens Wednesday night at English's, is now on.

Other theaters today offer: "Wicked" at the Lyric; "Sweepstakes" at the Ohio, and burlesque at the Mutual.

Horseback Riding Popular

KOKOMO, Ind., Oct. 12.—There is a revival of horseback riding in Kokomo, the city where the first automobile was perfected by Elwood Haynes, and which also was the home of Tod Sloan, famous race jockey.

O. E. S. GROU TO CELEBRATE HOME-COMING

Past Matrons of Chapter to Preside at Session at Temple.

Home-coming will be celebrated by Nettie Ransford chapter, No. 464, Order of Eastern Star, Wednesday night at the Masonic temple, Forty-second street and College avenue.

Past matrons of the chapter will preside. Those to fill the offices of the chapter are: Violet Seilers, worthy matron; Salome Binkley, conductress; Marie Pier, chaplain; Katherine Foster, Ada; Frances Kyle, Ruth; Edna Mann, Esther; Ethel Armstrong, Martha, and Rose Malcom, grand conductress of the Indiana grand chapter, who will serve as Electa.

Work to Be Divided

Patrons' work will be divided among the following past patrons: Frank C. Sadler, J. Lewis Bray, E. Paul Nelson, Russell G. Kaster and Troy G. Thurston.

Mrs. Helen Wise is worthy matron and Lewis Malcom, worthy patron.

Orient chapter was host to Mrs. Diany Crist of Crawfordsville, worthy grand matron, on her official visit Friday night. Officers of the chapter formed an escort for the grand matron on her journey to the east.

Dedication Is Held

Grand officers with Mrs. Crist were Mesdames Laura Breckinridge, Abbie Hanson, past grand matrons; Harry Keller, past grand patron; Albert Phillips, associate grand patron. Other present were Mesdames Nettie Glass, May Nichols, Millie Gilmore, and Florence Smith.

A dedication ceremony was held for several babies whose mothers are officers of the chapter. Each grand officer was the recipient of a gift from the chapter.

Dinner was served in the dining room to 150 local and visiting members.

Murat Shrine

Chanters Face Full Program

John H. Holliday Jr. Post to Meet Tuesday.

October meeting of John H. Holliday Jr. post No. 186, American Legion, will be held Tuesday night at Tabernacle Presbyterian church, Thirty-fourth street and Central avenue.

Describing the events of the national convention of the American Legion held recently in Detroit, three members will make reports of the meetings and parades.

Past Commander Marshall Dale will talk on "My Impressions of the Convention." Glenn Crawford of national headquarters' staff, will speak on the business transacted, while Larry Helm will describe the handling of the traffic problem and parade.

New officers of the post are: Lawrence V. Sheridan, commander; Paul E. Middleton, first vice-commander; Wayne E. Temple, second vice-commander; Charles E. Beringer, adjutant; Cecil Weathers, finance officer; Dick Habbie, chaplain; Carey Shipley, historian; Wilbur M. McBeth, sergeant-at-arms, and Emil Elder, scribe officer.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000

The 1,700 Moose lodges in the United States have assets of more than $400,000.

MOOSE ASSETS $400,000