PUBLIC HOLDS FATE OF GANGLAND, CLUB TOLD

Ballots Only Lethal Answer to Bullets, Rotarians Hear.

Public ballots are the only lethal answer to gangland's bullets in Chicago or any other American city, C. Ray Hansen, Chicago attorney and former investigator, told the Rotary Club at its weekly luncheon Tuesday in the Claypool.

"Gangland met defeat at the polls last April in Chicago," Hansen said, "only because great numbers of respectable people voted."

The law is powerless against gangland until all public officials array themselves with it against public enemies, he said, citing as an example the use of habeas corpus writs by gangsters' lawyers with such effect that on one occasion a writ was at a police station before police arrived with their prisoner.
