

HITLER MAY ASK NEW ELECTIONS FOR REICHSTAG

Government Begs Neutrality During Approaching Conferences.

BERLIN, Jan. 8.—Adolph Hitler is willing to support an extension of President Paul von Hindenburg's term of office in exchange for important political concessions, a prominent member of Hitler's "Nazis" told the United Press today. It was believed Hitler would demand new Reichstag elections. The conference held Thursday between Hitler, Chancellor Heinrich Brüning and Wilhelm Groener, minister of defense and interior, aroused the greatest speculation among politicians. Extension of Hindenburg's term of office for one year was the main topic discussed. It was believed, however, that Brüning sought Hitler's support for at least "benevolent neutrality" during the Lausanne debts and reparations conference, and the world disarmament conference at Geneva. It was emphasized that the German government would not care to be "embarrassed" by extremist elements of Hitler's party while the important international discussions were under way. Hitler was said to have told Brüning that the Nazis will demand new Reichstag elections because the present parliament, chosen in September, 1930, does not represent the present sentiment of the country.

RITCHIE VOICES PRESIDENCY AIM

Maryland Governor First in Democratic Race.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 8.—Governor Albert Cabell Ritchie of Maryland, stood today as the first avowed candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, and the second for the presidency. The other candidate also a Marylander, is Joseph Irwin France, former senator, who wants the Republican nomination. Ritchie's candidacy, known for a long time, was announced formally last night amid song and jubilation at a local hotel. The occasion was a dinner of the Concord Club, at which Ritchie was the guest of honor. In announcing his candidacy he said: "Of course I would like to be President; who wouldn't?" While not announcing a detailed platform, Ritchie indicated he was opposed to "wholesale transfer of power from the people to centralized government," opposed to federal unemployment relief "pending disclosure of actual suffering," opposed to public ownership of "power, railroads or other utilities," opposed to excessive tariffs; opposed to cancellation of war debts; and opposed to national prohibition. COLLECT ESTATE TAXES Indiana Inheritance Levy Brings in $1,708,800 in 1931. Indiana collected $1,708,800.76 inheritance taxes on 2,005 estates during the fiscal year 1931. It was announced today by Clarence B. Ullum, state inheritance tax collector. Cost of collection was $40,343.98. The money goes into the general fund.

ROBBERY SERIES IS CLEARED UP

Convicted Negro Confesses North Side Thefts.

A convicted Negro today confessed to detectives he was the burglar who preyed on several north side homes a month ago. Henry Davis, 31, of 1511 Bundy place, sentenced three to ten years in the state prison last week, made his statement to officers today before he was taken to the institution. He was convicted on a second degree burglary charge in criminal court. Davis admitted entrance into seven north side residences, one of which he entered twice in twenty-four hours, in the list of robberies was the home of Mrs. C. H. Lieber, 1205 North Alabama street, where silverware and clothing were stolen Dec. 4. Davis told detectives he has the radio of Municipal Judge Thomas Garvin, 3610 North Pennsylvania street, in his possession. He said he did not steal it, but had bought it from an unidentified Negro boy.
