

IT TAKES A KING TO OVERCOME IT

BY JOE WILLIAMS

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—One of the Western Union's young gentlemen delivered a message to my desk. It reads:

"I am going to have Mickey Walker knock that Schmeling right in your lap, Jack Kearns."

Of course, it may be that Mr. Kearns feels I did not become sufficiently excited about the showing Walker made against Sharkey some time ago, and that he really intends to carry out his threat. Which will be the case, I do not know. I have always wanted to see a fight with a large heavyweight boxer in my lap, and I am sure that the other fellow has a new sense.

YOU know, of course, that he is going to manage Jack Dempsey. Personally, I think that when Mr. Kearns and Dempsey split, a great partnership went on the rocks. I also believe that whatever the one says about the other should be discounted at least 50 per cent.

But still it is interesting to hear what the boys say. In this particular instance, I can not offer, in rebuttal, the Dempsey side.

All I can do is present the feelings of Mr. Kearns, and you take it or leave it in the order named.

To begin with, let me say that I am surprised to hear that Mr. Kearns (think of the name) is one of the greatest heavyweights of all time.

It would never have matched Dempsey with "Tunney." I think that when Mr. Kearns and Dempsey split, a great partnership went on the rocks. I also believe that whatever the one says about the other should be discounted at least 50 per cent.

Bulldogs Win Again

Wabash Five Held to Three Field Goals: Michigan Five Next.

Victory No. 8 was added to the record of the Butler Bulldogs today, and it was one of the most impressive triumphs of the season. Pete Vaughn's scrappy Wabash snipers were the victims of a 24 to 11 drubbing at the fieldhouse Tuesday.

A brilliant defense which held the Scarlets snipers to long range efforts, and a fast breaking offense that sent Ray Miller and others under the nets for points gave Tony Hinkle the pastime's decision.

Both teams started slowly, and it was six minutes before either registered a point. Miller snatched the first, giving Butler a 6 to 2 edge, and the count mounted steadily to 15 to 4 at rest time.

With more than half of the second period remaining, Hinkle started running in his reserve pastime, and it was a busy evening for the score keepers. Twenty-two players seeing action, Butler used twelve players, Wabash ten.

Although Miller collected eleven points Bert Davis, a part-time forward, provided something for the fans to talk about when he tossed in two buckets during his short stay in action. Tackett again proved the backbone of the Bulldog defense, backbone of the Bulldog defense.

Three field goals were all Wabash could get. Only one was from under the hoop, a follow in by Browning, subcenter.

Girl Champs to Play Strauss Men

A member of the Taylor Trunks since the formation of the team in 1921, Miss Kruback is a star point getter. She usually is a stand-out in every game.

Close-up shots and baskets tossed from out on the floor are common feats registered by Violet.

Carey has announced he is after a right-handed hitter to play centerfield. Last year with Babe Herman in left, Lefty O'Doul in left and Johnny Frederick in center, the Robins lacked the punch at the plate when opposed by south-paw pitchers.

Clark, one of the hard-look pitchers of the majors, is considered one of the best southpaws in the National League. Baseball fans here feel Brooklyn would be getting the short end of the deal should Clark be traded for Rhem and Wilson.
