

CLUB ACTS AS MOTHERS' FOR ORPHAN GROUP

Fifty-Eight Women From All Parts of City Belong to No. 58 Society.

Fifty-eight women from all parts of the city belong to the School Mothers' Club of Ralph Waldo Emerson school No. 58, at 301 Linwood avenue.

Purpose of the club is to take care of the fifty-two children from the Indianapolis Orphans' Home who attend the school.

The club was formed by Mrs. Maude Moudy, principal, in order that the children might have some one to accompany them to Mother's day exercises.

Among the present activities of the club is supplying of books and magazines to the orphans' home. Teachers of the school aid in this work by giving subscriptions to current periodicals.

To date, more than 300 magazines have been sent to the children. Chairman of the magazine committee is Mrs. E. L. Ault. Mrs. H. A. Luckey is president of the club.

The club meets once a month. Committees keep in touch with Mrs. Moudy.

Membership in the club is limited to women who at present do not have children attending Emerson school.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT TO WIN EUROPE TRIP

League of Nations Association to Conduct Examination.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—A free trip to Europe will be given to some high school pupil in the United States, it was announced today by the League of Nations Association.

The trip will be given to the winner of the sixth national competitive examination on the League of Nations, to be held March 18.

Last year, Roland Rogers of Auburn, Wash., won the prize and the European voyage. Only one girl, Esther Lawrence of Buffalo, N. Y., has ever won the prize. She captured first honors in 1930.

Last year's entries numbered 1,226.

The examination is made up by the national advisory committee, which has a member in every state in the Union. Dr. G. Bromley Oxnam, president of De Pauw university, is the Indiana member.

MARIONETTE PLAY IS PRESENTED AT SCHOOL

Project of Benjamin Franklin No. 36 Written by Eighth Grades.

"Dear Son" is the title of the marionette play, staged at Benjamin Franklin school No. 36, at 2201 North Capitol avenue, at 2 this afternoon, before the Parent-Teacher Association of the school.

The play is a term project of the 8A class. It was written by the pupils.

Scenery was made by Evamarie Rupert, Vernon Striebel, Jean Sanders, Richard Brag and David Grant.

In charge of tapestries were Helen Clossin, Mary Ellen Billeter, Isabel Ager, Mary Abrams, Jean Beal and Charles Strode.

Jane Hawkins made the clay marionette heads.

Directing the play was Miss Lucia Ketcham, teacher of English and music.

FROLIC CHIEFS NAMED

Mid-Year Entertainment Plans Are Made at Washington High.

Committees in charge of arrangements for the mid-year frolic of the senior class of Washington high school were announced Friday by Kenneth McCaslin, class president.

The frolic will be given in the school auditorium, Jan. 25. The committees are as follows:

Finance Committee—La Verne Conway, Edwin Darnell, Josephine Halbing, Burel Marvel, Kenneth Scott and Frank Yager.

Entertainment Committee—Norman Long, Kathryn Murphy, Fay Miller, James Donett and Thelma Boldman.

Decorations and Order Committee—Ruth Walters, Geraldine Britton, Robert Hedge, Harley Benson, Allen Harlan, Juanita Jones, Mildred Forester, Ray Baker, Ruth Hollowell and Edward Hise.

Refreshment Committee—Ethel Chikl, Harriet Potts, William Kuntz, Richard Ferrine and Dorothy Mae Sline.

CAGE CAPTAINS NAMED

Seven Leaders Appointed for Tech Girls' Basketball Teams.

Captains for the seven girls' basketball teams at Arsenal Technical high school were named Friday by Mrs. Hazel Abbe and Miss Grace Knight, physical training instructors.

Merle Hobbs, Jane Kelly, Isabel Sommers, Edith Patrick, Dorothy Cheezum, Ruth Thompson and Pauline Winings are the new leaders of the teams, which practice four days a week in the girls' gym.

No Snacks Out of Sacks for Youths of Opportunity Class

From start to finish these boys prepare their own lunches. Robert Bosley, 819 Stillwell street, is shown at the right at Clemens Vonnegut school No. 8, Vermont and Fulton streets. Harry Ware, 1449 Roosevelt avenue, seen washing the pots and pans, is finishing the job.

From Start to Finish, Boys Prepare Lunches at School 8.

To the ladies! These boys, members of the opportunity class at Clemens Vonnegut school No. 8, Vermont and Fulton streets, do the cooking.

And the girls do the eating. The boys in the class are "there" when it comes to the culinary art.

They'll let you know in a hurry that there will be no delicatessens in their lives. If any of them should happen to draw a wife who can't cook, they'll enjoy that happy home scene about the supper table every evening just the same.

From All Parts of City

Every noon these boys, who come from all parts of the city for the special classes at Vonnegut school, prepare one hot dish, which they add to their lunch brought from home.

Their schedule of hot dishes includes chile, creamed chicken, creamed potatoes and bean, potato and vegetable soup. In addition, cocoa is served from time to time. The boys serve about fifty lunches a day. Several of the teachers have gotten the "eat-lunch-at-school" habit since the cooking was started in November.

The class is divided into committees and sub-committees. The cooking committee is, of course, the most important.

Girls Do Their Parts

The inspection committee applies the "cleanliness is next to godliness" maxim, and keeps the room, the tables and the dishes spot and span. In addition, this committee enforces the rule about washing hands before meals, and keeps the pupils orderly during lunch.

The serving committee sets the tables and waits on the "customers." The girls of the class, as their part, launder and mend the aprons and towels. This work is done under direction of Mrs. Josephine L. R. Abbe.

They also make table decorations and place cards for special occasions.

The boys work under the direction of Miss Clara Rodebaugh and Miss Mabel Ince. Miss Efa Mahoney is in charge of the dishwashing.

Harry E. Wood, vocational education and manual training director of public schools, will speak on "Fingers and Thumbs" during the fourth weekly broadcast of the schools over WKBF from 9 to 9:30 tonight.

Also on the program will be the girls' glee club, the concert ensemble, and the octette, of Crispus Attucks high school.

The glee club will sing "The Heavens Are Telling," by Haydn. "I'm So Glad Troubles Don't Last Always," by Dett, and "Valley of Summer Flowers," by Swart.

Songs by the ensemble will be "Fatima," by Ascher, "Angel's Serenade," by Broga, and "Loin du Bal," by Gillet.

The octette will sing "Homings," by Del Riego.

PERFECT SCORE IS MADE

Only One Tech Pupil Out of 428 Completes Test Without Error.

Dorothy Guttschick, a student in C. E. Trueblood's geometry II class at Technical high school, was the only pupil out of 428 to make a perfect score in a recent departmental test on proportion and similarity.

WILLARD ART WORK WILL BE PUT ON DISPLAY

Copies of Famous Designs in Pottery to Go on Exhibition.

Activities and attainments of the art club of Frances Willard school No. 80, at Bellefontaine and Sixty-second streets, will be shown in an exhibit to be given in the school auditorium Friday.

The display will show copies of the work of famous potters, reflecting the club's interest in pottery making during the last semester.

Talks will be made by Merrill Tucker, 1016 East Fifty-ninth street, on "Primitive Pottery," by Charles Van Meter, 655 College avenue, on "French Pottery," by Adele L. Braico, 6115 Carrollton avenue, on "Indian Pottery," by Kenneth Biddinger, 5931 Indiana avenue, on "Wedgewood Pottery," by Virginia Taylor, 6365 Park avenue, on "Rockwood Pottery," by Catherine Calkins, 6130 Crittendon avenue, on "Van Briggie Pottery."

The talks will describe the distinguishing characteristics of each of the different kinds of pottery. Examples of each will be shown.
