

HOOVER FACES JOB OF FILLING HOLMES' POST

Coolidge Believed Certain of Consideration for Supreme Bench.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—President Hoover today began going over the roster of the leading members of the American bar and judiciary for a successor to Oliver Wendell Holmes in the supreme court.

Justice Holmes resigned Tuesday. He had been in declining health for some time, and gave this as his reason. He will be 91 in March.

Hoover set about at once seeking a man of sufficient caliber to nominate for this high office. The United Press learned authoritatively that a list of possibilities even now being drawn up and will be submitted for his consideration. Should this list fail to produce a candidate upon whom immediate agreement can be reached, the President probably will confer personally with the most likely of the lot.

Coolidge a Possibility

In that list, the United Press learned, the following names probably will be included:

Calvin Coolidge, former President, Roscoe Pound, dean of the Harvard law school.

William D. Mitchell, attorney-general.

Benjamin N. Cardozo, chief judge New York court of appeals.

William S. Kenyon, United States circuit judge of Iowa and former senator.

Warren Olney Jr., lawyer of San Francisco.

Curtis D. Wilbur, United States circuit judge of California, and former secretary of the navy.

Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war.

John W. Davis, former ambassador to Great Britain and democratic presidential candidate in 1924.

Taft Precedent Recalled

The name of Calvin Coolidge particularly was intriguing to many persons in Washington. There would be ample precedent for the appointment of a former President in the case of William Howard Taft, who served several years on the court.

It also was pointed out in some quarters that his appointment might answer effectively the perennial question of what to do with Coolidge.

Dean Pound long has been a close associate of Hoover, and was a member of the Wickersham commission. He has had a distinguished legal career, and has been mentioned previously for the supreme court. He is 62.

Coolidge Regarded Highly

Attorney General Mitchell's father was a distinguished Minnesota jurist, and his son has followed in his footsteps. He is 56.

Cardozo has been an international reputation, and has served for several years as the law court of New York. He is said to be regarded highly by both political parties, and has received honorary degrees from many leading universities. He is 61.

Should Baker or Davis, both outstanding Democrats, be named, it would be partially for the purpose of "balancing" the court, since some feel it now is too heavy with Republicans. There is some doubt, however, whether Baker would accept, in view of his presidential possibilities.

WALKER GOES FREE ON BOND OF $1,000

Released on Habeas Corpus
Writ in Contempt
Case.

John F. (Bull Moose) Walker, bondsman and politician, was free on bail from the Marion county jail today, pending a hearing on habeas corpus proceedings, set for Saturday.

Walker was released Tuesday afternoon by Superior Judge Joseph R. Williams.

At the same time, Norval Buckley, the signing of whose bond brought a contempt of court charge against Walker, was released by Earle E. McFerren, judge pro tem, in superior court three.

Bond at $1,000

Judge Williams released Walker on $1,000 bond, after hearing a petition for writ of habeas corpus, filed by his attorneys, Humphrey C. Harrington, Robert R. Dalton and Taylor E. Groninger.

The petition set forth that Walker had been sent to jail by Municipal Judge William E. Sheaffer, on a charge of direct contempt of court, without notice of any offense to the court.

The Walker sentence was described in the petition as "a flagrant denial of due process of law."

Failed to State Act

The court failed to state any act or word that was direct contempt of court, the writ petition further stated.

Judge Sheaffer had barred Walker from signing bonds of persons charged in his court. Walker was
