

VIRGINIA HILLS SEARCHED FOR NEGRO SLAYER

Ex-Convict Suspected in Hammer Deaths; Eludes
Posses.

By United Press
MIDDLEBURG, Va., Jan. 15.— Loudoun county police today searched every nook and cranny in their jurisdiction for the murderer of Mrs. Agnes Boeing Isley and her aged maid, Mrs. Anna Buckner.
The hunt for George Crawford, Negro ex-convict suspected in the case, shifted back to Middleburg after failure of Washington police to apprehend him. Authorities now believe he may have returned to the vicinity.
Suspicion of Crawford's guilt increased today when it developed Mrs. Isley had sworn out a warrant charging him with robbery of her uncle New Year's eve. He disappeared after the warrant was issued.

Last week Mrs. Isley went to Washington and consulted a detective agency regarding a search for Crawford and protection for herself pending his arrest.
Not many days later she was dead, brutally beaten to death in her bedroom. Bits of brown skin and negro hair were found under her fingernails.
Crawford was last reported seen in Washington, driving what appeared to be a car stolen from the Isley home at the time of the murder.
Five Negroes are being held in Virginia as material witnesses. One is understood to be Crawford's sweetheart, and all have admitted they know him.
Fear of mob violence is believed behind the extreme secrecy police are maintaining. While they admit none of those under arrest is a principal in the case, nevertheless they refuse to divulge the names of any of them.
Mrs. Isley's funeral will be held today at Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal church, and the body will be sent to Milwaukee.

duction of synthetic camphor, fol-

SAFES RESIST YEGGS' BLOWS

Equitable Securities Office
Looted; Nothing Taken.

Yegmen early today failed in an effort to break into two large safes in the offices of the Equitable Securities Company, 219 East Ohio street.
Combinations and handles were battered off of each vault, and files were pried open. Valuable papers were strewn over the entire office.
Nothing was taken, according to officials of the company.
The yegmen gained entrance by removing a rear window. All phone and light wires were cut.
John Loudon, merchant policeman, said the robbery occurred about midnight, as he had passed the offices an hour before, and found the safety light burning.
Donald Jameson, 4644 Central avenue, is president of the company.
