

N. B. A. FIGHTS JUST SCHMELING AS CHAMPION

Mitt Heads Franklin Here for Two Battles

Failure to Defend Title Is Reason; Walker Forfeit Is Returned.

BY GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Recognition of Max Schmeling of Germany as world's heavyweight boxing champion virtually was withdrawn today by the National Boxing Association because of his failure to defend the title within six months, leaving him in the position of a king without a country.

Schmeling won recognition as champion by winning on a foul from Jack Sharkey in New York June 12, 1930. The German defended the title against W. L. (Young) Stribling at Cleveland July 3, 1931, winning on a technical knockout in the fifteenth round. Thus in eighteen months he has defended his title only once.

Ouster Is Severe

Schmeling never has been recognized as champion by the New York state athletic commission. Inasmuch as the N. B. A. is the governing body in twenty-nine states and affiliated with the boxing commissions of Quebec, Montreal, Porto Rico, Cuba and Mexico, and the British board of boxing control and the International Boxing Union, governing the body of continental Europe, Schmeling is now no more champion than Jack Dempsey, retired title holder preparing for a comeback.

General John V. Cline, president of the N. B. A., today mailed back to Joe Jacobs, manager of Schmeling, a check for $2,500 posted with the N. B. A. as a forfeit, binding a match with Mickey Walker at Miami, Fla., Feb. 25.

The Schmeling-Walker match has been abandoned, and Schmeling gets his $2,500 back because Walker never had a fight.

In the regular weekly bulletin of the N. B. A. issued every Friday, the formal question of vacating Schmeling's title will be submitted for vote. This is merely a matter of form and under the N. B. A.'s six-months rule Schmeling has deprived himself of recognition as title holder by refusal to fight.

Loses Champ's Share

The fact Schmeling is now negotiating for a match with Jack Sharkey in June will have no effect on his present status, according to N. B. A. rules. If Schmeling goes through with a match with Sharkey, which is uncertain in view of the fact that he has dodged him for eighteen months, the public probably would recognize the winner as champion.

The main penalty placed on Schmeling by the N. B. A.'s action is that he can not claim the champion's end of 37 1/2 per cent in N. B. A. territory. For instance, in a match with Sharkey, the German probably would have to take 25 per cent with the same division going to the Bostonian.

Off THE BACKBOARD

BY VERN BOXELL

GLENN CURTIS has pulled another smart. Several weeks ago old Backboard, stumbled into joyful Glenn in some town or other. Like your correspondent, Mr. Curtis was there to see a basketball game, and you can bet he had a good reason.

"Aw, I haven't got much this year," said Mr. Curtis.

If Mr. Curtis doesn't "have much this year," I'm wondering what he calls victories over Vincennes, Tech and Shortridge in three consecutive games.

For the first time in a long, long time Mr. Curtis attended the state tournament as a spectator in 1931. His Artesians lost to Wiley of Terre Haute in the regionals. But he'll be back this year. He's getting stronger now, which is cheerful news to Martinsville.

Back a few weeks ago, Mr. Everett Case broke his neck about Bedford having no right to beat Newcastle. It was all an accident, according to Mr. Case, and he was there to see the fight. He's getting stronger now, which is cheerful news to Martinsville.

For the first time in a long, long time Mr. Curtis attended the state tournament as a spectator in 1931. His Artesians lost to Wiley of Terre Haute in the regionals. But he'll be back this year. He's getting stronger now, which is cheerful news to Martinsville.

Back a few weeks ago, Mr. Everett Case broke his neck about Bedford having no right to beat Newcastle. It was all an accident, according to Mr. Case, and he was there to see the fight. He's getting stronger now, which is cheerful news to Martinsville.

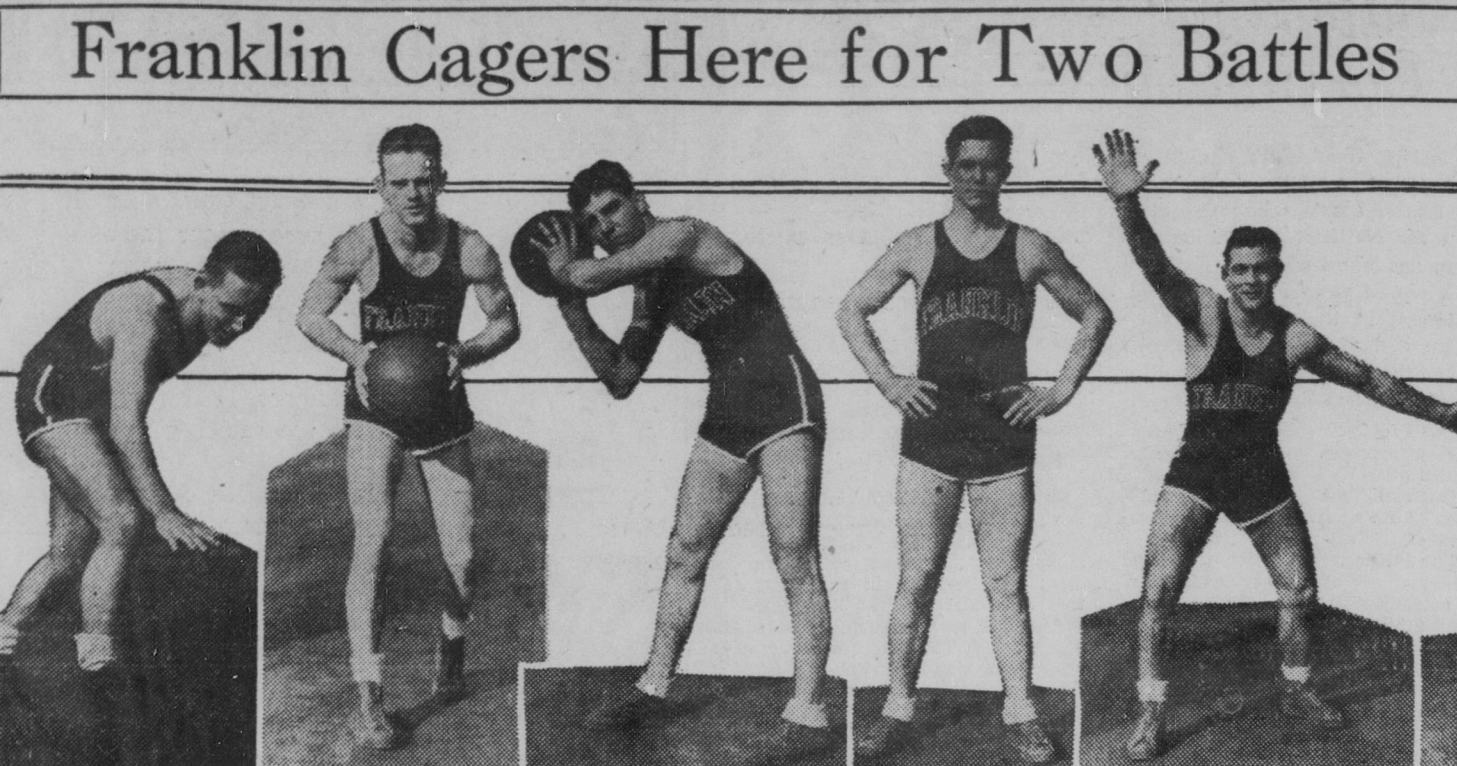

For the first time in a long, long time Mr. Curtis attended the state tournament as a spectator in 1931. His Artesians lost to Wiley of Terre Haute in the regionals. But he'll be back this year. He's getting stronger now, which is cheerful news to Martinsville.

Back a few weeks ago, Mr. Everett Case broke his neck about Bedford having no right to beat Newcastle. It was all an accident, according to Mr. Case, and he was there to see the fight. He's getting stronger now, which is cheerful news to Martinsville.

For the first time in a long, long time Mr. Curtis attended the state tournament as a spectator in 1931. His Artesians lost to Wiley of Terre Haute in the regionals. But he'll be back this year. He's getting stronger now, which is cheerful news to Martinsville.

Back a few weeks ago, Mr. Everett Case broke his neck about Bedford having no right to beat Newcastle. It was all an accident, according to Mr. Case, and he was there to see the fight. He's getting stronger now, which is cheerful news to Martinsville.

For the first time in a long, long time Mr. Curtis attended the state tournament as a spectator in 1931. His Artesians lost to Wiley of Terre Haute in the regionals. But he'll be back this year. He's getting stronger now, which is cheerful news to Martinsville.

Left to Right—Eugene Buchanan, Franklin, guard; Burke Anderson, Franklin, guard; Loy Underwood, Franklin, guard; Donald Brewer, Franklin, center and forward; Walter Surface, Greenwood, forward.

Jadick Jabs Junior Welter Crown Off Canzoneri's Head

BY UNITED PRESS

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 19.—"Gentleman" Johnny Jadick of Philadelphia was the new junior welterweight boxing champion of the world today, thanks to a left jab.

He won the title from Tony Canzoneri of New York Monday night in a furious ten-round battle at the arena here.

Canzoneri's lightweight title was not at stake, because Jadick was over the lightweight limit of 135 pounds. Tony lost the junior welterweight championship which he won from Jackie (Kid) Berg of England at Chicago, April 24, 1931.

The slender, clean-cut Philadelphia pugilist avoided most of Tony's blows, and kept the New York Italian's head bobbing with a tattoo of left jabs to the face. Now and then he would follow with a fast right to the head, but his blows lacked Tony's steam.

Tony's face was puffed and swollen when he left the ring. Jadick's jabbing won him most of the late rounds.

Despite his phantom-like footwork and splendid blocking, Jadick suffered severe punishment. In the first round a crashing left hook caught him on the jaw and knocked him half way across the ring. He was dazed for several seconds.

In the second round a hard left jab to the jaw floored him for the count of four. In the sixth round a barrage of right and left hooks to body and head had him staggering about the ring.

But Philadelphia's gentleman pugilist avoided most of Tony's blows, and kept the New York Italian's head bobbing with a tattoo of left jabs to the face. Now and then he would follow with a fast right to the head, but his blows lacked Tony's steam.

Tony's face was puffed and swollen when he left the ring. Jadick's jabbing won him most of the late rounds.

Despite his phantom-like footwork and splendid blocking, Jadick suffered severe punishment. In the first round a crashing left hook caught him on the jaw and knocked him half way across the ring. He was dazed for several seconds.

In the second round a hard left jab to the jaw floored him for the count of four. In the sixth round a barrage of right and left hooks to body and head had him staggering about the ring.

But Philadelphia's gentleman pugilist avoided most of Tony's blows, and kept the New York Italian's head bobbing with a tattoo of left jabs to the face. Now and then he would follow with a fast right to the head, but his blows lacked Tony's steam.

Tony's face was puffed and swollen when he left the ring. Jadick's jabbing won him most of the late rounds.

Despite his phantom-like footwork and splendid blocking, Jadick suffered severe punishment. In the first round a crashing left hook caught him on the jaw and knocked him half way across the ring. He was dazed for several seconds.

In the second round a hard left jab to the jaw floored him for the count of four. In the sixth round a barrage of right and left hooks to body and head had him staggering about the ring.

But Philadelphia's gentleman pugilist avoided most of Tony's blows, and kept the New York Italian's head bobbing with a tattoo of left jabs to the face. Now and then he would follow with a fast right to the head, but his blows lacked Tony's steam.

Tony's face was puffed and swollen when he left the ring. Jadick's jabbing won him most of the late rounds.

Despite his phantom-like footwork and splendid blocking, Jadick suffered severe punishment. In the first round a crashing left hook caught him on the jaw and knocked him half way across the ring. He was dazed for several seconds.

In the second round a hard left jab to the jaw floored him for the count of four. In the sixth round a barrage of right and left hooks to body and head had him staggering about the ring.

But Philadelphia's gentleman pugilist avoided most of Tony's blows, and kept the New York Italian's head bobbing with a tattoo of left jabs to the face. Now and then he would follow with a fast right to the head, but his blows lacked Tony's steam.

Tony's face was puffed and swollen when he left the ring. Jadick's jabbing won him most of the late rounds.

Despite his phantom-like footwork and splendid blocking, Jadick suffered severe punishment. In the first round a crashing left hook caught him on the jaw and knocked him half way across the ring. He was dazed for several seconds.

State Rivals Renew Fued

BY TIMES SPECIAL

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 19.—Two of Indiana's oldest court rivals were hard at work today on their home hardwoods in preparation for a renewal of their annual feud here Wednesday night. Pete Vaughn expects his Wabash pastime to turn in their best performance of the season when they battle De Pauw.

De Pauw, still leading the Buckeye Conference, despite last week's loss to Miami, the first setback of the season, also is expecting a hard battle. Frosh quints from the rival schools clash in the curtain raiser at 7 p. m.

With a strong season record, which includes a win over the speedy Ball State five, Franklin is expected to cause plenty of trouble for the local quints.

Indiana Central has won its last three starts, including among its victims Franklin, Earlham and Danville Normal.

Franklin will be the fifth Hoosier foe of the season on the Butler card Friday. Coach Hinkle had his squad out again today for another hard drill.

Other varsity pastimers with the Badists, not shown in the above group, are Robert Wimmer of Frankfort, Tom Downey of Michigantown, Herbert Holts, Frankfort; Edward Cuddy of Coolidge, William Staples of Columbus, Harold Owens of Franklin and Francis Kline of Columbus.

With a strong season record, which includes a win over the speedy Ball State five, Franklin is expected to cause plenty of trouble for the local quints.

Indiana Central has won its last three starts, including among its victims Franklin, Earlham and Danville Normal.

Franklin will be the fifth Hoosier foe of the season on the Butler card Friday. Coach Hinkle had his squad out again today for another hard drill.

Other varsity pastimers with the Badists, not shown in the above group, are Robert Wimmer of Frankfort, Tom Downey of Michigantown, Herbert Holts, Frankfort; Edward Cuddy of Coolidge, William Staples of Columbus, Harold Owens of Franklin and Francis Kline of Columbus.

With a strong season record, which includes a win over the speedy Ball State five, Franklin is expected to cause plenty of trouble for the local quints.

Indiana Central has won its last three starts, including among its victims Franklin, Earlham and Danville Normal.

Franklin will be the fifth Hoosier foe of the season on the Butler card Friday. Coach Hinkle had his squad out again today for another hard drill.

Other varsity pastimers with the Badists, not shown in the above group, are Robert Wimmer of Frankfort, Tom Downey of Michigantown, Herbert Holts, Frankfort; Edward Cuddy of Coolidge, William Staples of Columbus, Harold Owens of Franklin and Francis Kline of Columbus.

With a strong season record, which includes a win over the speedy Ball State five, Franklin is expected to cause plenty of trouble for the local quints.

Indiana Central has won its last three starts, including among its victims Franklin, Earlham and Danville Normal.

Franklin will be the fifth Hoosier foe of the season on the Butler card Friday. Coach Hinkle had his squad out again today for another hard drill.

Other varsity pastimers with the Badists, not shown in the above group, are Robert Wimmer of Frankfort, Tom Downey of Michigantown, Herbert Holts, Frankfort; Edward Cuddy of Coolidge, William Staples of Columbus, Harold Owens of Franklin and Francis Kline of Columbus.

With a strong season record, which includes a win over the speedy Ball State five, Franklin is expected to cause plenty of trouble for the local quints.

Indiana Central has won its last three starts, including among its victims Franklin, Earlham and Danville Normal.

Franklin will be the fifth Hoosier foe of the season on the Butler card Friday. Coach Hinkle had his squad out again today for another hard drill.

Other varsity pastimers with the Badists, not shown in the above group, are Robert Wimmer of Frankfort, Tom Downey of Michigantown, Herbert Holts, Frankfort; Edward Cuddy of Coolidge, William Staples of Columbus, Harold Owens of Franklin and Francis Kline of Columbus.

With a strong season record, which includes a win over the speedy Ball State five, Franklin is expected to cause plenty of trouble for the local quints.

Indiana Central has won its last three starts, including among its victims Franklin, Earlham and Danville Normal.

5 Bouts on Legion Bill

Fireo and Saitis in Top Ten; Eley Fases Koski.

Ten Rounds—Henry Fireo, Louisville vs. Bud Saitis, Chicago; middleweight. Ten Rounds—Saitis, Koski, Worcester, Mass., vs. Carl Eley, Muncie, Ind. Six Rounds—Al Holder, Worcester, Mass., vs. Jack Malone, Indianapolis; heavyweight.

Six Rounds—Homer Sheridan, Sioux City, vs. Tab Vitt, Franklin; light-heavy. Six Rounds—Red River, Vincennes, vs. Red Holloway, Indianapolis; welter.

Henry Fireo, who recently was the victim of what the press wires termed an "unpopular" decision in his semi-finals scrap with Gorilla Jones in the N. B. A. middleweight championship tourney at Milwaukee, will be making his third local showing when he faces Bud Saitis here tonight at the armory.

Both Fireo and Saitis came to town Monday, the latter being accompanied by his manager, Marty Cutler, who is credited with being the "discoverer" of Jess Willard. Cutler maintains he has a real contender in Saitis and points to the string of eleven straight wins by the young city youngster, with only two knockouts over Ted Ross and Joe Sharkey, and a draw with Ray Trumble.

The winner of tonight's feature will meet Trumble at the armory two weeks from tonight, according to announcement of matchmaker Gerald Ely of the legion. Trumble is now fighting in Florida, but will return here next week. Tonight's show will start promptly at 8:15.

Indiana Central has won its last three starts, including among its victims Franklin, Earlham and Danville Normal.

Franklin will be the fifth Hoosier foe of the season on the Butler card Friday. Coach Hinkle had his squad out again today for another hard drill.

Other varsity pastimers with the Badists, not shown in the above group, are Robert Wimmer of Frankfort, Tom Downey of Michigantown, Herbert Holts, Frankfort; Edward Cuddy of Coolidge, William Staples of Columbus, Harold Owens of Franklin and Francis Kline of Columbus.

With a strong season record, which includes a win over the speedy Ball State five, Franklin is expected to cause plenty of trouble for the local quints.

Indiana Central has won its last three starts, including among its victims Franklin, Earlham and Danville Normal.

Franklin will be the fifth Hoosier foe of the season on the Butler card Friday. Coach Hinkle had his squad out again today for another hard drill.

Other varsity pastimers with the Badists, not shown in the above group, are Robert Wimmer of Frankfort, Tom Downey of Michigantown, Herbert Holts, Frankfort; Edward Cuddy of Coolidge, William Staples of Columbus, Harold Owens of Franklin and Francis Kline of Columbus.

With a strong season record, which includes a win over the speedy Ball State five, Franklin is expected to cause plenty of trouble for the local quints.

Indiana Central has won its last three starts, including among its victims Franklin, Earlham and Danville Normal.

Franklin will be the fifth Hoosier foe of the season on the Butler card Friday. Coach Hinkle had his squad out again today for another hard drill.

Other varsity pastimers with the Badists, not shown in the above group, are Robert Wimmer of Frankfort, Tom Downey of Michigantown, Herbert Holts, Frankfort; Edward Cuddy of Coolidge, William Staples of Columbus, Harold Owens of Franklin and Francis Kline of Columbus.

With a strong season record, which includes a win over the speedy Ball State five, Franklin is expected to cause plenty of trouble for the local quints.

Indiana Central has won its last three starts, including among its victims Franklin, Earlham and Danville Normal.

Franklin will be the fifth Hoosier foe of the season on the Butler card Friday. Coach Hinkle had his squad out again today for another hard drill.

Other varsity pastimers with the Badists, not shown in the above group, are Robert Wimmer of Frankfort, Tom Downey of Michigantown, Herbert Holts, Frankfort; Edward Cuddy of Coolidge, William Staples of Columbus, Harold Owens of Franklin and Francis Kline of Columbus.

With a strong season record, which includes a win over the speedy Ball State five, Franklin is expected to cause plenty of trouble for the local quints.

Indiana Central has won its last three starts, including among its victims Franklin, Earlham and Danville Normal.

Franklin will be the fifth Hoosier foe of the season on the Butler card Friday. Coach Hinkle had his squad out again today for another hard drill.

Other varsity pastimers with the Badists, not shown in the above group, are Robert Wimmer of Frankfort, Tom Downey of Michigantown, Herbert Holts, Frankfort; Edward Cuddy of Coolidge, William Staples of Columbus, Harold Owens of Franklin and Francis Kline of Columbus.

With a strong season record, which includes a win over the speedy Ball State five, Franklin is expected to cause plenty of trouble for the local quints.

Indiana Central has won its last three starts, including among its victims Franklin, Earlham and Danville Normal.

Franklin will be the fifth Hoosier foe of the season on the Butler card Friday. Coach Hinkle had his squad out again today for another hard drill.

Other varsity pastimers with the Badists, not shown in the above group, are Robert Wimmer of Frankfort, Tom Downey of Michigantown, Herbert Holts, Frankfort; Edward Cuddy of Coolidge, William Staples of Columbus, Harold Owens of Franklin and Francis Kline of Columbus.

Frankfort Five Tests G. & J. in Feature Cage Charity Battle

Two feature cage struggles are carded on the Made Work fund benefit program at the Armory Saturday night, it was announced today.

In the feature tussle, G. and J. Ture five, rated one of the strongest independent outfits in the state, will tackle Frankfort Merchants, composed of former Frankfort high school stars.

In the opening tilt at 8 p. m., Eli Lilly quintet, strong local squad, will battle a city rival, Kingan & Co. Among the well-known cage stars who will perform in the feature tilt are Gene Gilmore, Carl Hart and Paul Gross, former Washington Hatch players; Hickory Adams, Buck House, Pete House, Shook House, John Farmer and Ralph McGuire of the G. and J. team, and Red Thompson, Shimmy Unroe, Happy Unroe, Charley Lawhead, Bill Armentrout and Curly Armentrout of the 1929 state championship Frankfort team.

Among the major recommendations were the following:

1. Reorganization of athletic council, giving the university president more and the student less control over athletics.

2. Abolishment of directive coaching during football games and of secret practice.

3. Elimination of out of season practice in football and basketball except for freshmen.

4. Prohibiting scouting as far as possible without return to spring semester.

5. Requirement of affidavit from every athlete showing source of personal income.

6. A new definition by the Big Ten of amateurism, not so technical as to be practically impossible of enforcement in other inter-collegiate sports by a student who earns money during summer playing baseball.

7. Reduction of coaching staff and salary to faculty level three years after permanent job after the Wisconsin faculty will vote on the recommendations Feb. 8 and the result will be submitted to the Big Ten. If only a few of the conference members agree to the recommendations, the committee recommends that Wisconsin withdraw from the Big Ten and refuse to compete with schools which do not enforce similar rules.

Retention of George Little, athletic director who resigned at the request of the athletic council, was scheduled to come before the board of regents today. It was considered likely Little will get the post of director of intramural sports under the new policy of divided intramural and intercollegiate athletics.

The members of the faculty committee which made the recommendations are H. C. Bradley, chemistry professor; Roy Brown, professor in law; Frank C. Sharp, philosophy professor, and Warren Weaver, mathematics professor.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Larry Shapiro, substituting for Shipley, defeated Joe Murphy in a state three-cushion billiard tourney match Monday, 50 to 34, in 107 innings.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Larry Shapiro, substituting for Shipley, defeated Joe Murphy in a state three-cushion billiard tourney match Monday, 50 to 34, in 107 innings.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Larry Shapiro, substituting for Shipley, defeated Joe Murphy in a state three-cushion billiard tourney match Monday, 50 to 34, in 107 innings.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Larry Shapiro, substituting for Shipley, defeated Joe Murphy in a state three-cushion billiard tourney match Monday, 50 to 34, in 107 innings.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Larry Shapiro, substituting for Shipley, defeated Joe Murphy in a state three-cushion billiard tourney match Monday, 50 to 34, in 107 innings.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Larry Shapiro, substituting for Shipley, defeated Joe Murphy in a state three-cushion billiard tourney match Monday, 50 to 34, in 107 innings.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Larry Shapiro, substituting for Shipley, defeated Joe Murphy in a state three-cushion billiard tourney match Monday, 50 to 34, in 107 innings.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Larry Shapiro, substituting for Shipley, defeated Joe Murphy in a state three-cushion billiard tourney match Monday, 50 to 34, in 107 innings.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Badgers in Big Change

Wisconsin May Quit Big Ten If New Policy Is Not Adopted.

BY UNITED PRESS

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 19.—New and drastic revision of inter-collegiate athletic regulations, requiring withdrawal from the Big Ten if necessary, has been submitted to the University of Wisconsin faculty by its committee of four which has studied the athletic situation for a year.

Among the major recommendations were the following:

1. Reorganization of athletic council, giving the university president more and the student less control over athletics.

2. Abolishment of directive coaching during football games and of secret practice.

3. Elimination of out of season practice in football and basketball except for freshmen.

4. Prohibiting scouting as far as possible without return to spring semester.

5. Requirement of affidavit from every athlete showing source of personal income.

6. A new definition by the Big Ten of amateurism, not so technical as to be practically impossible of enforcement in other inter-collegiate sports by a student who earns money during summer playing baseball.

7. Reduction of coaching staff and salary to faculty level three years after permanent job after the Wisconsin faculty will vote on the recommendations Feb. 8 and the result will be submitted to the Big Ten. If only a few of the conference members agree to the recommendations, the committee recommends that Wisconsin withdraw from the Big Ten and refuse to compete with schools which do not enforce similar rules.

Retention of George Little, athletic director who resigned at the request of the athletic council, was scheduled to come before the board of regents today. It was considered likely Little will get the post of director of intramural sports under the new policy of divided intramural and intercollegiate athletics.

The members of the faculty committee which made the recommendations are H. C. Bradley, chemistry professor; Roy Brown, professor in law; Frank C. Sharp, philosophy professor, and Warren Weaver, mathematics professor.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Larry Shapiro, substituting for Shipley, defeated Joe Murphy in a state three-cushion billiard tourney match Monday, 50 to 34, in 107 innings.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Larry Shapiro, substituting for Shipley, defeated Joe Murphy in a state three-cushion billiard tourney match Monday, 50 to 34, in 107 innings.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Larry Shapiro, substituting for Shipley, defeated Joe Murphy in a state three-cushion billiard tourney match Monday, 50 to 34, in 107 innings.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Larry Shapiro, substituting for Shipley, defeated Joe Murphy in a state three-cushion billiard tourney match Monday, 50 to 34, in 107 innings.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Larry Shapiro, substituting for Shipley, defeated Joe Murphy in a state three-cushion billiard tourney match Monday, 50 to 34, in 107 innings.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Shipley.

Larry Shapiro, substituting for Shipley, defeated Joe Murphy in a state three-cushion billiard tourney match Monday, 50 to 34, in 107 innings.

No match is scheduled for tonight, but play will be resumed at Cooler's Wednesday with Murphy opposing Ship