

WAR OUTLAWED, COURT FLOUTED BY OHIO CLERGY

Refuse Ever to Participate in Conflict: Citizenship Ruling Defied.

By Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance CLEVELAND, Jan. 22.—The most sweeping program of social reform ever drawn up by ministers of this state was adopted by the Ohio pastors' convention as its sessions closed here late Thursday.

More than 400 Protestant preachers from the cities, villages and rural communities of Ohio were at the convention.

In a series of resolutions approved by the convention, some of them after bitter opposition by the older men, the following things were included:

A militant attack on war in any form, including the declaration "we never again will sanction or participate in any war." We will not use our pulpits or classrooms as recruiting stations. We will not give any financial or moral support to any war.

Favor World Court

"We favor immediate adherence of the United States to the world court."

"Any revision of the Versailles treaty in the interests of justice to Germany—and any further cancellation of war debts by the United States must be contingent on guarantees of commensurate reduction in expenditures for armaments by nations benefited."

"We deplore making military training a requirement in education.
We command defiance of the Professor Douglas Clyde McIntosh citizenship refusal case."

"We solemnly refuse to acknowledge the obligations which the supreme court declares to be binding on citizens. We have not promised, pressly or tacitly, to accept an act of congress as the final interpretation of the will of God, and we will not do so."

Charge Ruling Peril

"We will use whatever influence is in our power, in our personal relations or in public addresses, to inform others and awaken them to the peril in which this decision involves their traditional and most fundamental liberty."

Demand for reconsideration of all affairs at a world conference.

Urge that the United States repudiate "the traditional method of armed intervention to protect the lives and business interests of its citizens in other lands."

Indorse unemployment insurance.
Affirm "the moral obligation of the state to see that every man has a job."

Germany in this respect.

FEW REDS IN COAL AREAS, SAYS GRACE

Miner Relates Atrocities Against Workers in Harlan County.

Not many of the coal miners in the Harlan (Ky.) coal mine region are Communists, according to Jim Grace, former minister, and a miner for twenty-three years, who is speaking at a series of meetings in Indianapolis this week under auspices of the International Labor Defense.

"The United Mine Workers of America withdrew their support from workers of the district," Grace charges, and the National Miners Union, sponsored by the Communist party, was the only organization that would go to their relief.

Workers Not Reds

"While virtually all of the workers in the district have joined the new union, most of them haven't extended their affiliations to include the Communist party."

"However, the condition of the miners steadily is becoming more deplorable, and it is likely that the Communists may gain many recruits."

Grace, who was arrested Sept. 25 at Neon, Ky., while he was working as an organizer for the National Miners' Union, charges that officers in the Jenkins (Ky.) jail surrendered him at midnight to three men, who didn't claim to be officers.

Tells of Beating

These men took Grace and another organizer to the top of the Big Black mountain, just across the Virginia state line, and there beat them, according to Grace.

Both of the miners' organizers were forced to jump over a precipice to escape, they claim, and Grace says he was left unconscious in the wilderness.

Grace's cheek bone was broken and his body was blue from the alleged officer's kicks, he asserts.

He walked through the rain seven miles before he found assistance.
