

BULK OF PAVING JOBS GIVEN TO INDIANA FIRMS

Contracts for 92 Miles to Cost More Than Million Are Awarded.

Governor Harry G. Leslie's policy of awarding state highway contracts to Indiana bidders was adhered to only partially by the state highway commissions in announcing the award on ninety-two miles of paving at a cost in excess of $1,000,000.

The McCarthy Improvement Company, Davenport, Ia., was turned down on two projects upon which they submitted the low bid and awards were made instead to the Indiana Road Paving Company, Rochester, and Foukles Contracting Company Terre Haute. Difference between the awards and low bid totaled $2,370.97.

But all the work did not go to the Hoosier concerns. Two contracts went to Kentucky. The list follows:

State road No. 30, nineteen-hundredths of a mile of pavement widening in Linn county, $1,000,000. Construction Company of La Porte, $3,709.56.

State road No. 8, from road No. 13 to Linton, eight and one-tenth miles in Elkhart and Noble counties; Mueller Contracting Company of Ft. Wayne, $174,824.10.

State road No. 36, from road No. 43 to Putnam county; P. B. Putman of Fort Wayne, $14,471.78.

State road No. 36, from Montezuma to Rockville, eight and two-tenths miles in Putnam county; P. B. Putman of Ft. Wayne, $132,256.82.

State road No. 30, from two and five-tenths miles north of Indianapolis to Michigan line two and eight-tenths miles
