

SEN. COSTIGAN WILL SPEAK TO STATE EDITORS

Large Attendance Is Seen for Democratic Group's Two-Day Parley.

Speeches by Senator Edward J. Costigan of Colorado and Robert McCormick of the Chicago Tribune will be among the features of the mid-winter meeting of the Indiana Democratic Editorial Association at the Claypool Friday and Saturday.

Large attendance is indicated by advance sales of tickets, according to Claude G. Broecker, association president.

A luncheon Friday will open the session. Legal advertising will be the topic. McCormick will speak Friday afternoon on "The Minnesota Gag Law and the Freedom of the Press."

J. Kenneth Gorrell, Bremen, will preside at the annual gridiron banquet Friday night.

Officers will be elected following a luncheon at noon Saturday. It is expected present officers will be advanced, according to custom, which would make Clarence Wolfe, New Harmony, president.

Other officers are Wray E. Fleming, Michigan City, and Frank Finney, Martinsville, vice presidents; W. C. Minor, Cannelton, secretary, and Scott B. Chambers, Newcastle, treasurer.

Senator Costigan will speak at a political banquet Saturday night.

The Old Order Changeth

The big, square ice card that formerly was the drawing board for caricatures by the family's Bud Fisher, or served as the housewife's telephone directory, is an ancient as the dodo bird.

In its place, it was revealed today at the meeting of the Indiana Ice Dealers Association in the Severin, is a new, oblong card with bigger and better figures of poundage.

The new card is paraffined in order that pencil marks can not deface its surface and make "Yoo-hoo" out of the figures.

Miss Majorie Miller, assistant secretary of the association, is shown in the photo with one of the new cards contrasting with one of the old models.

Te cards, exhibited by the Indexed Coupon Company of La Porte, have figures on both sides.

CHURCHILL TO BE GREETED BY PUBLIC CHIEFS

Leslie and Sullivan Are on Reception Committee;
Peer Here Saturday.

Governor Harry G. Leslie and Mayor Reginald H. Sullivan will be members of the reception committee for Sir Winston Churchill, noted British parliament member, who will lecture Saturday night at the Murat.

Mr. Churchill and his daughter, Diana, will be met by the committee at the Union station at 2:05 Saturday afternoon, and will be escorted to the Marott.

Other members of the committee, named by the Indiana Council of International Relations, under whose auspices Mr. Churchill will lecture, are Dr. Carleton B. McCullough, George J. Marott, Dr. David M. Edwards, Mrs. John W. Kern, Mrs. Isaac Born, Mrs. J. E. P. Holland of Bloomington, Miss Claribel Moore, Miss Jane Toner of Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lund, Addison Harrell, Reginald Garstang, Addison Howe, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Clowes.

At the hotel, Mr. Churchill, his daughter, and committee members will be entertained as personal guests of Marott.

A police escort will be provided Mr. Churchill en route to the temple. Garstang will escort Miss Churchill.

Following the lecture, an informal reception will be given Mr. Churchill in the lounge room of the Shrine Mosque adjoining the temple.

Mr. Churchill and his daughter will remain in Indianapolis Saturday night and will depart some time Sunday.

RUSH! RUSH! RUSH!

Brawny backs march the weighty sacks of plump green berries into the mammoth Kroger roasting plants. Out comes the fragrant coffee—timed to the second, browned to a turn. Into the packages it goes—away it's whisked by swift motors to the Kroger Stores.

Rush! Rush! Rush! That's how Kroger puts the whole-flavor of freshly roasted coffee into your cup. Kroger beats time—the thief of coffee flavor. Beats it by rushing the oven-fresh coffee into the Kroger Stores. Just a little at a time. Just enough to sell quickly while it's at the peak of fullest flavor.

Drink in the indescribable aroma that drifts from the coffee-grinder in any Kroger Store. Only the freshest coffee could have such a bouquet. Taste Kroger coffee. Ah!—a golden, glorious flavor that has won the favor of millions. Price Kroger coffee. It's always surprisingly low. Sold by the thousands of pounds every day, Kroger can afford to take a smaller profit. Sold direct, without the tax of in-between handling, Kroger can sell it for less.

It must please—or your money back! Try any one of the Kroger coffees—in the price range you prefer. Brew it your favorite way—boil it, perk it, drip it. Then sip it, taste it—if, penny for penny, it's not the best-flavored coffee you've ever bought, return what's left in the package and we'll return your money. That's how confident Kroger is of its better, fresher coffees.

JEWEL... the coffee that brews into a soul-clearing beverage. It's not the price that sells Jewel. No. Thousands buy it who could afford to pay more. It's the flavor. The golden, glorious flavor of oven-fresh coffee. Get a pound today, and see! Packed in the whole bean, in a simple sealed bag. Ground for you when you buy it, the way you want it ground.

POUND 19c

FRENCH—A four-coffee blend, marvelously rich and mellow. Packed in lock-top cans and ground as you buy it, as you want it ground. 29c Pound

COUNTRY CLUB—The choicest coffees from famous plantations. Blended, roasted, ground—then preserved in vacuum-pack tins. 35c Pound

HER GRACE—A new blend of Colombian and Brazilian coffees. Unusually fine flavored. Fresh-roasted—ground when you get it. 25c Pound
