

NATURE STUDY CLUBS FORMED AT SCHOOL 21

Bicentennial Programs Are Continued by Pupils Throughout City.

Development of interest in outdoor life and preservation of wild life are objects of the two nature study clubs at Florence Fay school No. 21, at 2815 English avenue.

Membership in both clubs is restricted to pupils in the departmental grades. One is for boys, the other for girls.

The boys' club, formed last week, hiked to Christian wood Saturday as its first expedition. The girls' organization, which held its initial meeting Monday, will have its first hike next Saturday.

Both clubs plan to hike every Saturday if the weather permits.

Membership in the boys' group is twenty-five. Officers of the club are Earl Zicars, president; John Sellers, vice-president; and Charles Hardy, secretary.

The girls' organization claims thirty members. Its officers are Mary Della Rains, president; Frances Brewer, vice-president; and Vera Huffman, secretary.

Both groups will hold weekly meetings besides their regular hikes.

Faculty sponsor of the two clubs is Miss Henrietta Scheier, teacher of science.

I. U. DEBATE TEAM MEMBERS SELECTED

Indianapolis Group Is Chosen for Affirmative Squad.

By Times Special BLOOMINGTON, Ind., March 2.—Members of the Indiana university men's debating team for this semester have been selected by Coach Donald E. Bowen.

The debaters will argue the question, "Resolved, That all World War intergovernmental debts and reparations should be canceled."

Upholding the affirmative for Indiana university will be Milton Fineburg of Indianapolis, Ernest Brown of Peru, and David Cohen of Indiana Harbor. Alternate will be John Whitinghill of Booneville.

Members of the negative team will be Willis Jacobs of Hammond, Dorleen Woodsmall of Terre Haute, and Frank Edmondson of Seymour. Robert Ludwig of Elkhart will be alternate.

COMEDY TO BE STAGED BY STUDENTS AT I. U.

Division of Speech Group Will Present Play for Three Days.

By Times Special BLOOMINGTON, Ind., March 2.—"Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh," a comedy by Henry James Smith, will be presented by students in the division of speech of the English department of Indiana university, March 8, 9 and 10, according to Dr. Lee R. Norville, dramatic coach.

Night performances will be given on the first and last days. A matinee will be given on the second. Two casts have been chosen for some of the parts in the play and will perform in alternate presentations.

The cast follows:

William Hancock, Seymour; Malcolm Baldrige, Indianapolis; Steven M. Loren, Harmon, New Vienna, O.; Doris Greenberg, Greencastle; Marjorie Horn, Ft. Wayne; Elizabeth Ladd, Indianapolis; M. G. Gaber, East Chicago; Mrs. Gladys Ladd, Griffith; Mrs. Dorothy Burton, Indianapolis; Ned LeFever, Indianapolis; Bloomington; Ned LeFever, Elkhart.

ENGLISH TEACHER IS SPEAKER AT NO. 29

Mothers' Chorus Will Sing and Pupils Will Play Tonight.

Miss Lillian Chandler, exchange teacher at Washington high school from London, Eng., will speak before a special fathers' meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of Oliver P. Morton School, No. 29, at 2101 College avenue, tonight.

Bernays Thurston, eighth grade pupil at Morton school, and George Thurston, formerly a pupil at Morton school, now of Shortridge high school, will play a guitar and banjo duet. In addition, the Mothers' chorus will sing, under the direction of Mrs. Norma Koster.

Presiding will be Mrs. W. E. Palmer, president of the association.

DR. CLARENCE YOKUM TO SPEAK OVER RADIO

Michigan Professor Will Be Heard on Columbia Chain Sunday.

Dr. Clarence Yokum, vice-president of the University of Michigan, will speak on "Studying the Person" over the Columbia broadcasting system Sunday night.

His talk will be the feature of a broadcast, to be held between 6 and 6:30 by the national advisory council on radio in education. The program is to be the fourth of a series of eight.

Also on the program will be a dramatization of Dr. Yokum's talk. The playlet will be entitled "What Kind of a Boy Is Bill?"

YEARBOOK IS PREPARED

Most of Material for Franklin Almanack in Hands of Engravers.

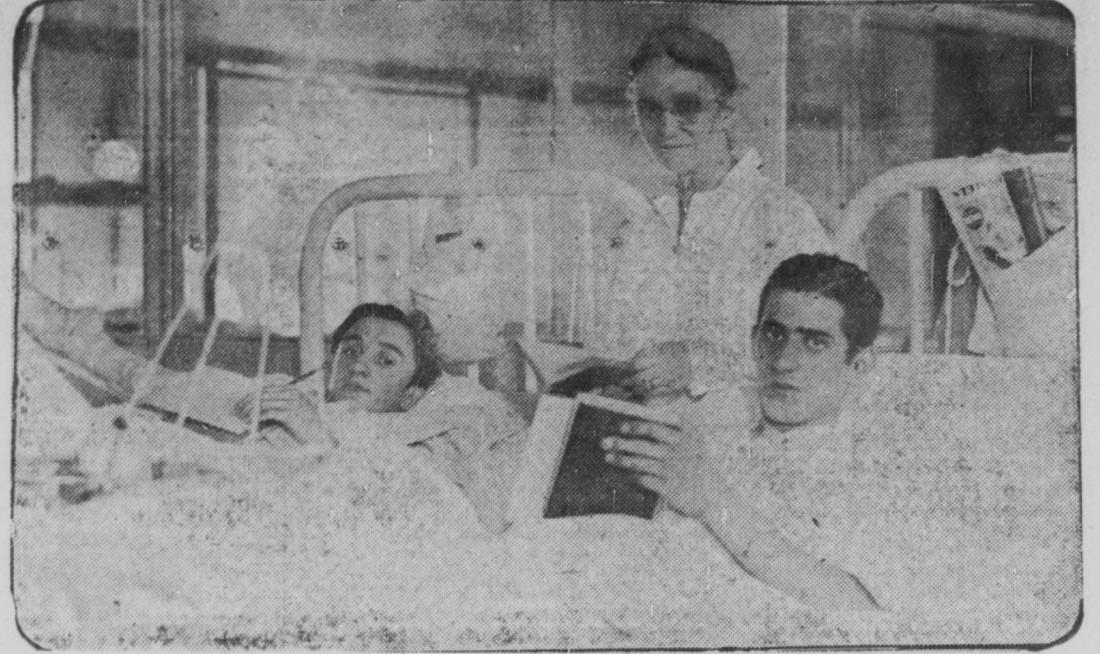

By Times Special FRANKLIN, Ind., March 2.—Most of the material for the Almanack, Franklin college student yearbook, is in the hands of the engravers, it has been announced by Patrick Cuddy of Indianapolis, editor. The book will appear in June.

Two distinctive features are planned for the annual this year, according to Cuddy. The first is the selection of the most beautiful copy on the campus. The second is the naming of the man most likely to succeed in the professional world. He will be selected by representatives from the faculty from candidates nominated by the fraternities.

Trio's Schedule Announced

Schools at which the Orloff trio will sing during the coming week are as follows: Thursday, Schools 18, 61 and 13; Tuesday, Schools 33, 74 and 54.

School Comes to Hospital Shutins

Frederick Mitchell (left), and Jesse Zilson.

NO. 16 TO HOLD STUNT PROGRAM

P.-T. A Group Is Sponsoring Event Friday Night.

Stunts, all kinds of them, will be given at School No. 16, at Indianapolis and Market streets, Friday night.

Pupils of the school, assisted by a few outsiders, will stage a stunt night under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association.

The stunts will include physical exercise drills, pantomimes, dances, songs by the Glee club, and an "Amos an' Andy" act.

L. E. Hall, principal of the school, is in charge of the program.

Feature of the program will be a pantomime, "The Eclipse," staged by pupils in the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades.

Members of the Pioneers club will present the "Amos an' Andy" skit at the sixth grade.

Four girls in the first grade will present "Our丁, a soft shoe dance number. The girls are Louise Schneider, Gladys Rose, Lois Miller, and Margaret Raase.

Helen Miller will give a reading, Adaline Miller will play a piano solo, and Virginia Davis will present a dance, "The Human Organ."

The gymnasium classes will put on a group of acrobatic stunts, and a physical education drill.

Assisting the pupils will be Noble Pearcey, Virginia Davis, Mary Jo Rosney, and Evelyn Jean Ludwig, who will stage a number of dances.

PLEDGES ARE NAMED

Honorary Fraternities at De Pauw Announce Lists.

By Times Special GREENCASTLE, Ind., March 2.—Three honorary fraternities at De Pauw university, Sigma Delta Chi, journalistic organization; Escabard and Blade, military fraternity, and Oxford Club, ministerial club, have been named at Shortridge high school and at Manual Training high school.

For the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades in nineteenth west side schools will attend the concert. Schools which will be represented are Nos. 4, 5, 16, 17, 23, 24, 30, 40, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 52, 53, 63, 67, 75, and 82.

The concert will be the first program ever to be presented in the Washington auditorium for grade school pupils.

Transportation for pupils is being arranged by Merlin B. Stump, principal of Woodrow Wilson School No. 75. Stump announces that a teacher will accompany every thirty children, in order to guard against accidents.

Washington high school boys will act as ushers.

In preparation for the concert, the music department of the public schools are giving two broadcasts over WFBM, to acquaint the pupils with the numbers which will be played.

First of the programs was given at 5:30 Monday. The second will be broadcast next Monday at the same hour.

PLAN SUMMER SESSION

Forty-third Annual I. U. Session Scheduled to Open June 15.

By Times Special BLOOMINGTON, Ind., March 2.—Forty-third annual summer session of Indiana university will open this summer June 15, it was announced by Dean H. L. Smith, director.

The 1932 summer curriculum will cover anatomy, athletics, botany, chemistry, commerce, finance, comparative physiology, economics and sociology, education, English, fine arts, French, Geology and geography, German, history, home economics, hygiene, journalism, Latin, law, library science, mathematics, medicine, music, philosophy, physical education, physics, political science, psychology, public speaking, romance languages, social service, sociology, Spanish and zoology.

Byrd's Aid Is Speaker

Charles E. Lofgren, personnel officer of the Byrd Antarctic expedition, spoke this morning before an auditorium meeting of the pupils of Manual Training high school. He told of many of the adventures of the men in Little America, and discussed the results of the exploration.

Presiding will be Mrs. W. E. Palmer, president of the association.

PICTURE OF MARIA DI MEDICI PAINTED BY 'PERFECT PORTRAITIST'

By ALICE ROHE (Written for NEA Service)

THE little girl in today's picture bears one of the most famous names in history—Maria di Medici. But she is not that Maria who became queen of France.

The charming child whose grave brown eyes look straight at you from Bronzino's beautiful painting was the French queen's aunt. She lived in a splendid palace in Florence, surrounded by costly and exquisite works of art.

Children then, even rich ones, did not have the amusing toys like boys and girls today enjoy. There is, though, a doll in Florence which belonged to the little Medici. Maria loved most to go to the chariot races which her father gave in the great square of Santa Maria Novella, for the amusement of the people after the games of ancient Rome.

And among the attendants of his father's court there was a handsome young page whose delight it was to wait upon the duke's eldest daughter. For years the friendship between these two grew—innocent childish interest at first and then perhaps a budding love.

Two distinctive features are planned for the annual this year, according to Cuddy. The first is the selection of the most beautiful copy on the campus. The second is the naming of the man most likely to succeed in the professional world. He will be selected by representatives from the faculty from candidates nominated by the fraternities.

MARIA's father, Duke Cosimo, was a ruthless and ambitious despot. Although he did not himself, or through his children, realize his dreams of royal power, he could boast that there was a Medici on nearly every throne of Europe before the three and a half centuries of their prestige ended.

Duke Cosimo was proud of his children and had them painted many times. Little Maria was, as her picture shows, very much of an aristocrat.

You knew that she was somebody the minute you look at the serious face, framed in bobbed brown hair, a tiny strand on either side of the part twisted back as though to settle once and for all the problem of tumbling forelocks.

Children then, even rich ones, did not have the amusing toys like boys and girls today enjoy.

There is, though, a doll in Florence which belonged to the little Medici. Maria loved most to go to the chariot races which her father gave in the great square of Santa Maria Novella, for the amusement of the people after the games of ancient Rome.

And among the attendants of his father's court there was a handsome young page whose delight it was to wait upon the duke's eldest daughter. For years the friendship between these two grew—innocent childish interest at first and then perhaps a budding love.

Two distinctive features are planned for the annual this year, according to Cuddy. The first is the selection of the most beautiful copy on the campus. The second is the naming of the man most likely to succeed in the professional world. He will be selected by representatives from the faculty from candidates nominated by the fraternities.

Trio's Schedule Announced

Schools at which the Orloff trio will sing during the coming week are as follows: Thursday, Schools

18, 61 and 13; Tuesday, Schools

33, 74 and 54.

SCHOOL EVENTS CARRY TRIBUTE TO WASHINGTON

Hikes Will Be Held Weekly to Develop Interest in Outdoor Life.

Parade of George Washington bimillennial observances continues.

Though the first President's birthday is more than a week past, Indianapolis school pupils still are honoring the "Father of Our Country" with programs.

Prominent among the programs presented by grade school pupils this week are those at James A. Garfield school No. 35, 2201 Madison avenue, and at school No. 10, 1125 Spruce street.

Pupils in the 2A grade will present "The Doll Shop" Thursday night before a meeting of the school's Parent-Teacher Association.

Cast Is Announced

Cast of characters in the play

Mildred Hull, producer of the doll show; Laura Marion, customer; Ruby Haymaker, Italian doll; Geraldine Nellie French doll; Elizabeth May Hause, French doll; Paul Baker, George Washington doll; Evaline Chapman, Alice, Lucy Campbell, sixth grade; "Washington Life," by Georgia Miller, second grade; and "The Washington," by Richard White, seventh grade.

Miss Helen Snyder, teacher of the second grade, is director of the play.

Recitation of poems by pupils features the program which will be presented before the Parent-Teacher Association of school No. 20, 1125 Spruce street, this afternoon.

The program will be opened by a salute to the flag by pupils in the departmental grades. This will be followed by a song, "Washington's Birthday," sung by fourth grade pupils.

Poems on Program

Poems which will be given during the program are:

"What Was the Secret?" by Doris Folger, fifth grade; "Tis Splendid to Live So Grandly" by Betty Dale, seventh grade; "The Old Country" by Louise Alfrey, Lucy Campbell, sixth grade; "Washington Life," by Georgia Miller, second grade; and "The Washington," by Richard White, seventh grade.

Ten girls in the sixth grade will give a presentation of the minuteman. Three songs, "Father of the Land We Love," "Song of a Thousand Years," and "Mt. Vernon Bells," by Louise Swan, teacher of music at George B. Loomis School No. 85, at 338 South Arlington avenue, will present two piano solos, "Valicci" by Mokrejs, and "Molto Allegro, Vivac" from the sonata, "Tragica," by MacDowell.

Marian Chaplin, a pupil at Shortridge high school, and a member of the school orchestra, will play two violin numbers, accompanied on the piano by Dorothy Chaplin. She will play "Chanson Arabe" and "The Flight of the Bee" by Rinsky-Korsakov.

Others who will perform over the air are J. Harold Brown, head of the music department at Crispus Attucks high school, who will play a group of piano solos, and Raymond Oster of the Technical high school music department, who will play two trumpet solos.

The School Stamp of the Air, which "sailed" to Louisiana during the broadcast at 9:35 today, will go to Texas during the Friday broadcast. Monday's visit will be paid Oklahoma.

DISPLAY PHOTO ENTRIES

Outstanding Pictures of American Competition Are Shown Here.

The forty-nine outstanding entries in the 1931 American photographic competition are on display this week in the reference room of the public library.

O'Malley has been commissioner of fisheries since 1922. Prior to that time he was a student and writer dealing with salmon fisheries.

Commander King-Hall, besides holding a high office in the British navy himself, is the son of an admiral.

Commander King-Hall will deal with the Imperial conference which resulted, through the Statute of Westminster, in the recognition of the national status of the dominions.